FOUR ARE FINED FOR HUNTING ON SHEPPARD LAND

Four hunters paid fines Tuesday night before Justice of the Peace Kathryn K. Geiman, Littlestown R. 2, Union Twp., after they had been apprehended Saturday night, in a heavy rain, hunting on land of R. H. Sheppard, Hanover R 4, Union Twp.

Game Protector Homer H. Thrush said the men, plus two juveniles, who will appear later before juvenile court, were apprehended Saturday night when, in a driving rain, three deputy game protectors, on foot, patroled a township road running past the Sheppard farm.

THREE DIFFERENT CARS

During the course of the patrol from 5:30 to 11:30 o'clock, the protectors apprehended hunters from three different cars who had entered the Sheppard land. One of the hunters, Irvin R. Strausbaugh, 19, Hanover R. 5, Thrush said, had been arrested last December while hunting on the same property, that time for transporting an untagged deer.

According to the game protector, the Sheppard farm, lying fallow at the spot, is "a veritable paradise for game. I think there are more deer, squirrels and pheasant than at any similar spot in the state. The land is posted against trespassing, but it seems a temptation for hunters."

HAD LOADED GUN

At the hearing Tuesday evening Raymond E Wildasin, 22, of 829 S. Center St., Hanover, pleaded guilty to a charge of using a vehicle to hunt wild birds and animals, on which he paid $50 and costs. He also pleaded guilty to having a loaded gun in a vehicle, and on that charge paid a $25 fine and costs.

Wildasin was a passenger in a car operated by Gary E. Martin, 21, Hanover R. 3.

Martin paid a $50 fine and costs on a charge of using a vehicle to hunt for wild birds and animals, and also paid a fine of $10 and costs for using an unplugged shotgun. Thrush explained the law provides that a magazine must be plugged so that only two shots can be in

FR. WILDEMAN SPEAKER FOR PARC GROUP

The Rev. Fr John Wildeman of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, was the speaker for the November meeting of the Adams County unit of the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children Tuesday evening at the Day Care Center on E. High St.

Speaking on "Religion and the Retarded Child," Father Wildeimage of God" than some other folk. A knowledge of God can be given them by the teaching of Bible stories and they can come to a real understanding of God's love, he said.

He suggested two books to the parents in the audience, "The Mentally Retarded Child and His Parents" by Stella Slaughter, which is available in the Adams County Public Library, and 'The Little Book about God" by Lorriane Ford.

A film, "The Toymakers," made at the Selinsgrove State School, was shown. It suggested ways toward understanding the retarded child, steps toward rehabilitation and the importance of preschool training.

President Evers Rinehart presided at Tuesday's meeting. Plans were made for a Christmas party for parents and children at 10 a.m December 20. A report was given on the progress of the current fund campaign and plans were advanced for the rummage sale to be held February 20 and for a zoo trip for the children in the spring.

A social hour followed the business meeting.

STOCKS MIXED

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market settled into a mixed price pattern early this afternoon following Tuesday's record upward leap.

Trading was heavy but nothing like Tuesday which turned out to be one of the busiest sessions in 30 years.

Most changes were fractional although some of the wide-moving issues were exceptions.

A diligent search for a missing picture of Carl Sandburg has failed, and The Gettysburg Times today seeks the assistance of the public in locating the photograph, which was taken from the wall of The Times newsroom early this summer.

The photograph was one made on November 19, 1959, when Sandburg appeared in the National Cemetery to deliver an address before the Soldiers' National Monument.

The exact time of its disappearance is unknown, for during the period of several months preceding the centennial observance of the Battle of Gettysburg hundreds of persons visited the Times offices. Many were visitors who sought the normal kind of information tourists seek from newspapers. Many placed advance orders for the centennial edition. Many also were local residents.

The photograph is a momento of sentimental value to The Times. It will be appreciated if Times readers will advise this office if they know the whereabouts of the photograph.

MORE THAN 100 LUTHERANS TO CONVENE HERE

Delegates from 14 Lutheran seminaries in the U.S. and nine foreign countries will meet Friday and Saturday at the local seminary to discuss "The 20th Century Congregation: Help or Hindrance to the Gospel?"

The conference is sponsored by the Association of Lutheran Seminarians and is held annually at one of the 14 seminaries in the U.S. It was held in Gettysburg 15 years ago.

More than 100 delegates are expected to attend, about 60 of whom will represent foreign seminaries. Registration will be held at 11 o'clock Friday morning.

Delegates will be welcomes at 2 o'clock by Dr. Donald R. Heiges, president. Dr. Jerald C. Brauer, dean of the University of Chicago Divinity School, will present the first lecture at 2:30 o'clock. Vespers will be held at 9 o'clock Friday evening with Dr. Frederick K. Wentz, professor of Christian Ethics and Church History, presenting the sermon. Gilbert Askew, president of the student association, will be the officiant.

SPEAKS SATURDAY

Dr. Warren Quanbeck will present the sermon Saturday morning at 8 o'clock with Neil E. Newton, president of the Association of Lutheran Seminarians, officiant. Rev. George Webber, pastor of the East Harlem Protestant Parish, N. Y., will lecture at 9:15. Dr. Brauer will present his second lecture Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock after which the delegates will tour the Gettysburg Battlefield as guests of the National Park Service.

Evening vespers at 9:30 o'clock will be conducted by Seminarian Don Armentrout, vice president of the association. The organist will be Robert Clippinger, instructor of voice and church music.

Holy Communion services will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

WED 51 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Musselman, Fairfield, are quietly observing their 51st wedding anniversary today.

MAN HURT IN CRASH TODAY ON ROUTE 15

Donald Miller, 21, York Springs R. 2, was injured when a car in which he was a passenger was involved in an accident at Schriver's Corner at 6:45 this morning.

At 9 o'clock York Springs R. 2 resident Aaron Gerald Hardy, 17, escaped injury when his car rolled over near York Springs and was demolished.

State police said the accident at the intersection of Routes 15 and 394 (the Hunterstown-Table Rock Rd.) occurred when Shirley Cletus Milhimes, 34, New Oxford R. 2, driving west in a truck attempted to cross the intersection and his car struck an auto being operated south on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. by Curtis Donald Gladfelter, 17, York Springs R. 2.

After the collision the Gladfelter car spun around and smashed into a concrete retaining wall off the side of the road. Damage to Gladfelter's car was estimated at $400, and damage to the truck at $40.

Miller was removed to the Warner Hospital in the local ambulance. He was treated for abrasions of the right knee.

Hardy was the only person reported involved in the 9 o'clock accident 1½ miles west of York Springs on the Idaville Rd. He lost control of his car on a curve, according to police. The vehicle went off the right side of the road, came back onto the highway, then went across the highway, off the left side and overturned, The 1952 car was listed as demolished.

Police said investigation is continuing in both accidents.

REV. KROEGER SPEAKER FOR BSP BANQUET

Rev. Otto Kroeger, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, spoke on "Love's Miracle in Marriage" at the Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority annual Thanksgiving banquet Tuesday evening in the Dutch Cupboard.

"There are three types of love; false love, natural love and marital love," Rev. Mr. Kroeger said. "The first type of love is false possession or lust, natural love is as a mother to her child, and Johnson To Address U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will make a nationwide television address to the nation on Thanksgiving evening, the White House announced today.

The 15-minute address, scheduled for 6:15 p.m. EST Thursday night, "will be a Thanksgiving Day message to the people" from the new President, press secretary Pierre Salinger said.

The broadcast will be made from the President's oval office in the White House. It will be carried live on the National Broadcasting Co. and Columbia Broadcasting System networks.

It also may be carried on the American Broadcasting Co. network if other technical problems can be worked out.

Johnson Uses Rocker

President Lyndon B. Johnson brought his own rocking chair to the White House and used it during meetings with visitors in the oval office of the White House Tuesday. He has had the chair in his home for the past two years. The late President Kennedy, whom Johnson succeeded, frequently used such a chair while talking to visitors. (AP Wirephoto)

SOROPTIMIST CLUB TO HOLD XMAS BANQUET

Gettysburg Soroptimists at a business meeting Tuesday evening at the REA building made plans for their annual Christmas dinner meeting to be held December 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Peace Light Inn.

Mrs. H. W. Baker, president of the club, presided at the business meeting with 27 members present. Reports were given by Mrs. Donald Carver, secretary, and Miss Anna Weaver, Littlestown, treasurer.

The president introduced Edward Kann, representing the local Kiwanis Club, who spoke on his club's plan to raise funds for community projects by having the Wally Taber Show come to the Junior High School auditorium January 29. The proceeds from the show will be used for youth work in the community. He said he had been assigned to speak to the service clubs to interest them in this community project.

PLAN GIFT EXCHANGE

Committee reports were given by various chairmen. Mrs. Samuel Higinbotham, Littlestown, chairman of classification and membership, presented a list of open classifications for new members. Mrs. Donald Myers, chairman of constitution and bylaws, said she had submitted a map of the club's boundary to the regional board for further study. Mrs. William Shoemaker, chairman of hospitality, announced the Christmas dinner

MRS. MINTER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. E. Blanche Minter, 159 E. Middle St., died this morning at 8:35 o'clock in the Warner Hospital where she had been a patient for the last 10 weeks. Mrs. Minter was the widow of Norris L. Minter, who died 25 years ago. Death came on her 80th birthday.

She was a native of Clifton Mills, W. Va., and was a daughter of the late Isaiah and Celia (Rush) Haines.

Mrs. Minter was a member of the St. James Lutheran Church and of the Ladies' Bible Class of the church. She also belonged to the Warner Hospital Auxiliary, the county home auxiliary, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Auxiliary of the GAR. For many years she had served as a Republican committeewoman in the First Ward of Gettysburg.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. George Shealer, Mrs. Stover A. Small and L. Glenn Minter, all of Gettysburg. There are six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Two sisters and a brother also survive. They are Mrs. Edith Swift, Brownsville, Pa.; Cloyd Haines, Clifton Mills, W. Va., and Mrs. Ruth Talbert, Brownsville.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home with her pastor, the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, officiating. Interment will be made in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

St. James Plans Service Thursday

The annual Thanksgiving Day service at St. James Lutheran Church will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in keeping with the late President Kennedy's proclamation that the people of America "gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship," and that we "earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished task of achieving peace, justice and understanding among all men . . . "

Taking a phrase from the 1963 Thanksgiving proclamation, Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor, will preach on "The Glorious Gifts of God."

Two choirs will participate, the Junior Choir singing the anthem, "O Give Thanks," and the Senior Choir singing two anthems, "Festival Hymn," a Dutch tune, and "Thanks Be to Thee," by Handel.

The congregation will unite with the choirs in singing three hymns, "Now Thank We All Our God," "We Praise Thee, O God, Our Redeemer," and "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty." The Rev. John S. Bishop, associate pastor, will serve as liturgist. Harold Ford Jr. will be acolyte for the service.

Yank Kidnapt In Caracas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The assistant chief of the U.S. Army mission in Venezuela, Col. James K. Chenault, was kidnapped at gunpoint this morning by four armed men in Caracas.

The Pentagon, in announcing this, said Chenault was on the way from his home to headquarters of the army mission in Caracas when his official car was stopped by the kidnappers and he was removed from it.

This occurred about 7 a.m. At about 9:30 a.m., the Pentagon said, the U.S. Embassy in Caracas received a phone call from a Spanish-speaking man who said in effect, "Don't worry about Col. Chenault; the kidnapping was for propaganda purposes only."

ST. JAMES TO BEGIN SERIES OF RECITALS

On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, St. James Lutheran Church will present Robert E. Baker, organist, in a recital of music for the Advent season. The guest soloist will be James Buffenmyer, a bass-baritone.

The recital will be the first of a series to given on the first Sunday of Advent and the first Sunday in Lent of each year and the series will be known as the Carrie M. Pretz Recitals in honor of Mrs. Carrie Pretz who for many years was organist and choir director at St. James.

In her honor these recitals are dedicated "to the furtherance of great music in the church toward which she contributed so much," a church announcement said. Mrs. Pretz, who has been active in the musical life of this community for many years, resides at 264 S. Howard Ave. where she gives piano instruction.

STUDENTS TO PERFORM

Mr. Baker is a student at Gettysburg College where he is majoring in music education. He has been a pupil of J. Herbert Springer, professor of organ at the college, for five years. The guest soloist, Mr. Buffenmyer, is also a student at the college and is a pupil of Prof. Henry Ackley.

The program for Sunday's recital will include: Part 1, Tocatta in F Major by Pachelbel; Dialogue, Clerambault; Muzete, Dandrieu; Three Chorale Preludes by Buxtehude, and Pastorale and Fugue on "From Heaven High"

COUPLE TO WED

A marriage license was issued at the courthouse today to Oliver Frederick Schutt Jr., 34 Baltimore St., and Barbara Joan Sadler DeBore, 109 Springs Ave., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Sadler of Gettysburg.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

The Gettysburg Post Office will operate on a holiday schedule Thanksgiving Day. The lobby will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. There will be no delivery service, city or rural, and no window service.

SEEK $2,500 FOR AFS PLAN FOR STUDENTS

A pledge assembly in the Gettysburg High School gymnasium December 3 will kick off the campaign to raise $2,500 for the American Field Service, it was announced at an AFS chapter meeting Tuesday evening.

At that time shares subscribed at 25 cents each in junior and senior home rooms will be announced. Those buying four or more shares will receive a "good will" certificate bearing photographs of all the AFS students who have come to Gettysburg for a year's stay. Funds raised will pay for two foreign students in 1964-65 and will send one abroad.

The community is also asked to support the project which will last until December 13. Native items, brought by former students, will be on display in showcases in the junior and senior high schools.

PLAN CHRISTMAS TEA

A Christmas tea, honoring Barbel Lerche of Germany, Neko Wieck of Brazil, and the ICYE student, Ronnie Bach, also of Germany, is scheduled for December 17 in the high school cafetorium. Presents will be distributed at that time.

All of these students have achieved status on the current honor roll, sing with the high school choir and contributed to the recent international festival. Neko Wieck is a candidate for the basketball team. They will be available to speak on club programs after Christmas.

Johnson Tells Congress He Will Pursue Ideas And Ideals Of Ex-President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told the nation and the world today that the ideas and ideals of John F. Kennedy "must and will be translated into effective action."

The new President appealed at the same time for "an end to the teaching and preaching of hate and evil and violence."

In a 1,500-word address prepared for a joint session of the Senate and House, Johnson specifically called for early congressional action to set up new civil rights safeguards and enact an $11-billion tax cut.

"No memorial oration or eulogy could more eloquently honor President Kennedy's memory than the earliest possible passage of the civil rights bill for which he fought," Johnson said.

TAX MEASURE

And he said, "No act of ours could more fittingly continue the work of President Kennedy than the earliest passage of the tax bill for which he sought."

The new chief executive said: "This is no time for delay—it is a time for action."

Johnson opened his address by saying:

"All I have I would have given gladly not to be standing here today."

VOWS COMMEMORATION

Johnson, who called the assassination of President Kennedy "the foulest deed of our time," declared that Kennedy must be commemorated in actions.

"Our most immediate tasks," Johnson said, "are here on this hill," meaning in Congress.

Johnson appealed for United effort by a nation that goes forward "in action, in tolerance and mutual understanding." In one of his most emotional passages Johnson asserted:

CALLS FOR RESPECT

"The time has come for Americans of all races and creeds and political beliefs to understand and respect one another. Let us put an end to the teaching and preaching of hate and evil and violence. Let us turn away from the fanatics of

Caroline Visits Grave Of Her Daddy With Her Mother

WASHINGTON (AP) — The last of thousands had left Arlington National Cemetery when Jacqueline Kennedy, accompanied by her daughter Caroline, trudged up the slope to the grave of her husband.

It was Mrs. Kennedy's third appearance on the hillside overlooking Washington where President John F. Kennedy is buried among the nation's war dead. It was Caroline's first.

After Monday's graveside services, Mrs. Kennedy returned just before midnight with the late President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, to place flowers there.

10-MINUTE VISIT

At 5 p.m. Tuesday after the mighty and the humble had made a silent pilgramage, the cemetery was closed to the public. About two hours later, Mrs. Kennedy appeared with Caroline. They stayed about 10 minutes.

Thursday, Mrs. Kennedy keeps alive a family tradition for Caroline, 6 today and John Jr., 3, taking them to their grandparents' home on Cape Cod for Thanksgiving.

The grieving Kennedy family will gather as they have for years at the big oceanfront home of the late President's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, at Hyannis Port, Mass.

FLY TO CAPE COD

Mrs. Kennedy and the children will fly to Cape Cod on Thanksgiving morning aboard the Kennedy family plane "Caroline."

She will stay over the holiday weekend, returning to the White House Monday to complete plans for moving out to make way for the family of President Johnson.

Presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger said Mrs. Kennedy will probably finish moving Thursday of next week. It is expected she will take up residence in Washington.

Before they came to the White House in January 1961, the Kennedys lived in a narrow red brick house in Georgetown.

It is understood that Mrs. Kennedy will rent or buy another house not too far away.

GHS SENIOR HONORED BY SERVICE CLUB

Ronald L. Hartzell, a Senior at Gettysburg High School, was named as "the Senior of the Month" by the Cashtown Community Lions Club at its meeting Tuesday evening in the Orrtanna Methodist Church. His father, Ronald L. Hartzell, was also introduced to the club.

In presenting a "certificate of achievement to the youth, Hobart Benchoff, principal of Franklin Twp. Elementary School, said Hartzell is a vocational agriculture student at Gettysburg High School and recipient of the area farmer degree. He is a member of the "Cannone Aid" staff of the high school, participated in track at school and is a member of the local Howitzer Battery, 104th Armored Cavalry, Pennsylvania National Guard.

President Donald Hershey presented John W. Bream Sr. with a "certificate of appreciation" for his work in putting up Cashtown Community Lions signs.

ANNOUNCES ZONE MEETING

Members Daniel J. Wolff and Kermit Deardorff reported completion of slab dams at the club's par ksite. Trout will be placed at the dams.

President John Brown, of the Upper Adams Lions Club, a guest at the meeting, announced the zone meeting of Gettysburg, Fairfield, Cashtown and Upper Adams Lions Clubs will be held at Biglerville January 21.

President Hershey announced the annual ladies' night Christmas program with an exchange of gifts, will be held December 10 by the Cashtown Lions at the Cashtown community hall.

STUDENTS ENTERTAIN

Entertainment Tuesday was provided by the following quartet from Biglerville High School: Richard Van Dyke, Keith Lawver, Samuel Crum and Richard Funt, accompanied by Audrey Funt and Connie Crum. The quartet sang "Prayer of Thanksgiving," "America, the Beautiful" and the spiritual, "Good News."

Guests in addition to John Brown were Cyrus Bucher, James Elby and Rodney Ernst, all of the Upper Adams Lions Club, and Harold Day of the Fairfield Lions Club.

C. A. SHULTZ, 74 EXPIRES TODAY

Clarence A. Shultz, 74, died at his home, Biglerville R. 2, this morning about 10 o'clock, after an illness of some time.

Born November 14, 1890, he was a native of Adams County and a son of the late John and Barbara Lentz Shultz. He always resided in the county.

Survivors include his wife, the former Blanche Shultz; two sons, Ivan Shultz, and Cletus Shultz, both of Biglerville R. 2, one daughter, Mrs. Edith Baker, Arendtsville; nine grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren, and these brothers and sisters: Ottie Shultz, Fairfield; Howard Shultz, Biglerville R. 2; Mrs. James Hassler, Chambersburg; Mrs. John Fidler, Biglerville; Mrs. Edgar Roth, Biglerville, and Mrs. Charles Shindledecker, Orrtanna R. 1.

He was a member of Flohr's Lutheran Church and of the local Eagles lodge.

73 Deer Killed In County In 2 Months

Seventy-three deer have been killed in Adams County in the last two months.

Thirty-one were killed in November, according to Game Protector Homer Thrush, all but two of them when struck by vehicles on the highways of the county.

So far this month 42 deer have been killed, most of them when hit by cars or trucks, the others illegally, or killed legally because of crop damage.

TRIO WAIVES HEARINGS HERE

Three Hunterstown area residents have waived hearings before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder on charges of bootlegging.

The justice said this morning that all three were returned to jail after waiving the hearings, in default of bail.

Bond has been set at $3,000 each in the cases of James Brewer, 44, and Charlie Robinson, 45. Bond has been set at $1,500 for Geraldine J. Reynolds, 31, alias Geraldine J. Brewer. All have Gettysburg R. 4 addresses. All three have been in jail on the bootlegging charges since November 11.

On that date Brewer and Robinson were in an early morning auto accident at Thomasville and were removed for treatment of their minor injuries.

Investigation followed and later that day all three were arrested and placed in jail.

Liquor control agents at the time said a still was found in the basement of a house near Hunterstown that Brewer had rented earlier this year.

LOADED RIFLE IN CAR

Charles L. Zumbrum, 18, Hanover R. 1, driver of another car, pleaded guilty to using a vehicle to hunt and paid a $50 fine and costs. His shotgun was unloaded when the game protectors came upon him, Thrush said.

Strausbaugh was the driver of the third car. He entered a plea of guilty to using a vehicle for hunting, and paid a fine of $50 and costs. He also paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of having a loaded rifle in an automobile.

Thrush said the only game found was a freshly killed gray squirrel in the Martin car.

The three deputy game protectors who took up the vigil in the rain as a result of frequent reports of hunting in the area were J. K. Biesecker, Orrtanna; Edward F. Fuhrman Jr., McSherrystown, and Paul K. Warnick, Hanover R. 5.

KENNEDYS TO HOLD ANNUAL TURKEY DINNER

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) —The bereaved parents of assassinated President John F. Kennedy prepared today for the family's annual Thanksgiving reunion, saddened this year by the sudden loss of their eldest son.

The Kennedys, traditionally, have joined former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy for Thanksgiving dinner and a family reunion at the seaside house which has been their summer home for years.

ALL TO ATTEND

The late President's two surviving brothers and three sisters and their families are expected for the customary turkey dinner on Thursday. So is Jacqueline Kennedy, the young widow, and her two children, Caroline, 6 today, and John, 3.

The Thanksgiving reunions have been a big thing for the elder Kennedy despite the crippling effects of the stroke which paralyzed him in 1961.

No other man ever had three sons who held the offices of president, attorney general and U. S. senator at the same time.

The shattering blow of the pointless slaying of their President son has been borne with deep grief, but without hysteria, according to an old family friend, the Rev. John Cavanaugh, president emeritus of Notre Dame University.

DIES SUDDENLY TODAY AT 86

Miss Isabel C. Lawrence, 86, Irishtown, died suddenly at 8:10 o'clock this morning at her home at New Oxford R. 1. She returned to her home Tuesday from a Lancaster hospital where she had undergone surgery several weeks ago. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, attributed death to a subdural hemorrhage.

Her parents were the late James A. and Agnes C. Hart Lawrence. Her only survivors are several nieces and nephews.

She was a retired cigar maker.

She was a member of the Sacred Heart Basilica Church and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning with prayers at 8:15 o'clock at the Walter Funeral Home, McSherrystown, followed by a requiem Mass at 8:45 o'clock at the Basilica. Mgsr. John Bolen will officiate. Burial will be in the parish cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening for the Rosary at 8 o'clock.

Weaver are the four Gettysburg Juniors, from among seven who applied, whose names were sent to New York headquarters for the selection of one who may be sent abroad. Never before have so many local students applied for a year abroad. A student who goes abroad is required to return to the high school to take his senior studies one year behind his class. Once selected, a student is not informed where he will be sent until close to departure time. Nine new countries have been added to the AFS program this year.

AFS HONORED

The American Field Service was the winner of a $1,000 Lane Bryant group award given for volunteer service for the good of humanity, it was announced in New York last week. Gettysburg, as a member chapter, shares the honor. The American individual prize went to a Puerto Rican woman for establishment of a rehabilitation center for handicapped children. A French woman won the international award for creating an orthopedic center for amputees or children congenitally missing limbs. This woman was born without arms and legs.

Candidates are first screened by the social service department of Columbia University. Final choices were judged by Marianne Moore, poet; John J. Sparkman, senator from Alabama; Christian Herter, former secretary of state; David Sarnoff, chairman of RCA, and John Hay Whitney, N.Y., publisher of the Herald Tribune.

Other items were noted at Tuesday's meeting. Class rings have been ordered as gifts for the three foriegn students; one bus load of exchange students will be entertained in the community for two days next summer after July 4; Christmas cards from the chapter will be sent to each former AFS student.

YOUTH CENTER WILL RESUME

Gettysburg's Youth Center will resume operations this evening with a meeting of the junior high Youth Center group at 7 o'clock after having cancelled a number of activities due to the death of President Kennedy.

The Sadie Hawkins dance that had been scheduled for last Saturday night will be held on December 7, according to reports at the meeting of the board at the Youth Center on N. Washington St. Tuesday evening.

The fruit cake sale which was to have been held last Saturday will be held this Saturday on Lincoln Square at the Plaza corner, Chairman Rachael Williams announced.

Thursday evening at 7 o'clock a meeting of the Gettysburg Automedics will be held at the Center. Friday and Saturday evenings there will be dances at the center from 7:30 to 10:50 each evening.

Judy Maddox reported to the board that a junior high school group is forming a dance band with six musicians rehearsing at the present time.

Mrs. Rex Maddox reported that only 10 more books of green stamps are needed to secure a record player for the Youth Center and urged additional donations of green stamps. Preliminary plans were made for a rummage sale in the near future. President Jeanie Bowling presided at the meeting.

Expresses Regrets For GHS Bands

Kenneth C. Hays, director of the junior and senior bands at Gettysburg High School, said today he regrets that neither band will be able to participate in the Retail Merchants' parade here Friday evening when Santa Claus will be welcomed by the community.

"We have no wish to be uncooperative," Mr. Hays said. "The band accepts every invitation it possibly can to take part in community affairs and I believe this is the first occasion since I have taken over direction of the two school bands that it has been necessary to turn down such an invitation.

He explained that Senior band uniforms are at the cleaners and will not be returned until next week and all of the marching band music has been turned in for the season. The band has begun work on preparations for its upcoming indoor concert season. A Junior High dance Friday evening provides a conflict for that goup, he said.

"The school bands feel a responsibility to take part in community activities upon invitation from community organizations and we have had an unusually large number of such calls so far this year. We have taken every other opportunity to help with community celebrations where our bands have been invited but in this case circumstances make it impossible and I have expressed our regrets to Ralph Will, the Retail Merchants' chairman," Mr. Hays said.

DEATHS

Grover C. Shaffer

Grover C. Shaffer, 78, Waynesboro, father of Mrs. John M. McCadden, Gettysburg, died this morning at 1 o'clock in a Fort Pierce, Fla., hospital.

He was born in Lynchburg, Va., and had resided in Waynesboro since 1907. He was employed in local industries until 1920 when he became mechanical engineer at the Waynesboro Hospital. BLAME RACERS FOR DEATH OF ADAMS YOUTH

A York County coroner's jury Tuesday placed the blame for the September 15 death of William A. Hess Jr., 21, New Oxford R. 1, on all those participating in an automobile race which ended in a fatal crash near the Hanover Municipal Water Works impounding dam.

Witnesses said there was a $3 wager on the outcome of the race.

Coroner Thomas M. Hart said the driver of the car in which Hess was a passenger, Edward J. Clapsaddle, 22, Hanover, had been recommitted to a hospital and could not testify. The driver of the other car, Frank H. Higgins, Hanover, was present but chose not to testify.

Testimony was taken, however, with Assistant District Attorney Earl Doll representing the commonwealth, from Trooper Bernard Yanetti, of the Gettysburg satte police substation, and four of the seven young men who were in the Clapsaddle car at the time of the accident.

TROOPER TESTIFIES

Trooper Yanetti who investigated, said the crash occurred about 4 a.m. on Legislative Route 66098, commonly known as the Hanover Water Dam Rd. Both cars, he said, had left the road and were down an embankment on the south side of the road.

Yanetti said he learned from interviewing some of the occupants later that arrangements for a race between the two cars had been made at an area diner. The race route was to be from Route 94 to the second farm house on the Water Dam Rd. and return. The cars had gone only about a half-mile, however, he said, when they failed to negotiate a downgrade curve in the road.

HAD BEEN DRINKING

Yanetti said the men told him, and they later confirmed this, that the Clapsaddle car was traveling 45 to 50 miles an hour. The trooper said Higgins had told him, however, that the car traveling behind Clapsaddle was going about 70 miles an hour. He said Higgins also admitted drinking about two quarts of beer from the early evening hours Saturday until about 3 a.m. Sunday, an hour before the accident, but that he was not drunk.

Of the four who testified none said he had more than two beers Saturday evening and all said they were not drunk. Dr. Hart told th jury later that, if it believed the testimony about drinking two beers earlier in the evening, it could also believe the men were not drunk at 4 a.m. the next day.

Keystone Police Boost Tippit Fund

Keystone Lodge 41, Fraternal Order of Police, membership of which includes state police in York, Gettysburg, Harrisburg and Carlisle substations, voted Monday night to make a $25 contribution to a fund being started for the widow and three children of J. D. Tippit, Dallas policeman, who was fatally shot when he stopped Lee H. Oswald, accused killer of President Kennedy.

Tippit was felled by a pistol bullet when he accosted Oswald a short time after the shooting of the President in Dallas Friday.

Open House Held By Murphy Store

The G. C. Murphy Company played host Tuesday evening at its store on Baltimore St. at an annual open house for company employes and their families to give employes an opportunity to share in holiday activities and meet families of coworkers. The store was specially decorated for the holiday season.

Refreshments were served and there was a drawing for door prizes. Gift certificates were won by Virginia Lauver, Lincoln Square, $10; Nancy Forsythe, Gettysburg R. 2, $5; Mrs. Nevin Bush, 422 W. Middle St., $3, and Danny Reener, 65 E. Stevens St.

Johnson Tells

the far left and the far right, from the apostles of bitterness and bigotry from those defiant of law, and those who pour venom into our nation's bloodstream."

Johnson expressed the hope that "the tragedy and torment of these terrible days will bind us together in new fellowship."

"Let us here highly resolve," he said, "that John Fitzgerald Kennedy did not live or die — in vain. And on this Thanksgiving eve, as we gather together to ask the Lord's blessing, let us unite in those familiar and cherished words: 'America, America God shed His grace on thee and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.'"

FIRM ON CIVIL RIGHTS

Johnson, the first southern president since Andrew Johnson succeeded the assassinated Abraham Lincoln, left no doubt about his commitment to the cause of civil rights.

"We have talked long enough in this country about equal rights," he said. "We have talked for 100 years or more. Yes, it is time now to write the next chapter—and to write it in the books of law."

Johnson called upon the Congress to enact a civil rights bill that will help "eliminate from this nation every trace of discrimination and oppression based upon race or color."

He said there could be no greater source of strength to the nation both at home and abroad.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Touching upon foreign affairs, Johnson promised the United States "will keep its commitments from South Viet Nam to West Berlin." He added:

"We will be unceasing in the search for peace; resourceful in our pursuit of areas of agreement even with those with whom we differ; and generous and loyal to those who join with us in common cause."

He said, "Those who test our courage will find it strong and those who seek our friendship will find it honorable."

SUPPORTS U.N.

In a general assertion of foreign policy, Johnson said:

"Let all the world know, and none misunderstand, that I rededicate this government to the unswerving support of the United Nations — to the honorable and determined execution of our commitments to our allies —to the maintenance of military strength second to none — to the defense of the strength and stability of the dollar — to the expansion of our foreign trade — to the re-enforcement of our programs of mutual assistance and cooperation in Asia and Africa — and to our Alliance For Progress in this hemisphere."

NEEDS HELP OF ALL

Appealing for help from all Americans in carrying out his new responsibilities, Johnson said:

"An assassin's bullet has thrust upon me the awesome burden of the presidency. I am here today to say that I need your help; I cannot bear this burden alone. I need the help of all Americans."

Declaring that the nation "has experienced a profound shock," Johnson said it is a national duty of this time "to do away with uncertainty and to show that we are capable of decisive action — that from the brutal loss of our leader we will derive not weakness but strength — that we can and will act and act now."

WANTS EDUCATION AID

In addition to calling for top-priority action on civil rights and tax cut legislation, Johnson said action also is needed on pending education bills, the youth employment opportunities bill, the foreign aid program and the remaining appropriation bills.

"We will carry on the fight against poverty and misery, ignorance and disease — in other lands and in our own," he pledged. "We will serve all of the nation, not one section or one sector, or one group, but all Americans."

Stating his own philosophy toward government fiscal policy, Johnson said that, "in particular I pledge that the expenditures of the government will be administered with the upmost thrift and frugality."

WILL BE PRUDENT

He said the federal government "will set an example of prudence and economy" and will get "a dollar's value for a dollar spent."

Johnson also promised to always respect "the independence and integrity of the legislative branch"—something he said he "deep in the marrow of my bones" after 32 years on capitol hill as House member, senator and vice president.

Though Johnson called for national unity, he said this does "not depend on unanimity," adding:

"We have differences; but now, as in the past, we can derive from those differences strength, not weakness; wisdom, not despair. Both as a people and as a government we can unite upon a program which is wise, just and constructive."

From his experiences at the capitol, Johnson said he had pride and confidence in the ability of Congress to meet any crisis and to "distill from our differences strong programs of national action."

PHILA. SCHOOL BOARD WINS COURT'S OKAY

PHILADELPHIA AP) — The Philadelphia Board of Education has been acting in good faith in their attempt to integrate the schools, a U.S. District Court here ruled Tuesday.

A petition by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which attempted to force the Philadelphia School Board to comply with a desegregation agreement reached Sept. 26, was dismissed by Judge Harold K. Wood.

Isiah W. Crippins, attorney for the NAACP, questioned school Superintendent Allen H. Wetter about 17 schools where he charged part-time and overcrowded conditions exist.

BEING CLEANED UP

Wetter testified that the conditions were eliminated earlier this year at six schools; at one Oct. 1, and five others by Nov. 1.

He said by Dec. 1 one more will be cleaned up, and a month later, four more.

Wetter predicted that in January 828 pupils will still be on a part-time basis, compared to 4,139 pupils as of Oct. 1. The situation should be resolved by February, he said.

plans. An exchange of gifts will be made. The deadline for the reservations and transportation to be made to Mrs. Estelle Williams by December 5.

Miss Jane Stallsmith, chairman of international and good will and understanding, said she will send a Christmas card and all data pertaining to the club's 25th anniversary celebration to the sister club in Grenoble, France. Mrs. Myers, cochairman of the service objectives committee, said she has the names of two girls from the Adams County Child Welfare office. Members will provide Christmas gifts for them. The club voted to present a gavel to the Civic Council.

Miss Dorothy Curtis reported on the mental health meeting she had attended and announced there will be an open meeting January 17 at 4 p.m. in the Student Union building at Gettysburg College. She also announced she needs volunteers to staff the Holiday Bureau, a project of the Soroptimist Club, in the United Fund office, Baltimore St.

CAST BALLOTS

After a discussion by the president, the club voted by preferential ballot for the nominess presented for the SIA president.

The president discussed the meeting called by the Rotary Club which she and Mrs. Henry Bream attended November 11, concerning an interservice council here. The next meeting is to be December 2 when the group will organize to work together for community projects.

One new club was chartered. The Pacific Region and Soroptimist Club of Coachella Valley had sponsored the Soroptimist Club of Palm Desert, Calif., November 16. A letter of congratulation was sent.

The president thanked all the members who helped make the 25th birthday anniversary dinner November 2 a success with special thanks going to Mrs. Frederic Griest and her committee who were in charge of the decorations.

Reports were given from the district meeting held in Harrisburg, November 1-3, by Miss Jane Stallsmith and Mrs. Higinbotham, alternates, and Mrs. Baker. The draw prize was donated by Mrs. Baker and won by Mrs. Walter Keeney. The following served as hostesses for the "coffee hour": Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Sizer Burton, Mrs. Bream and Mrs. Griest.

SERVICES TONIGHT

A community Thanksgiving service will be held in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of York Springs this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. William Kennard will deliver the sermon. Rev. Ray E. Jones will serve as host pastor.

The Junior Choir will present the anthem "Psalm 150" and the Senior Choir will present the anthem "Now Thank We All Our God."

WILL COLLECT PAPER

Anyone else having papers to donate may take them to the truck at Newman's Store, Fairfield, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Saturday.

President Kennedy Calls Nation To Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here is the text of the Thanksgiving Day proclamation issued by President Kennedy on Nov. 5 which President Johnson urged be read in the nation's churches on Thursday:

"Over three centuries ago our forefathers in Virginia and in Massachusetts far from home in a lonely wilderness set aside a time for thanksgiving. On the appointed day, they gave reverent thanks for their safety, for the health of their children, for the fertility of their fields, for the laws which bound them together and for the faith which united them under their God.

"So, too when the colonies achieved their independence, our first president in the first year of his first administration proclaimed Nov. 26, 1789, as "a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signal favors of almighty God" and called upon the people of the new republic to "beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions, to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue and generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best."

"GIVE HUMBLE THANKS"

"And so too in the midst of America's tragic Civil War, President Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday of November, 1863, as a day to renew our gratitude for America's "fruitful fields' for our 'national strength and vigor" and for our "singular deliverance and blessings."

"Much time has passed since the first colonists came to rocky shores and dark of rests of an unknown continent, much time since President Washington led a young people into the experience of nationhood, much time since President Lincoln saw the American nation through the ordeal of fraternal war — and in these years our population, our plenty and our power have all grown apace. Today we are a nation of nearly two hundred million souls, stretching from coast to coast, on into the Pacific and north toward the arctic, a nation enjoying the fruits of an ever-expanding agriculture and industry and achieving standards of living unknown in previous history We give our humble thanks for this.

"Yet, as our power has grown, so has our peril. Today we give our thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and the humility, which they possessed and which we must seek every day to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them.

IN CHURCHES, HOMES

Let us therefore proclaim our gratitude to Providence for manifold blessings—Let us be humbly thankful for inherited ideals—and let us resolve to share those blessings and those ideals with our felkw human beings throughout the world.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, in consonance with the Joint Resolution of Congress approved December 26, 1941, designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 28, 1963, as a day of national thanksgiving.

On that day let us gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection to express our gratitude for the glorious gifts of God; and let us earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished task of achieving peace, justice and understanding among all men and all nations and of ending misery and suffering wherever they exist.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Unitd States of America to be affixed.

Done in the City of Washington, this fourth day of November in the year of Our Lord, 1963, and of the independence of the United States of America the 188th.

basis of experience, judgment, and coolness under pressure.

ENLISTED IN 1948

Bisbing enlisted in the Navy in 1948. His recruit training was received at Great Lakes and he then attended Aviation Fundamentals School at Memphis. He graduated from Parachute Riggers Class A School in 1949 and was assigned to VA-95. Assignment to VC-33 came next, along with duty on the following ships: USS Coral Sea, USS Leyte, USS Roosevelt and USS Kearsarge. Most of Leyte duty was during the Korean War.

Assignment of FARON Special 200 in London, England, came next. He returned to Gettysburg for recruiting duty in 1957. While on this tour he attended the Journalist School and was graduated first in his class. Advancement to chief parachute rigger also came during this tour.

Next he was assigned to VR-24 in Port Luatey. He received his commission there in 1960 and was then assigned to the Preflight and NAO School at Pensacola, Fla., from which he graduated in December of that year. Upon completion he was assigned to the Naval Air Technical Training Unit at Lakehurst.

LEGAL OFFICER

After going to NATTU Lakehurst, Bisbing served as first lieutenant, and then as assistant Training Officer of the Parachute Rigger Class A School. He then attended the Naval Justice School at Newport, R.I., from August to October, 1962. Upon graduation he returned to NATTU Lakehurst to serve as legal officer.

Lt. (jg) Bisbing is married to the former Miss Patricia A. Bricker, of Gettysburg. They have three children, Michael, Steven and Melinda.

FHA Council Names Officers

New officers of the FHA county council are: President, Deanne DeGroft; vice president of degrees and projects, Jane Crone, and vice president of publications. Connie Stallsmith. Elections were held recently in Fairfield High School, where plans were made for a Christmas party to be held December 10 at Bermudian Springs High School.

Five FHA members from the New Oxford chapter presented a skit that emphasized the "Stay in School" project. They were Linda Sponseller, Susan Lough, Betty Saddler, Bonnie Ensminger and Mary Myers.

County Soldier Promoted Abroad

Wayne A. Chrismer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Chrismer, R. 5, has been promoted to specialist four while assigned to the 663rd Ordnance Company in Germany.

Specialist Chrismer, a mechanic in the company near Vilseck, Germany, entered the Army in August 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He arrived overseas in March, 1962.

The 20-year-old soldier attended Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown.

CHILD IS BURIED

Funeral services for Kenneth Dean Englebert, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover N. Engebert, Gettysburg R. 4, who died Monday morning at the Warner Hospital, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St. The Rev. W. William Kennard, pastor of the Hunterstown Methodist Church, officiated. Interment was made in the Hillcrest Memorial Park. The pallbearers were Donald and David Smith, Gary Englebert and Richard Miller Jr.

FHA OFFICE CLOSING

The Farmers Home Administration office in Gettysburg will be closed on Thursday and Friday. Appointments to see County Supervisor Daniel A. Paddock may be made for next Monday. Farmers who may be in need for emergency loans for feed are advised to make application early, so the money will be available when needed, Mr. Paddock said.

Completes Course At Noncom School

LANGLEY AFB, Va. — M/Sgt. Ernest W. Sentz has been graduated from the Tactical Air Command Senior Noncommissioned Officer Academy at Langley AFB, Va.

Sergeant Sentz, son of Ernest R. Sentz, 120 E. King St., Littlestown was trained in management, leadership, human relations and other duties and responsibilities of senior Air Force noncommissioned officers.

The sergeant is a personnel superintendent assigned to headquarters, Tactical Air Command, here. He graduated from Littlestown High School.

MUST LICENSE USED CAR LOTS

The Bonneauville borough council Tuesday evening reminded owners of used car and salvage lots that effective January 1 they must be licensed by the borough in order to continue to operate their businesses. The ordinance was adopted in August.

Council said that vendors, peddlers and solicitors, excluding local charities, also must be licensed by the borough. Licenses will be issued by the borough secretary Mrs. Marcia Staub.

Treasurer Eugene Long reported a balance in the general fund at $1,832.36; light fund, $874.83, and highway fund, $1,054.69. Council approved bills totaling $1,522.25 for payment. They included $1,240 to Hanover Construction Co. and $137.50 to Oxford Construction Co. for street repairs, $70.50 for police salary and $74.25 for advertising and printing.

The highway department reported that snow fences will be erected along Vets Rd. and Gilbert Ave. and that arrangements will be made to have side streets cindered when needed.

The December meeting of council will be changed to the third Monday in the month at 8 o'clock in the fire hall.

Six members attended Tuesday's meeting in the fire hall.

Quarterback Jim Hill of Wyoming got off a 56-yard punt against Kansas this season.

Two Auxiliary Bishops Named

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI today appointed auxiliary bishops for Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pa.

The Most Rev. John J. Graham, who has been a parish priest at the Church of the Holy Angels in Philadelphia becomes auxiliary to Archbishop John J. Krol of Philadelphia.

The Most Rev. Joseph T. Daley, who has been vice rector of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia becomes auxiliary to Bishop George L. Leech of Harrisburg.

BISHOP OF BARCA

Msgr. Daley, who also will have the title of titular bishop of Barca, is a former chaplain of the 103rd Engineering Battalion of the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Msgr. Graham, 50, a native of Philadelphia, also will be the titular bishop of Sabrata. He celebrated the 50th year of his ordination on Feb 23. After being graduated from St Joseph's College in Philadelphia, he studied at the Pontifical Roman Seminary. He returned to the United States in 1939.

His first assignment was as an assistant pastor at St. Luke's Church in Glenside, Pa. The following year he was transferred to the faculty of Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia, where he spent five years. Later he was assistant diocesan superintendent of schools. Four years ago Msgr. Graham was named diocesan superintendent of special education and raised to the rank of domestic prelate. He has been at Holy Angels' Church since September 1960.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Business and Professional Women's Club held its annual fireside Thanksgiving service and tea at the YWCA on Sunday evening. About 50 persons were present, including members from the York and Hanover clubs. Board members of the local Y. who were guests of honor were Mrs. W. H. Danforth, president, Mrs. L. C. Keefauver and Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer. The service was in charge of the service committee. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler presided. The rooms were lit by candlelight and firelight. A period of directed meditation was closed by prayer by Miss Salome Wachter. Miss Rosea Armor led in a litany of Thanksgiving and Miss Kathryn Plank gave the Thanksgiving proclamation. A reading "Be Thankful" was given by Miss Martha Shank. Mrs. Keefauver spoke on the topic "Are We Truly Thankful?" In her talk she called attention to the fact that it was a woman, Mrs. Sara Hale, who went to President Lincoln in 1864 and told him that she thought a day should be set aside every year for national thanksgiving and that same year he declared such a holiday and it has been observed annually ever since. Following the service, tea was served by Mrs. John Pape and Mrs. Clyde Daley, assisted by the service committee members and the following members from the Cabinet: Miss Elizabeth Woods, Miss Esther Tipton, Miss Selma Fiscel, Miss Mar-Nina Merrow. Miss Merrow gave a number of piano selections during the tea.

Rice To Lead Pennsylvania Senate: State Senate Democrats Tuesday night agreed upon John S. Rice of Gettysburg as their candidate for president pro tempore in the 1939 regular legislative session and chose Harry Shapiro, Philadelphia, as floor leader. This is the first time in the history of Adams county that its state senator has been chosen for this position. Senator Rice has been majority floor leader in the senate since Warren A. Roberts quit to become auditor general in 1936.

Bank Selects New President: At its regular meeting on Tuesday the board of directors of the Bendersville National Bank elected W. L. Snyder of Bendersville, president. Mr. Snyder, who has served as a director of the bank for more than 30 years, will fill out the unexpired term of William C. Yeatts who died on August 6. With the election of Mr. Snyder a vacancy was created in the office of vice president, a position he held. The directors filled the vice president vacancy by electing H. L. Sterner of Gardners for the unexpired term of Mr. Snyder. The Bendersville directors also have elected Miss Kathryn M. Wenk as a clerk in the bank. They said this action was made necessary by increased business at the institution.

Named Pastor Of Two Churches: The Rev. John R. Strevig, Lutheran minister in St. Thomas, near Chambersburg, has been elected to serve the Lutheran churches in Abbottstown and East Berlin. He will succeed the Rev. Paul Gladfelter, who relinquished his pastorate due to ill health. The Rev. Mr. Strevig was graduated from Gettysburg College and the Lutheran Seminary here. Mrs. Strevig is the former Miss Sara Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden, Baltimore St. The Rev. and Mrs. Strevig and their daughter, Betty Ann, are expected to occupy the parsonage in Abbottstown before Christmas.

10-Inch Snowfall: In a single swift stride on Thanksgiving Day "Old Man Winter" banished the mild fall weather this section of the country has enjoyed during recent weeks and with an early blizzard that set a record for depth. Accompanied by a rapid drop in temperature, sleet began falling early Thursday morning and later turned to snow that continued late in the night and reached an official depth of 10 inches in Gettysburg, with reports from the mountains in the northern and western sections of the county telling of greater depths there.

Today's Talk

THINK IT OVER

Most of the unkind things said are said — without thinking. Most of our rash deeds result for the same reason. And many of our most serious mistakes. It never does any harm to think things over before coming to a decision.

What familiar phrase is that one: "I never thought of that!" All of our expressions should be thought out — both sides of a question examined, the result of an act well considered, or its bearing upon our own reputation before giving these expresssions in word or act.

People who think things over are just as liable to make mistakes as those who do not, but such mistakes are not liable to be so serious. You recall that old adage, "Look before you leap," which is but another way of saying. "Think before you act." Many a blunder has been avoided by thinking a thing over before any move has been made.

A goodly portion of us are creatures of impulse. We act upon the inspiration of the moment. In an emergency, often, this is a good thing, but it is not a good thing as a rule. Great problems are solved by thinking them over, weighing the facts in the case, and considering all sides.

Perhaps our greatest heritage is our ability to think. Thinking sets the entire course of our lives. Tragedy walks the way of the one who fails to think, who fails to take advantage of this right to think.

After you have read a book, think it over. Examine that mind of yours. See what you have gained. After a stimulating talk with someone else, think over that conversation. Try to recall every gain from it.

Be proud of the fact that you can think for yourself — independently, and with the full right to hold your opinions, no matter how much they may be opposed. A rich and independent mind is a rare possession. It can take you to any height within your ability to fulfill its demands. Think this over!

Just Folks

WISDOM

Oh, youth, you seem so very wise,
But tears have never filled your eyes
Nor have you much regretted;
The casual way you smile or sneer
But proves to oldsters sitting near
As yet you've seldom fretted.
But all these doubts you brush away
Will give you pause some other day.

Now some there are who glumly say
That youth is much too smart today
Too wilful and too sporty,
But I say: "Let them aid their views,
The arrogance of youth they'll lose
When they are reaching forty.
Full many a doubt will they admit
When life has jolted them a bit.

"Right now their youthful heads are turned
With all the wisdom they have learned.
In school they've gathered knowledge,
But there are lessons still to gain
Of hurt and grief, respair and pain
From pages no one ever gleans
What trouble is; what sorrow means.

"Professors wise the young may teach
The graceful art of polished speech
And make them wise and witty,
But life itself must pound them down
And teach them of its sign and frown,
And common need for pity.
These youthful wise will wiser grow
When care and grief are things they know."

REV. RINEHART SPEAKER FOR UNION SERVICE

The Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon at the community service at 9 a.m. on Thursday in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. The host pastor, the Rev. Glenn K. Flinchbaugh, will be liturgist. Redeemer's Senior Choir will sing. As customary, the offering will go for overseas relief. The public is invited to attend the service which is being sponsored by the Littlestown Ministerium.

Lawrence Haines, near Silver Run, showed slides of a trip to Alaska at the dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotarians on Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. He was introduced by Mervin Harner, acting chairman of the community service committee. Past President Howard A. Daum announced that a composite picture of the club members, which he designed, appears in the December issue of "The Rotarian," international magazine.

A classification talk will be given by a member at the meeting next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. The program will be in charge of the classification and membership committee, composed of Theron W. Spangler, chairman; Carroll E. Arter, Walter F. Crouse, Howard A. Daum, Paul E. King and George W. Strevig.

JAYCEES MAKE PLANS

Christmas activities plans were advanced at the second November meeting of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening in the chapter room at the Community Center. Kenneth S. Ogg is general chairman for the various activities. It is planned to erect Santa's Shanty during the first week in December. The shanty will be placed near the community Square and Santa will be at "home" to greet the youngsters starting the second week.

The annual Christmas tree sales will begin on Saturday, Dec. 7 on the Super Thrift Market parking lot, N. Queen St. The trees will also be sold door-to-door by the Jaycees. The chapter will sponsor the Christmas lighting and decorating contest in the community again this year. Details will be announced later. The annual holiday party for Jaycees and their families has been tentatively set for Tuesday, Dec. 17, 7 p.m. at a place to be announced. Arrangements are in charge of Wilmer Dutterer and Clyde Bucher.

Preliminary plans were made for representatives of the chapter's proposed council of civic organizations to hold their initial meeting on January 7. President Richard E. Selby announced that the board of directors will meet next Tuesday at 8 p.m. The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 10.

STRUCK BY TRUCK

DUPONT, Pa. (AP) — Peter P. Tetlak, 51, of Dupont was struck by a tank truck Tuesday apparently after stumbling into the truck, witnesses told police. There were no sidewalks and Tetlak was walking along the shoulder. State police said the truck driver was Arthur Perrins of Moosic.

GOP Won't Call Off Political Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Republican Policy Committee has decided not to act on a proposal of Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., that Republicans call off political speeches until the first of the year, saying it is best to leave the matter to "everyone's personal conscience."

Scott, a former national Republican chairman, made the proposal Tuesday in order to give President Johnson time to get settled in his new job.

The policy committee met behind closed doors Tuesday. Its decision was announced by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

NO BIRTHDAY PARTY TODAY FOR CAROLINE

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Today is Caroline Kennedy's sixth birthday. She had expected to have an ice cream-and-cake party in her White House home for the third year in a row.

She could have expected her smiling, handsome father to come and watch the fun for at least a moment. He always did.

She probably had her party dress all ready. White House emissaries had bought the party favors.

Five days ago, Caroline and her brother John Jr., were suddenly taken to their grandmother Auchincloss for dinner.

DADDY IS GONE

They were back in their own beds at 4:30 a.m. when a Navy ambulance pulled up to the big front portico of their home amid television floodlights and their mother came up the steps with blood spattered on her clothes.

Next day, White House spokesmen said, Caroline and her brother learned the news that meant their father would come to no more of their happy parties.

Their mother took them by the hand into the huge East Room where they had watched dancing and receptions and entertainment and where their father had stood stiffly in the doorway while the scarlet-coated Marine Band they loved played "Hail to the Chief."

ATTENDS CHURCH

This time, there were black ribbons on the huge, glittering crystal chandeliers and a big coffin stood in the center of the room.

Their mother took them by the hand—in their pale blue coats, red shoes and white socks—to ride in a long parade to the Capitol. When they climbed the long steps with her, the coffin was there again draped with a big American flag.

Next day they drove with their nurse and met their mother at the church and went inside with her to listen to prayers and speeches. The coffin was there again.

VISITS GRAVE

After darkness fell Tuesday night, Mrs. Kennedy took Caroline to her father's grave for the first time.

For about 10 minutes they stood alone in the soft blue glow of the flickering eternal light, and then went home—a home they would soon leave.

SENATORS DISAGREE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's senators cast opposing votes Tuesday as the Senate tabled and killed a bill which sought to ban use of credit by government agencies to finance any trade with communist nations including the proposed sale of surplus U.S. wheat. Democratic Sen. Joseph Clark voted with the 57-35 majority to table the bill and Republican Sen. Hugh Scott voted against tabling it.

VFW OFFICIALS PAY POST VISIT

Three officials of the 21st District were present and spoke at the semimonthly meeting of Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held Tuesday evening at the post home, W. King St. They were: District Commander Paul J. Kopp, East Berlin; District Senior Vice Commander Harry W. Criswell, Mt. Wolf, and District Inspector Paul Krebs, Hanover. They spoke on membership, community activities and other pertinent VFW matters.

It was decided to offer the basement of the new addition of the post home as a fallout shelter. A civilian defense official will be contacted and an inspection will follow. A progress report was heard from the building committee on the renovation of a room of the post home. It was voted to erect a new flag pole in front of the home. Donations were made to the Salvation Army, the post auxiliary to be used for the purchase of Christmas gifts for the veteran patients at the Samuel G. Dixon Hospital and the Scotland School Christmas party.

The annual eggnog party for the membership will be held on Christmas morning from 9 to 11 o'clock at the home. Arrangements are in charge of James Kuhns, Bernard Kuhns, Robert Snyder, Clyde H. Rohrbaugh, Malcolm Harner, Walter S. Mehring, Gary Little and Commander Elmer W. Gall. The post home will close at 6 p.m. on Christmas Eve; open from 9 to 11 on Christmas Day, and open at the usual time on Dec. 26.

The Christmas will be held for the Scotland School children, post and auxiliary members on Saturday, Dec. 14. It was reported that Edgar H. Wisotzkey, a member, has been discharged from the hospital and is convalescing at his home. Milton Reaver was reinstated into active membership. The VFW will meet again on Tuesdty, Dec. 10.

Perfectionist Staubach Is Awarded Heisman Trophy

By HERB THOMPSON

ANNAPOLIS Md. (AP)—Roger Staubach, Navy's exciting quarterback and 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, is a football perfectionist who works as hard keeping his skills sharp as he did in acquiring them.

Almost any afternoon after practice, he can be seen on the field working individually on some phase of his game.

He may be taking handoffs under center, sharpening his passing with two or three receivers who stayed to run a few more patterns or sprinting to build up wind for those loping, easy runs that are so deceptive and have demolished many enemy defenses this fall.

FAVORITE PASTIME

His favorite pastime during summer leave is passing a football with friends.

"You'd think he was a kid trying to make the team instead of being one off the best football players in the country," an observer said one day recently as Jolly Roger sailed through a few extra wind sprints after practice.

The Heisman Trophy board took him out of the class of "one of the best." Tuesday, it voted the long-legged Cincinnati, Ohio, junior the outstanding college football player in the country.

CLIMAX AHEAD

In leading Navy to No. 2 national ranking and an 8-1 season which will be climaxed in a postponed game with Army Dec. 7, he has rolled up 1,738 yards passing and running, passed for seven touchdowns and run for eight.

Staubach was chosen by a wide margin — 517 first place votes to 65—over Georgia Tech's versatile senior quarterback Billy Lothridge, who placed second.

He is only the third junior to win the 29-year-old trophy. The others were Felix (Doc) Blanchard at Army in 1945 and Doak Walker at Southern Methodist in 1948. Neither repeated in his senior year.

GETS AWARD DEC. 4

The 21-year-old midshipman is scheduled to receive the award from the sponsoring Downtown Athletic Club in New York Dec. 4, the same week he leads the bowl-minded Middies against an Army team he made a shambles of as a sophomore last year.

Staubach, whose precision passes, Houdini escapes from tacklers and scrambling runs have made him one of the most exciting players in college football, reacted with typical modesty to announcement of the award.

"The Heisman Trophy is something you hear about in high school and suddenly it happens to you," he said. "I can hardly believe it . . . it's something I'll treasure all my life."

"OWE IT TO EVERYONE"

"I owe it to everyone," he said, citing coaches from grade school through Wayne Hardin and also the Navy teammates who have thrown so many blocks for him and gotten up to throw them again as he scrambled to set up a pass or take off on an unbelievable run.

He is immensely popular with his teammates, many of whom have asked him to autograph pictures to send to friends, and with the brigade of midshipmen who cheer every honor that comes his way.

Off the field he is known as a quiet, deeply religious midshipman who attends Catholic Mass and Communion at 6 a.m. daily and is an average student.

Staubach is Hardin's second Heisman winner in three years. Halfback Joe Bellino, who won it in 1960, was the first Navy player ever to gain the honor.

STUCKRATH TO BE IN LINEUP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State probably will have the services of fullback-linebacker Ed Stuckrath in its Dec. 7 encounter with Pittsburgh.

State and Pitt originally were scheduled to meet last Saturday at a time when a foot injury had the big back sidelined. The game was rescheduled following the assassination of President Kennedy, however, giving Stuckrath's injury time to heal.

State Coach Rip Engle said Tuesday he believes tackles Joe Bellas and John Diebert also will see action. Both had been doubtful starters.

Listed as possible starters were tackles Harrison Rosdahl and Terry Monaghan who have been out much of the season with injuries.

The Lions have scheduled practice sessions today, Friday and Saturday. Penn State is idle this weekend, but Pitt plays Miami.

PETE ROSE OF CINCINNATI IS TOP NL ROOKIE

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Staff Writer

FT. KNOX, Ky. (AP) — Take it from Pvt. Pete Rose, there's nothing like being told you've been named National League Rookie of the Year to wipe away the memory of a long day of KP detail.

"Great!" exclaimed the hustling Cincinnati second baseman, "I thought I had a chance at it."

"And I don't believe in all that stuff about the sophomore jinx. I'm going to try to bat .300 and be the next Sophomore of the Year," he added.

AT FORT KNOX

Rose had gotten up for a KP detail at 3 a.m. Tuesday, the day the award was announced.

Rose, a member of the Ohio National Guard in Army basic training, had 170 hits, including 26 doubles, nine triples and six home runs with the Reds last season. He scored 101 runs, drove in 41 and stole 13 bases.

He entered basic training Oct. 30. He will be at Fort Knox until Jan. 18, 1964, then will go to a special school for a month. He will be through with his active requirement in time to miss only about a week of spring training.

IN 157 GAMES

Rose, 21, a Cincinnati native played for Macon in the Class A Sally League a year ago.

He became a hallmark of aggressiveness for the Reds this season—appearing in 157 games and batting .273. Defensively, he compiled a fielding mark of .971, which helped impress the panel of 20 sports writers which Tuesday gave him 17 votes.

He topped Ron Hunt, New York Mets' second baseman, who had two votes, and Ray Culp, Philadelphia Phillies' pitcher, who received the other vote.

NFL PLAYOFFS ARE PLANNED

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has rolled out a playoff schedule with 11 different possibilities involving six teams in the event the conference crowns are not decided by the end of the regular season.

One of the possibilities involves the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers, running 1-2 in the Western Conference. The other 10 involve the four teams still in contention fo rthe Eastern title—Cleveland, St. Louis and New York all tied at 8-3, and Pittsburgh, 6-3-2.

If the Bears, 9-1-1, and Packers, 9-2, wind up in a tie, they will play at Green Bay, Dec. 22 for the right to represent the West in the championship game. All teams have three games remaining.

The Eastern playoff schedule provides for four versions of triple ties and six different combinations for two-way ties. Commissioner Pete Rozelle said a four-way tie was not considered.

If a triple tie results, the championship set for Dec. 29 would be pushed back a week to Sunday, Jan. 5. The game will be played in the home city of the Western champion.

New Chamberlain In Scoring Race

NEW YORK (AP)—The new Wilt Chamberlain, whose feeding and defense reshaped the attack of the San Francisco Warriors, has thrown the National Basketball Association scoring race into a scramble.

The old Chamberlain poured points at a record rate through his first four years in the NBA.

But the new Wilt has cut his point production sharply and as a result three other players threaten his 32.6 average. St. Louis' Bob Pettit, the leader in total points with 554 and a 27.7 average, Jerry West of Los Angeles, with a 28.9 percentage, and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, who's hitting 26.7 per game all have a chance to catch Wilt the Stilt.

LARRY WILSON IS PLAYER OF WEEK IN NFL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Y. A. Tittle took great pride in his record of only four interceptions in the first 10 games played by the New York Giants. Then Sunday he had two intercepted in the same ball game. Larry Wilson of St. Louis came up with both as the Cardinals upset the Giants 24-17.

As a result of Wilson's fine defensive play in the Cards' deep defense, he was named Player of the Week in the National Football League by The Associated Press.

Wilson's specialty in four years as a safety man in the NFL has been his colorful blitz play from the safety spot. He is a rangy 6-foot, 190-pounder with good speed and quick hands. In his high school days at Rigby, Idaho, he was a fullback. At Utah he was a halfback. The interceptions were his third and fourth of the season.

Don Hultz, Minnesota's rookie from Southern Methodist, also was a candidate for top honors with his two recoveries of Detroit fumbles, tying the NFL record of eight for the season. Tommy Mason scored the clincher in the closing minutes of the Vikings 34-31 victory after Hultz recovered Dan Lewis' fumble. Paul Flatley ao had two great catches in the winning drive.

SAN JOSE WINS RUNNING MEET

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) —"We run seven days a week, 365 days a year," said Coach Dean Miller of San Jose State, the team winner of the 25th annual NCAA cross country run at Michigan State University Tuesday.

That helps explain why the West Coast entries are moving in to take over the NCAA championship formerly dominated by Eastern and Midwestern entries.

San Jose State, a repeat team champion, also finished second two years ago to Oregon State.

San Jose won Tuesday with a low of 53 points by placing men third, fifth and eighth in the individual finishes. The University of Oregon was second with 68.

Notre Dame was third with 128, followed by Kansas with 130 and host team Michigan State, 175.

Vic Zwolak, slender former Marine from Villanova, was the individual winner with a good time of 19:35.0

Zwolak finished 10 yards ahead of John Camien of Emporia, Kan., State Teachers.

ALL-STATE NOMINEES

Eddie Koontz, Littlestown High School fullback, and Jeff Horick, Biglerville halfback, have been nominated for the Associated Press All-State Scholastic team.

CANDIDATE AT SSC

Dale Bair, 6-0 Freshman, a former star at Littlestown High School, is a candidate for the varsity basketball squad at Shippensburg State College. The Red Raiders will open their season Saturday evening when they host Baltimore University.

MAC DECLARES TERRORS ARE GRID TITLISTS

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The Middle Atlantic Conference executive committee and athletic directors Tuesday declared Western Maryland winner of the college southern division football title and Upsala winner of the northern division.

The five-game conference schedule for Western Maryland, which had a 4-0 record, was waived. The fifth game, with Johns Hopkins, was canceled last Saturday because of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Upsala, with a 3-2 conference record, retained the northern division title, even though a 34-12 victory over Susquehanna was taken away because of the unintentional use of an ineligible player.

Henry T. Bream, Gettysburg College atheletic director, is president of the conference.

Also decided at the two day sessions:

—Conference championships will be scheduled by Sept. 15 for fall sports, Nov. 15 for winter and March 15 for spring.

—Conference competition is restricted to males.

—Conference championships may not be played on Sunday.

—MAC will use spring rather than fall enrollment figures for the purpose of determining eligibility.

—A wider distribution of NCAA television receipts is favored.

A moment of silence in memory of President Kennedy was observed.

Chicago's Defense Is Tops In NFL

NEW YORK (AP) — New York's offense and Chicago's defense continue to dominate the National Football League's weekly team statistics although the Giants were beaten Sunday and the Bears had to scramble for a tie in Pittsburgh.

The Giants have ground out a total offense of 4,051 yards in 11 games.

The Bears gave up 17 points to the Steelers in their tie game but still have allowed only 106 points, less than 10 a game. They have given up 2,507 yards.

BRONCOS WILL MEET RAIDERS

DENVER (AP) — With a long delay expected to help the home team, the Denver Broncos will meet the Oakland Raiders in a nationally televised (ABC) American Football League game here Thursday.

Kickoff will be at 11:30 a.m. EST.

No other AFL games are scheduled Thanksgiving Day. On Sunday, Kansas City will be at New York, Houston at San Diego and Buffalo at Boston.

Postponed from Sunday because of the death of President game will find the Broncos in better physical shape due to the added healing time for injuries. But the Raiders have not played since Nov 10 when they beat Kansas City 22-7.

Oakland is in second place in the league' Western Division. Denver is fourth.

Elizabethtown Wins MAC Crown

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP) —Elizabethtown College, with Tony McGlauglin and Jerry Botdorf each scoring a pair of goals, defeated Temple 5-0 in soccer Tuesday to win the Middle Atlantic Conference championship.

It was Elizabethtown's third championship in the past five years.

On Friday the Blue Jays will meet Baltimore University for the eastern regional NCAA title. No site has been announced.

The Blue Jays, winners of the MAC's northern division, went into the championship game with a 7-1 record. They lost only to West Chester State.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —Challenger Joey Giardello of Philadelphia will take a two-day break in his training for his middleweight title bout with champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria in Convention Hall Dec. 7.

Adolph Ritacco, Giardello's trainer, said the challenger was "razor sharp at this point and in our opinion it would be to the best interests of Giardello to take a breather."

QUICK TRIO

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The U.S. Olympic hockey team scored three goals in 49 seconds during the last period to break up a close game and defeat Colorado College 7-5 Tuesday night.

Army-Navy Grid Classic Postponed To December 7

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Army and Navy will meet in their traditional football battle—but a week later than scheduled — and will bring down the curtain on a 10-day period beginning Thanksgiving that figures to find bowl offers frantically flung around the country.

The decision on the Army-Navy game came Tuesday from the Pentagon and overshadowed two other major developments—the naming of Navy's Roger Staubach as the Heisman Trophy winner and Louisiana State University's acceptance of a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

The Army-Navy game will be pushed back to Dec. 7 — Pearl Harbor Day — in deference to the memory of the late President Kennedy. The Pentagon said the Kennedy family intervened so that the annual service classic would not be canceled.

DEDICATED GAME

The official statement said the game will be dedicated to his memory.

The announcement further scrambled a puzzling major college bowl picture currently filled in at only three spots — top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl seventh-ranked Nebraska in the Orange Bowl and LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

The Thanksgiving Day program and this Saturday's schedule, including many key games that were postponed from last week due to the assassination of President Kennedy, were expected to wrap up most of the holes. But the Army-Navy postponement complicated the situation.

STAUBACH IS TOP

The second-ranked Middies and Staubach, now dubbed the best player in the country by the Heisman voters, were expected to tangle with Texas in the Cotton Bowl providing they beat Army for the fifth consecutive year.

However, their possible participation in a postseason game may have vanished when the postponement appeared. It is believed the sentiment in the Pentagon for cancellation of the game, plus the lengthening of the regular scheduled by a week may rule out a bowl trip for Navy.

It also may rule out a top match-up in the Cotton Bowl. Promoters said Tuesday they will wait until after the Dec. 7 schedule, presumably to get Navy's decision. Their second choice is Pitt, which also plays that Saturday, against Penn State.

Pitt, however, does not have to wait until its final game to make a decision — and might be agreeable to an offer from another major bowl. If Pitt goes elsewhere, then Navy declines, the Cotton Bowl will be lacking a top-flight opponent for the unbeaten and untied Longhorns.

Meanwhile, Illinois and Michigan State prepared for their Big Ten clash, a Thanksgiving Day battle that will fill one of the Rose Bowl spots. Other bowl candidates also will be in action Thursday, as well as Saturday.

The winner of the Big Ten battle between the fourth-ranked Spartans and eighth-ranked Illini at East Lansing, Mich., gets a Rose berth against a Big Six opponent which will come out of two Saturday games, Washington at Washington State and Southern California at UCLA. Washington has the inside track.

Also headlining the Thursday program is the meeting between Texas and arch rival Texas A&M plus games involving bowl hopefuls Syracuse and North Carolina. The Orange, who meet Notre Dame in New York, could wind up in the Gator Bowl against the Tar Heels, who are at Duke.

The Saturday schedule will fill the West Coast Rose Bowl entry and two Orange and Sugar bowl spots. Auburn could grab an Orange berth with a victory over Alabama, another bowl hopeful, while Mississippi likely will be Sugar Bowl host with a victory over Mississippi State.

A Mississippi State victory, on the other hand, probably would bring the Bulldogs the berth.

Ramos To Meet Derado Jan. 10

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sugar Ramos, who won the world featherweight championship in a tragic fight here last spring, will meet Vicente Derado of Argentina in a 10-round non-title match at the Olympic Auditorium Jan. 10.

The bout will be televised nationally by ABC

It will be Ramos' first Los Angeles appearance since he took the title from Davey Moore last March. Moore suffered brain damage in the fight and died several days later.

BUBBLERS LOSE OPENER

Boiling Springs, a member of the Blue Mountain League, lost its opening basketball game Tuesday evening at Hershey 66-31 in a nonleague contest.

BULLETS FAIL ON FOUL LINE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don't mention charity to Bob Leonard, coach of the National Basketball Association's Baltimore Bullets.

The Philadelphia 76ers all but handed Tuesday night's game to Baltimore with foul shots but Leonard's Bullets misfired from the free throw line and lost their ninth in the last 10 games.

Hal Greer's last second basket gave Philadelphia the victory, 115-113, after the Bullets kept the 76ers alive by blowing 15 of 36 free throw attempts. Greer's 12-footer was in the air as the final buzzer sounded and when it swished through Philadelphia had its fourth straight triumph and fifth in a row at home.

Al Bianchi coached Philadelphia in the absense of Dolph Schayes, who was in New York because of the death of his mother.

In a New York doubleheader, a crowd of 14,585 watched Cincinnati limit Wilt Chamberlain to 23 points and whip San Francisco, 123-112 and Los Angeles stifle a last-gasp New York rally to win, 119-112.

Withhold Report Of Football Probe

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Southeastern Conference officials have decided to withhold a report of their investigation pending the outcome of Alabama football Coach Paul Bryant's libel suit against the Saturday Evening Post.

The SEC executive committee at a Sunday session in Atlanta voted that "no final conclusions should be reached" until after Bryant's two libel suits are concluded.

Bryant is suing the Post, owned by Curtis Publishing Co., for $10.5 million in two cases. The first suit demands $500,000 for alleging that Bryant condoned brutality among his football players.

The other suit, for $10 million, was filed after the post charged that Bryant conspired with former University of Georgia athletic director Wallace Butts to fix the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game.

Fairfield Will Lean On Inexperienced Cagers; Three Lettermen Return

Fairfield High School's success during the coming basketball season will depend greatly on the ability of untried Sophomores and Juniors, according to Coach Jack McAndrews.

There are three lettermen from last year but one, Donald Dick, 5-10½ Senior, will be unable to play until after Christmas due to ill health.

The other lettermen are Marty Chronister, 5-10, the leading rebounder and scorer from last year's outfit, and Greg Wortz, 5-8. Chronister is a Senior and Wortz a Junior.

Others who are now members of the varsity squad include Ronald Schultz, 5-10 Senior; Bob Troxell 5-9 and Gary Spence 5-6, Juniors; Mike Wyatt 5-9 and Barry Fitz 5-7, Sophomores.

The junior varsity squad consists of 16 candidates, a number of whom may move up if they continue to show improvement.

JAYVEE CANDIDATES

The Knights will open their 19-game schedule Friday, December 6, at Middletown, Md. Last year Fairfield had an overall 5-17 record and was 3-15 in the Adams-Franklin League.

December 6, Middletown, Md., away; 9, York County Day School, home; 13, St. Joseph's of Emmitsburg, home; 17, *Greencastle, away; 20, *Buchanan, away.

January 3, *New Oxford, home; 7, *Fannett-Metal, away; 10, *Bermudian, home; 14, *St. Thomas, away; 21, *Scotland, away; 24, *Littlestown, home; 28, *Greencastle, home; 31, *Buchanan, home.

February 4, *New Oxford, away; 7, *Fannett-Metal, home; 11, *Bermudian, away; 14, *St. Thomas, home; 21, *Scotland, home; 25, *Littlestown, away.

*Adams-Franklin League games.

Suspended Eagle Placed On Waiver

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles have placed on waivers one of the players involved in a fight Saturday night and fined the other.

Both had been suspended without pay since the incident the night before the National Football League game with Washington.

Placed on waivers was defensive halfback Ben Scotti, who suffered a broken hand in the fracas. John Mellekas, a tackle, was reinstated after a $500 fine.

General Manager Vince McNally and coach Nick Skorich said they reviewed all the facts before reaching their decision.

Both players are hospitalized, Scotti with the injured hand and Mellekas with a severely beaten face.

JIM GENTILE SWAPPED FOR NORM SIEBERN

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, willing to sacrifice power for consistent hitting and hustle, have swapped moody slugger Jim Gentile to the Kansas City Athletics in exchange for Norm Siebern.

The Orioles had to sweeten the pot with $25,000 in cash to swing Tuesday's trade of first basemen, indicating how Gentile's market value has slumped along with his batting average and home runs during the past two seasons.

For the Athletics, striving mightily to add power to their attack, it was the second major deal in the past eight days. On Nov. 18, the A's sent second baseman Jerry Lumpe and pitchers Ed Rakow and Dave Wickersham to Detroit in exchange for slugger Rocky Colavito and pitcher Bob Anderson.

MORE TRADES LIKELY

In Kansas City, General Manager Pat Friday of the Athletics said, "You can bet we will be trying to make further trades at the winter meeting. We are looking for a center fielder with power."

After a great 1961 season, when he slugged 46 homers, drove in 141 runs and batted .302, Gentile has slipped to .251 and .248 the past two years. His home run output dropped to 33, and then 24.

The 29-year-old left-handed batter led the club in two unofficial departments — breaking his bat deliberately after striking out and failing to run out grounders and fly balls.

Siebern, 30, and also a left-handed batter, hit 16 homers and drove in 83 runs with a .272 average last season.

Giardello Takes Training Break

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —Challenger Joey Giardello of Philadelphia will take a two-day break in his training for his middleweight title bout with champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria in Convention Hall Dec. 7.

Adolph Ritacco, Giardello's trainer, said the challenger was "razor sharp at this point."

To Swear In New Pa. Congressman

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania has a new congressman today whose last name is the same as the nation's new president.

U.S. Rep.-Elect Albert W. Johnson is in Washington, D.C., to be sworn in as representative from the state's 23rd district. Shortly after the ceremonies, President Lyndon B. Johnson will address a joint session of Congress.

The new congressman resigned Tuesday as majority leader of the Pennsylvania house. The McKean County Republican was elected to an interim term in Congress filling the seat left vacant by the death of Leon H. Gavin.

ELECTION CERTIFIED

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — The state Superior Court Tuesday certified the election of Herman M. Holloway Sr., a Democrat to the State House of Representatives from the first district.

Bob Swift, Pat Mullin, Stubby Overmire and Wayne Blackburn will coach under Detroit Manager Charlie Dressen next season.

NATION'S TOP SCORER HEADS ALL-IVY TEAM

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Cosmo Iacavazzi, the nation's leading scorer, combines with option specialist Gary Wood and passer Archie Roberts to headline the 1963 Associated Press All-Ivy League Football team announced today

Tom Spangenberg, Dartmouth's heavily taped halfback, along with Cornell quarterback Wood and Yale tackle Perry Wickstrom are repeat performers. Wood is a rare three-time selection.

Fullback Iacavazzi is the junior aeronautical engineering major from Princeton with the puzzling name and running style to match who leads the major college point-makers with 78. The other two members of the powerful, once-beaten Tigers landing berths are tackle Bill Guedel and guard Ron Bonomo.

HARVARD PLACES TWO

Harvard, which goes into the final weekend with a chance to win or share the Ivy League title, and Dartmouth, which could gain a share of the crown it won outright in 1962, each placed two men.

Center Brad Stephens and guard Bill Southmayd represent the Crimson while end Scott Creelman joins Spangenberg from the Big Green.

The other end spot goes to John Parry of Brown, seventh-ranking receiver in the country who has grabbed 39 aerials for 457 yards and four touchdowns.

With one game left on schedules postponed a week by the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy, Wood is the most effective kickoff runback man and 13th ranked ball carrier nationally. Wood has run back 18 kickoffs for 597 yards, rushed for 669 and passed for 502.

Wood helped the Big Red pull out three Ivy decisions with a total of 84 seconds left via a scoring pass, a touchdown run and maneuvers which set up a field goal.

COLUMBIA ACE

Roberts is the junior gunner from Columbia who already ranks third among all-time Lion marksmen. His 193 completions in less than two season already have sent him past the great Sid Luckman in that department and 11 strikes against Rutgers would elevate him past Claude Benham, 1954-56 Mitch Price, 1950-52, holds the school career mark of 237.

For the 1963 campaign, Roberts has hit on 91 of 149 tosses for 1,031 yards and nine touchdowns.

Spangenberg was oft-injured and heavily taped throughout the season. He couldn't start until the second half against Harvard, then sparked a comeback. He was a doubtful performer against Cornell yet ran for 83 yards, caught passes for 21 more and made a half dozen big defensive plays.

On the second team are Princeton wingback Jim Rockenbach, Harvard fullback Jim Grana, Brown sophomore quarterback Bob Hall and Yale sprinter Randy Egloff. The lineman include ends Bob Seiple of Brown and Tom Stephenson of Harvard, Penn's Sig Molnar and Harvard's Jeff Pochop at tackles, guards Bill Curran of Dartmouth and Ralph Vandersloot of Yale and Dartmouth center Bob Komives.

Bank Bandit Gets 10 Years In Prison

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Raymond E. Thompson, 31, was sentenced Tuesday to 10 years in federal prison for participating in a $14,000 holdup at the Industrial Valley Bank and Trust Co. last April 5.

Thompson pleaded guilty on Oct. 17 to robbing the bank. Two other men, Dominick S. Veneziale, 30, and Frank A. Cooper, previously pleaded guilty to the holdup and have been sentenced.

Thompson is also awaiting trial on charges of holding up a savings and loan association in Yeadon last July 23. He and two other men, Charles Allen, 31, and Frank Del Piano, 29, were arrested while the robbery was in progress.

Violence Lurked In Oswald But No One Saw Danger Signs That Led To Assassination

By SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

There was little about Lee Harvey Oswald to warn the world of what was coming.

To those few who knew him he was recalled, if at all, as sometimes eccentric but just another face in the crowd.

Some were aware he'd once left his homeland for Russia. Some saw occasional flashes of his seething contempt for the society that had nurtured him. A Marine or two recalled Oswald's expertise with a rifle. His wife knew that he'd bought a rifle. Other people knew Oswald worked in a building by which President Kennedy would pass. At least one knew Lee Harvey Oswald had shown up on the job Friday carrying a long package wrapped in brown paper.

But no one knew all of these things.

NO ONE TO WARN

There was no one in Dallas—or anywhere else—to put all the pieces of Lee Harvey Oswald suddenly into place and cry out in warning: "Assassin!"

And so, police say, Oswald pulled the trigger, striking back at an unsuspecting society that within minutes would know this obscure misfit all too well.

But before it could learn what impelled Oswald to shoot President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Oswald himself was dead. And Monday, the same day the President was laid to rest before the mourning eyes of the world, Oswald was buried in a wooden box at Fort Worth.

Yet if his secret lies silenced in the grave, much remains to cast light on the rebel with a cause.

WAS POOR BOY

Oswald was a poor boy. His father died before Oswald was born on Oct. 18, 1939, in New Orleans. His mother, Marguerite, who had two other sons, tried to make ends meet working in shops. The family moved frequently, living in Fort Worth, New Orleans, North Dakota and New York.

Mrs. Oswald said Lee began working at odd jobs after school at an early age.

In fourth grade at a suburban Fort Worth school, Oswald was remembered by his principal, Mrs. N. M. Merritt, as "kind of smily, a boy with curly hair . . . very lively."

MOVED TO NEW YORK

While he was 13 and 14 his family lived in New York City. His report card had become less promising. General grades: barely passing. Dependability, cooperation and self-control: unsatisfactory.

Back to New Orleans where classmates at Beauregard Junior High remembered Oswald as a loner, always getting into fights. But when he advanced to high school, he scored way above average in vocabulary and reading. And what was this solitary, belligerent boy of 15 reading? Karl Marx

He said later he became interested in Marxism after reading a pamphlet a lady handed him about Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, executed Communist spies. Later Oswald moved to North Dakota.

SAW IMPOVERISHMENT

"I could see the impoverishment of the masses before my own eyes in my mother," he said years later to a reporter. "I thought the worker's life could be better."

At 17 he enlisted in the Marines.

After Oswald was sent to Japan in July 1957, he was court-martialed twice, once for having an unregistered pistol(he lost his PFC stripe for that) and another time for using profanity to a noncom.

ASKED FOR DISCHARGE

After he got back to the States in 1958, Oswald asked to be discharged so he could support his mother. A year later he was put on active reserve status.

A month later — in October 1959—he was in Moscow.

"I've made up my mind, I'm through," he said and applied for Russian citizenship.

"Capitalism has passed its peak," he told a reporter. "I've seen poor Niggers . . . and that was a lesson. People hate because they've been told to hate. It's the fashion to hate people in the United States."

WORKED IN MISSILE

The Soviet government wouldn't grant him citizenship, but he was allowed to remain as an alien resident. He drifted into factory work in Minsk where he eventually married a Russian Pharmacist, Marina Nicholaeva.

Communism was fine but he missed his homeland. Meanwhile, however, the Marine Corps had learned of his trip to Russia and had given him an undesirable discharge. Angrily he wrote a letter to the secretary of the Navy

"I shall employ all means to right this gross mistake or injustice to a boni-fied (sic) U.S citizen and ex-serviceman."

CONALLY RECEIVED LETTER

The secretary of the Navy who received that letter was John B. Connally Jr., who, as governor of Texas, was wounded by the assassin's bullets last Friday.

Finally, in May, 1962, the State Department, explaining that Oswald had not expatriated himself, issued him a passport to come home That June, Oswald, his wife and their baby daughter arrived in New York.

Oswald moved about — New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth — working at odd jobs, reading, keeping to himself.

CONTRADICTED CLAIM

Last July, Oswald got into a fracas because a man he had approached earlier about helping train Cuban guerrillas saw Oswald handing out pro-Castro literature. He claimed to be secretary of the New Orleans chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. But that group said it didn't even have a chapter in Louisiana.

Last June, Oswald was granted a passport after he said he wanted to roam Russia, Poland and Western Europe as a photographer. But he never went.

Instead he sent his wife, pregnant again, to Irving, Tex., to live with a Quaker friend, Mrs. Michael R. Paine. Oswald sneaked out later, owning 15 days rent.

TALKED MARXISM

Paine said Oswald talked Marxism, Marxism, Marxism.

"Oswald refused to eschew violence as a method for achieving desired ends." Violence? But how? Against whom? For what ends?

The world knows now the answer to the first three questions. Not the tourth.

The how was a 6.5 mm. Italian carbine with scope which Oswald bought for $19.95 from a Chicago sporting goods firm Just when he chose the targets of his wrath is not known, but it was announced last September that Keanedy would be coming to Dallas Soon afterward, Oswald heard a friend of Mrs. Paine's talking about a job opening at the Texas School Book Depository Building in Dallas.

TOOK $50 JOB

It paid only $50 a week but Oswald said he'd room in Dallas and visit his family weekends. (His wife had just had another daughter.)

Then, last Thursday, Oswald changed his pattern. He went out to the Paine's to spend the night with his family.

The next morning he was off to work and Mrs Paine paid scant attention to a blanket in the garage. Mrs. Oswald didn't talk English. Maybe that's why she never told anyone she thought she'd seen a gun wrapped in the blanket.

But even if she had, were there sufficient danger signs in the life of Lee Harvey Oswald to have warned anyone astute enough to see enough of them?

Maybe now in hindsight, there were. But, last Friday morning, no one saw enough of them.

Banks was named at a board meeting Tuesday night to succeed Robert Spitler, who resigned to help organize a league franchise in Richmond, Va.

MILK FARMERS FIGHT FEDERAL HAULING FEE

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative today joined the Dairymen's League in formally opposing a federal plan to charge farmers for hauling milk in bulk from farm to plant.

At the same time, Eastern President James Speer said his organization "was more than willing" to meet Wednesday with other dairy cooperatives to map strategy to fight the federal proposal.

Speer's announcement came as officials began to count the returns from a dairy farmer's referendum on an amended marketing order affecting the New York-New Jersey milkshed.

REFERENDUM ENDS

The referendum ended at midnight Monday.

The amended order would permit handlers to charge farmers for hauling milk in bulk. The charge would be up to 10 cents per hundredweight (46.5 quarts).

The Dairymen's League invited three other major dairy federations in the milkshed to meet here Wednesday to form a united front against the hauling charge proposal.

The other major dairy federations have indicated opposition to the hauling charge but have not issued statements.

The dairy organizations want to retain the order, which prescribes minimum prices dealers must pay for milk.

Christians Avoid Battle With Evils

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP) — "The trouble with Christians today is that nobody wants to kill them anymore."

So said the Rev. Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton, a St. Petersburg, Fla., Methodist minister, in criticizing the churches for taking a safe, conforming course in the world and avoiding battle with its real evils.

He told the Southern California-Arizona Methodist Conference that any religion that "runs to God to escape the battle has no kinship with Him who resisted evil with a cross."

If you whip cream ahead and refrigerate it before putting it in a pastry tube with a decorator tip to use for garnishing a dessert, spoon the top fluffy part of the cream into the tube; don't use the liquid that may have seeped out in the bottom of the bowl.

For company cole slaw, treat the finely shredded green cabbage to a whipped cream dressing. Beat heavy cream, then beat in vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper to taste.

INDICT RUBY; TRIAL DEC. 9

DALLAS AP)—The office of Dist. Atty. Henry Wade announced that Jack Ruby was indicted today on charges of murder in the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man accused of assassinating President Kennedy.

The trial is scheduled for Dec. 9 in Texas District Court. However such trials often are postponed.

The indictment was for murder with malice, for which the maximum penalty is death.

Ruby, 52-year-old owner of a strip tease night club and a dance hall, shot Oswald to death Sunday as the man accused of killing Kennedy was being transferred between jails.

The shooting was viewed by newsmen, officers and a nationwide television audience.

Oswald, 24, who spent considerable time in the Soviet Union, died some time after the shooting.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Martha Ostenso, 63, author of "Wild Geese" and "The Sister Kenny Story," died Sunday.

DEATHS

President Will Send Tippit Gift

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Johnson will join members of the Philadelphia Eagles football team in contributing funds to the widow of policeman J. D. Tippit, according to Pete Retzlaff, president of the National Football League Players' Association.

The Eagles disclosed over the weekend they will contribute part of their pay to the widow of the patrolman slain by the man accused of murdering President John F. Kennedy. Cliff Carter, one of President Johnson's aides, called Retzlaff and said the chief executive wanted to join the players.

Retzlaff, an end with the Eagles, said he expects to raise about $2,000 from within the players' ranks. He expressed hopes management would match it.

EXCHANGE WILL LIQUIDATE FIRM

NEW YORK (AP) — Ira Haupt and Co., a 36-year-old Wall Street securities firm, will go out of business in the first liquidation ever arranged by the New York Stock Exchange and carried out under exchange supervision.

Late Monday the exchange announced a liquidation plan "beginning promptly." It calls for the exchange and four large New York City banks to advance a maximum of $36 million to protect Haupt's 20,000 customers.

Haupt was suspended from dealing on the exchange Wednesday because its capital requirements failed to meet exchange standards. The firm landed in financial trouble through a bankruptcy filing by a large customer, Allied Crude Vegetable Oil and Refining Co. of Bayonne, N.J.

The financial district viewed the liquidation plan as absolutely essential to bolster investor confidence in the stock market and also as further evidence that the exchange community can regulate itself adequately.

There was no immediate indication that Haupt customers would in any way be reimbursed for possible losses sustained by being unable to trade their securities Thursday or Friday when market prices dropped severely.

The Soviet government wouldn't grant him citizenship, but he was allowed to remain as an alien resident. He drifted into factory work in Minsk where he eventually married a Russian Pharmacist, Marina Nicholaeva.

Communism was fine but he missed his homeland. Meanwhile, however, the Marine Corps had learned of his trip to Russia and had given him an undesirable discharge. Angrily he wrote a letter to the secretary of the Navy.

"I shall employ all means to right this gross mistake or injustice to a boni-fied (sic) U.S citizen and ex-serviceman."

CONALLY RECEIVED LETTER

The secretary of the Navy who received that letter was John B. Connally Jr., who, as governor of Texas, was wounded by the assassin's bullets last Friday.

Finally, in May, 1962, the State Department, explaining that Oswald had not expatriated himself, issued him a passport to come home That June, Oswald, his wife and their baby daughter arrived in New York.

Oswald moved about — New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth — working at odd jobs, reading, keeping to himself.

CONTRADICTED CLAIM

Last July, Oswald got into a fracas because a man he had approached earlier about helping train Cuban guerrillas saw Oswald handing out pro-Castro literature. He claimed to be secretary of the New Orleans chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. But that group said it didn't even have a chapter in Louisiana.

Last June, Oswald was granted a passport after he said he wanted to roam Russia, Poland and Western Europe as a photographer. But he never went.

Instead he sent his wife, pregnant again, to Irving, Tex., to live with a Quaker friend, Mrs. Michael R. Paine. Oswald sneaked out later, owning 15 days rent.

TALKED MARXISM

Paine said Oswald talked Marxism, Marxism, Marxism.

"Oswald refused to eschew violence as a method for achieving desired ends." Violence? But how? Against whom? For what ends?

The world knows now the answer to the first three questions. Not the tourth.

The how was a 6.5 mm. Italian carbine with scope which Oswald bought for $19.95 from a Chicago sporting goods firm Just when he chose the targets of his wrath is not known, but it was announced last September that Kennedy would be coming to Dallas Soon afterward, Oswald heard a friend of Mrs. Paine's talking about a job opening at the Texas School Book Depository Building in Dallas.

TOOK $50 JOB

It paid only $50 a week but Oswald said he'd room in Dallas and visit his family weekends. (His wife had just had another daughter.)

Then, last Thursday, Oswald changed his pattern. He went out to the Paine's to spend the night with his family.

The next morning he was off to work and Mrs Paine paid scant attention to a blanket in the garage. Mrs. Oswald didn't talk English. Maybe that's why she never told anyone she thought she'd seen a gun wrapped in the blanket.

But even if she had, were there sufficient danger signs in the life of Lee Harvey Oswald to have warned anyone astute enough to see enough of them?

Maybe now in hindsight, there were. But, last Friday morning, no one saw enough of them.

HARRISBURG (AP)—George Banks, Baltimore novelty manufacturer, is the new president of the Harrisburg Capitol franchise in the Atlantic Coast Football League.

Banks was named at a board meeting Tuesday night to succeed Robert Spitler, who resigned to help organize a league franchise in Richmond, Va.

MILK FARMERS FIGHT FEDERAL HAULING FEE

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative today joined the Dairymen's League in formally opposing a federal plan to charge farmers for hauling milk in bulk from farm to plant.

At the same time, Eastern President James Speer said his organization "was more than willing" to meet Wednesday with other dairy cooperatives to map strategy to fight the federal proposal.

Speer's announcement came as officials began to count the returns from a dairy farmer's referendum on an amended marketing order affecting the New York-New Jersey milkshed.

REFERENDUM ENDS

The referendum ended at midnight Monday.

The amended order would permit handlers to charge farmers for hauling milk in bulk. The charge would be up to 10 cents per hundredweight (46.5 quarts).

The Dairymen's League invited three other major dairy federations in the milkshed to meet here Wednesday to form a united front against the hauling charge proposal.

The other major dairy federations have indicated opposition to the hauling charge but have not issued statements.

The dairy organizations want to retain the order, which prescribes minimum prices dealers must pay for milk.

Christians Avoid Battle With Evils

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP) — "The trouble with Christians today is that nobody wants to kill them anymore."

So said the Rev. Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton, a St. Petersburg, Fla., Methodist minister, in criticizing the churches for taking a safe, conforming course in the world and avoiding battle with its real evils.

He told the Southern California-Arizona Methodist Conference that any religion that "runs to God to escape the battle has no kinship with Him who resisted evil with a cross."

If you whip cream ahead and refrigerate it before putting it in a pastry tube with a decorator tip to use for garnishing a dessert, spoon the top fluffy part of the cream into the tube; don't use the liquid that may have seeped out in the bottom of the bowl.

For company cole slaw, treat the finely shredded green cabbage to a whipped cream dressing. Beat heavy cream, then beat in vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper to taste.

INDICT RUBY; TRIAL DEC. 9

DALLAS AP)—The office of Dist. Atty. Henry Wade announced that Jack Ruby was indicted today on charges of murder in the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man accused of assassinating President Kennedy.

The trial is scheduled for Dec. 9 in Texas District Court. However such trials often are postponed.

The indictment was for murder with malice, for which the maximum penalty is death.

Ruby, 52-year-old owner of a strip tease night club and a dance hall, shot Oswald to death Sunday as the man accused of killing Kennedy was being transferred between jails.

The shooting was viewed by newsmen, officers and a nationwide television audience.

Oswald, 24, who spent considerable time in the Soviet Union, died some time after the shooting.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Martha Ostenso, 63, author of "Wild Geese" and "The Sister Kenny Story," died Sunday.

DEATHS

BEEVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Lincoln Borglum, 48, wife of the nationally known sculptor who completed the Mt. Rushmore National Memorial at Black Hills, S.D., died Monday. Borglum completed the memorial after the death of his father, Gutzon Borglum.

BRUNSWICK, Maine (AP)— Prof. Frederic Earle Thornlay Tillotson, 66, chairman of the Bowdoin College music department, died Monday.

President Will Send Tippit Gift

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Johnson will join members of the Philadelphia Eagles football team in contributing funds to the widow of policeman J. D. Tippit, according to Pete Retzlaff, president of the National Football League Players' Association.

The Eagles disclosed over the weekend they will contribute part of their pay to the widow of the patrolman slain by the man accused of murdering President John F. Kennedy. Cliff Carter, one of President Johnson's aides, called Retzlaff and said the chief executive wanted to join the players.

Retzlaff, an end with the Eagles, said he expects to raise about $2,000 from within the players' ranks. He expressed hopes management would match it.

EXCHANGE WILL LIQUIDATE FIRM

NEW YORK (AP) — Ira Haupt and Co., a 36-year-old Wall Street securities firm, will go out of business in the first liquidation ever arranged by the New York Stock Exchange and carried out under exchange supervision.

Late Monday the exchange announced a liquidation plan "beginning promptly." It calls for the exchange and four large New York City banks to advance a maximum of $36 million to protect Haupt's 20,000 customers.

Haupt was suspended from dealing on the exchange Wednesday because its capital requirements failed to meet exchange standards. The firm landed in financial trouble through a bankruptcy filing by a large customer, Allied Crude Vegetable Oil and Refining Co. of Bayonne, N.J.

The financial district viewed the liquidation plan as absolutely essential to bolster investor confidence in the stock market and also as further evidence that the exchange community can regulate itself adequately.

There was no immediate indication that Haupt customers would in any way be reimbursed for possible losses sustained by being unable to trade their securities Thursday or Friday when market prices dropped severely.

36TH PRESIDENT — This is 1963 study of Lyndon B. Johnson who succeeded to presidency of United States following assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas.

MOTHER — Mrs. Sam Johnson, widow of a former member of the Texas legislature, is the mother of Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th President of the United States of America.

'HOWDY' IN INDIA — Lyndon B. Johnson, garlanded and kneeling, clasps hands in a traditional Indian greeting as he meets the women of the Bichpuri village near Agra during tour of India in May, 1961. His wife, Lady Bird, is at right wearing big hat.

FAVORITE SON — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, seeking presidency in 1960, held hands high above his head in response to greeting of supporters in Houston, Texas.

CLAIMS UNITY WAS BELITTLED BY CATHOLICS

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A Texas bishop told the Vatican Ecumenical Council Tuesday that many Roman Catholic prelates belittled Christian unity efforts and talked down to Protestants as if they were children.

Bishop Stephen Leven of San Antonio said council debate on Christian unity over the past few days had shown "how badly we need dialogue not only with the separated brethren Protestants and Orthodox), but among ourselves."

Bishop Leven's remarks brought a storm of applause from the 2,200 cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops and bishops. He spoke for an undisclosed number of American Roman Catholic bishops.

Council spokesmen paraphrased him as saying:

SHUNNED CONTACT

"Many (council fathers) have never come into any contact whatsoever with the separated brethren. They regarded them as children in a catechism (religious instruction) class to be talked down to."

Bishop Leven said some prelates addressing the council the past few days on unity "have been preaching to us."

He was paraphrased as adding:

"The prelates who are active in the ecumenical (Christian unity) movement are not disobedient to the Holy Father the Pope). Those who are playing down ecumenism are going against the very wishes of Pope Paul VI.

"Let's get rid of mutual antagonisms. Those Catholic prelates (who are working in dialogue with non-Catholic Christians) are not prelates who have lost their churches to communism or whose churches are empty."

Urges Churches To Use Proclamation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson Tuesday urged that the Thanksgiving proclamation of John Fitzgerald Kennedy be read in the nation's churches Thursday as a memorial to the slain President.

Johnson issued a brief statement noting that the proclamation was among Kennedy's last messages to his fellow countrymen.

He asked that churches, newspapers, radio and television stations include the proclamation in their recognition of the holiday.

Blinded By Cornea Disease, Surgical Nurse Sees Again After Eye Bank Transplants

Editors Note: Two years ago Esterina Lione was blind. It's no wonder that today she describes sight as a blessing. It was seven years ago that Miss Leone began to lose her sight. She gradually withdrew from the everyday world, became a hermit. Thanks to two strangers who donated their eyes after death through the Delaware Valley Eye Bank, she now has 20-20 vision. This is her story.

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sight, says Esterina Lione, is a blessing. She knows. She was blind.

"Seeing again is like what happens after a soft rain falls—everything is clean and wonderful," says Miss Lione, a nurse now dedicated to helping others in their fight to regain vision.

BLIND TWO YEARS

It was 10 years ago that Esterina began to lose her sight, a period in which she gradually withdrew from the everyday world. Two years ago she went blind.

Now she has 20-20 vision, thanks to the Delaware Valley Eye Bank. She has a new attitude toward life.

The eye bank is an organization established to help people like Esterina Lione.

Its members collect human eyes after donors die and distribute them to hospitals for operations.

Leonard Cella, president of the bank, explains:

REPLACE CORNEA

"Sight can be restored, but only when the cornea, or window of the eye, is involved. Surgeons can replace a diseased cornea with a good one."

Not everyone can be helped, Cella is quick to point out. There is little hope, he says, for people who are born blind. But those, who like Esterina, have lost their sight through disease, can definitely be helped, he says.

The eye bank maintains a 24-hour vigil. As soon as it is advised of a donor's death it must () Make arrangements to have the eye removed, (2) See that a special shipping thermos is at the surgeon's disposal, (3) Instruct the surgeon where to forward the eyes

Quick shipment of the eyes is vital.

RAPID REMOVAL

Cella says that surgeons must remove the optics within three hours after death of a donor and the transplant performed within 24 hours for best results.

The bank maintains a record of requests for eye transplant surgery, and honors them in order received. Cella says there is no charge to hospitals and/or doctors for the eyes.

Eyes never are bought or sold by the bank, he asserts.

The patient usually pays for the operation, but says Cella, "It won't stop us if he or she doesn't have the money."

Miss Lione, whose new eyes came from two donors, had had only hospital insurance coverage. A raven haired girl, now in her 30s, the comely nurse is the first to admit she once was a hermit.

BECAME HERMIT

"As a teen-ager I hardly ever went out, or in my later years. But that's all changed now, She says with exuberance of one who has been given a second life.

"I've got two boy friends now and I'm going to have some fun out of life," she says.

The first time she was able to enjoy her regained sight, Miss Lione says, was last spring—about a year after the second of two successful operations performed on her eyes.

"I took the roundabout way to work," she explained. "I looked at all the flowers, and I even saw the veins on leaves. Imagine that?"

SUFFERED KERATACONUS

She had a malady opthamologists called a kerataconus. It causes the corneas, or windows of the eyes to come to a point, diffusing the picture the eyes receive. For Esterina, it was like looking throug a crumpled wax ball.

The world began to grow dark for Miss Lione about 10 years ago after she left Newark, N.J. to come to work as a surgical nurse at Hahnemann Hospital here.

She didn't realize she was going blind, however, until five years later.

"Everything was dull and geting duller week by week," she recalls. "I couldn't figure out why.

UNABLE TO THREAD NEEDLE

"My failing eyes gave me little chance to do the work I had to," she said. "Many times, doctors told me to thread sutures on needles for them—and many times I just couldn't do the job.

"I had to read orders from my co-workers on little slips of paper. But, that, too, soon became impossible."

Finally, she went to an eye specialist at Wills Eye Hospital here, who said her sight could be restored through a transplant.

Troubled, dispaired, she had sought and found comfort in a Philadelphia neighbor — The Samuel Wentzels from across the street.

"My mother was dead, and my father was sick," she recalled. "The Wentzels took me in and cared for me as if I were their own child. They were wonderful."

TWO OPERATIONS

The first of her two operations was scheduled for the spring of 1961. At the time she was virtually blind. She could only make out black forms.

"It was wonderful that a person would give his eyes for me," she said, her own dark eyes aglow. "I had faith in God, faith in my doctor, faith in the world. I just knew I was going to see again—I had to."

A corneal transplant, explains a doctor, is an incredibly delicate operation. The cornea measures about .6 of a millimeter in thickness. Miss Lione's cornea and the grafted tissue were sewn together with sutures thinner than a human hair. About 12 stitches were sewn into her left eye.

"I didn't even feel like I had had an operation after it was all over," she said. "But a doctor kept coming into my room, day after day, to test my eye."

FAMILY CONTACT

Frequent word came from Newark, from her twin brother, Thomas, and her father. And to further boost her morale, there were always the Wentzels, who never mised a visiting day.

Each morning for two weeks she awoke with hope. One day she opened her eyes and saw the clock in her room, 15 feet away. She cried for joy.

"Everything was still a little blurry," she recalled, almost tearfully. "But I could see! I could see!"

She soon went back to work at Hahnemann and awaited the second operation—on her right eye— it was performed successfully about a year later.

"After that, I felt a physical bond to Wills Eye," says Esterina. "It was part of me. I knew I couldn't work anywhere else after those operations."

So, she came to work and to study at Wills Eye last September. She hopes in four months to get a certificate as a surgical eye nurse—rung above her work at Hahnemann.

In between boning up on homework assignments, working a tiring eight-hour shift, going to movies and shows, and reading a wealth of historical books, Miss Lione take time out to visit other eye patients and give them comfort.

By MARY SUE MILLER

ADVENTURES IN FRAGRANCE. In this world of better things for better living, perfume is surely one of those better things. How much pleasure it does provide for both the wearer and the bystander.

Unhappily, the full joy of using perfume is denied some lovelies. This happens when a scent, however insistent in the bottle, loses its aroma soon after application. Or when an application stales on the skin in a short time.

Neither reaction is uncommon.

And the blame for it can seldom be placed on the perfume. The trouble is triggered most often by an individual's own skin chemistry.

But whatever the skin's chemistry, two new concepts in perfumery—perfume oil and skin perfume—bid fair to provide a true, long-lasting fragrance. Perfume oil is a high concentration of fine attars in an emollient base. Owing to the formulation, the scent remains pure and lasts through a normal day's wear. A film of perfume oil on the skin quickly disappears but its aroma lingers on and on.

In appearance, skin perfume looks like a delectable cream cosmetic. The similarity is furthered by the fact that it comes in elegant jars. Of all things, a jar of fume! While invisible on the skin, the cream base acts to diffuse the fragrance over a long period. Another plus is that it can't spill or drip.

Could be that these new ventures in the art of perfumery would create a magical adventure for you in the art of using perfume. Methinks it's so!

COUNCIL PUTS RELIGION IN CHURCH, HOME

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The United Presbyterian Church told its 3.2 million members today that the end of Bible reading in America's public schools and the Negro drive for freedom do not threaten the church.

Rather, said the denomination's General Council, in a letter published in its "Presbyterian Life," "God is shaping the crises, changes, and movements of our day (and) his people must read the signs of the times and respond obediently with concrete and specific action."

BELONGS TO CHURCH

The council said the church had supported the Supreme Court ban against Bible reading and prayers in the public schools because of its "conviction that the religious nurture of children belongs to the church and home, not to government or any of its agencies."

Concerning its reaffirmed stand on racial justice—and it alluded to school devotionals, too—the council said:

"When children are forced by law, intimidation, custom, or other pressures, to express or accept a faith that is neither theirs nor that of their parents, their humanity is denied.

"When men are turned away from God's House because of the color of their skin, their humanity is denied. When men women and children, because of their color, are berated, beaten, and bombed for trying to vote, get an education, work, buy a house, or be served in a public place, their humanity is denied.

HUMANITY DENIED

"Every denial of a man's humanity is a denial of his likeness to Christ. And when laws, customs, and institutions which perpetuate these things are defended against change by the members of the household of faith, then surely God's judgment falls upon us."

The letter, signed by Moderator Silas G. Kessler and Secretary Theophilus M. Taylor, said that even though the stand on Bible reading and racial justice has arroused the emotions of some members "we cannot afford the luxury of being spectators of history."

"It is our prayerful and considered opinion that our church will neither withdraw from this engagement nor turn back from the course its has chosen," said the letter.

President Johnson Moves To Oval Room Today; Promises To Continue Kennedy Plans

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson moved Tuesday from temporary quarters into the oval presidential office in the White House, feeling "our whole system is on trial" because of the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Since the murder of President Kennedy on Friday in Dallas Johnson had conducted the presidency from his old vice presidential quarters in the Executive Office Building next door to the White House.

WILL PREPARE ADDRESS

On tap for the first day in the new office were meetings with foreign dignitaries and preparation of an address today to a joint session of Congress.

Johnson, in his first speech since becoming chief executive, made evident Monday night his belief that the Kennedy assassination puts the American system to a severe test and must prompt renewed efforts to prove that the system despite one sniper's act, is superior to any other.

Beyond that, Johnson pledged "continuity without confusion" —a continuation of Kennedy administration programs and policy aims without any immediate shakeup of top officials that might puzzle and perturb the nation and the world.

ASSESSED NEEDS

Johnson's assessment of the needs of the day was delivered off the cuff to 35 state governors who met with him long after sunset.

This was not his final meeting of the busy day. His schedule was topped off by a late evening session with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and the Council of Economic Advisers. This meeting took up the tax cut proposal and the broad outlines of the federal budget that will go to Congress in January.

Johnson headed for his home in the Spring Valley section of the city at 10:45 p.m., giving every sign that, even before moving into the White House, he was operating under a full head of steam.

FOREIGN CONFERENCES

For Tuesday, Johnson lined up conferences with some of the many foreign dignitaries who flew to Washington for the Kennedy funeral.

Johnson arranged to visit with the new British prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home; with the president of the Philippines, Diosdado Macapagal, and with the new West German chancellor, Ludwig Erhard.

The President saw all three—and many more—at a reception Monday night at the State Department, before he met with the governors.

MET WITH DE GAULLE

In addition to greeting all foreign delegates to the Kennedy funeral, Johnson spent 18 minutes privately with President Charles de Gaulle of France, eight minutes with Prime Minister Lester Pearson of Canada and 12 minutes with Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda of Japan.

Johnson told the governors that, at his meeting with De Gaulle, "we did not finish" the conversation "so we have another meeting set up for early in the year when he comes back to this country."

In this offhand way Johnson announced for the first time that De Gaulle, who has been taking sharp issue with the United States for nearly a year, would make the American visit he had planned before Kennedy's death.

SYSTEM ON TRIAL

Speaking to the governors, Johnson said: "Circumstances over which I had no control brought me into this position that I occupy tonight. The difficulties and the tribulations are great and this is the time when our whole system is on trial—not just the Republican party and the Democratic party but the American system of government."

He went on to speak of the often-superior resources of the Soviet Union — in population, farmlands and water.

Then he said: "The thing that is really to determine whether we win or lose in this struggle of philosophies is how well our system works. We think we have the best system."

WANTS SMOOTH TRANSITION

Taking account of the inevitable transition between the Kennedy administration and his own, Johnson said: "I think continuity without confusion has got to be our password and has to be the key to our system."

He said he would tell Congress "that we intend to honor the commitments we have made at home and abroad" under Kennedy and that "I understand my own limitations, but I am going to do the best I can with your help and God's."

Johnson asked the governors again to help him, saying it was vitally important. "I need your heart and your hand," he said.

The state executives gave him a standing ovation when he finished.

"I hope we can have unity in this country," said Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Some notes on "the world's toughest job" — the presidency of the United States:

Despite the awful pressures of the post, 27 of the 34 men who served as president before Lyndon B. Johnson lived to be over 60—and three are still alive.

Of the eight who died in office, four were felled by assassins.

The most durable president to date was John Adams, variously known as "Atlas of Independence," "His Rotundity," and "Old Sink or Swim." He lived 90 years and 295 days and died on the same 4th of July as did Thomas Jefferson, who was 83.

OLD TIPPECANOE

The oldest president to die in office, William Henry Harrison, 68, "Old Tippecanoe," succumbed to pneumonia exactly a month after he took office on March 4, 1841. He caught cold after riding to the Capitol on a white horse in stormy weather and delivering the longest inaugural message on record—8,578 words.

His successor, John Tyler, who served out his term, lived to be 71. Tyler had two wives. He had 15 children, the largest number of any president. Seven of the children were born during the 16 years he survived after leaving the White House.

Of the three presidents besides William Henry Harrison who died of natural causes while in office, only one, Warren G. Harding, 57, was under 60. Zachary Taylor was 65, Frank lin D. Roosevelt, 63.

YOUNGEST TO DIE

At 46, John F. Kennedy, the youngest man ever elected president, was also the youngest to die. He was the second Democrat to die in office, the first slain while in power.

The second youngest president to die was James A. Garfield, killed by an assassin at the age of 49.

Sixteen past presidents, including the three now living, survived to be 70 or over. Five made it to 80 or more, among them Herbert Hoover.

Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy died in coma within a short period after being shot by assassins.

Garfield lived for 80 days.

Ancient Coins In London Show

LONDON (AP) — Curious currencies of the world are on display in London.

Nearly 500 exhibits cover 5,000 years of monetary history. Many private collectors have contributed

The oldest exhibits in the show at Spinks the noted coin the treasure shop, are Chinese bronze knife money and hoe money up to 5,000 years old. Knife money is shaped like an open cutthroat razor Hoe money is shaped like a gardener's hoe.

Most of the interesting examples of curious currency represent either jewelry or implements that were in daily use.

A gold Mexican currency bar is the most valuable exhibit. Out of every consignment of gold from Mexico to Spain centuries ago one-fifth was allocated to the king. The bar, dated 1746 is part of the so-called "king's fifth" and worth about 1,500 pounds ($4,200).

The coins, which come from all parts of the world, range in size from the minute gold Siamese bullet money of te 19th Century to the 5-pound "king manilla" of Africa — copper bars in the shape of a semicircle — which were currency at about the same period. The Simese bullet money of the 19th eighth of an inch in diameter.

Probably one of the scarcest pieces is the Malayan "tree money" of the 19th Century. This money is made of tin and is extremely fragile. The method of use was for coins to be broken off as required. Therefore, few such complete pieces survive.

President William McKinley lived for eight days after he was shot Sept. 6, 1901, at the Pan American Exposition in Buffalo, N.Y.

Since 1958, by act of Congress, all presidential widows receive pensions of $10,000 a year.

JOHNSON ADDS MEMENTOS TO HIS OFFICE

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The presidential office doesn't look at all like it did last Thursday when John F. Kennedy left it for a tragic trip to Texas.

With one exception, that is. At one end there still is what you might call a reception center for distinguished visitors, with the sofas, coffee table and a rocking chair facing the fireplace.

But it isn't the rocker that Kennedy and his ailing back helped make famous. This is a new one that White House officials said Johnson brought from home.

The cocktail table in this intimate little grouping has a white marble top. The old one was walnut. The telephone now is on and end table at the end of a sofa rather than on the edge of the coffee table.

KENNEDY DECISIONS

Otherwise there is little that remains to remind anyone of Kennedy. That is true partly because of some Kennedy decisions, rather than Johnson changes.

A redecorating had been planned to start and finish while Kennedy was in Texas. That has been carried out. In the Kennedy days there was a light green sculptured rug on the floor, with the presidential seal. A brilliant red one has taken its place. The White House said Kennedy picked it out.

The walls have been repainted to a bone-white, lighter than before. White draperies, edged in red, and white mesh curtains hang at the windows.

Former Navy man Kennedy had models of ships and prints of naval battles around the place in profusion. His desk was an ornately carved black piece made from the timbers of a British ship

All these are gone, along with other Kennedy knickknacks and mementos, such as the plastic-encased coconut shell on which he carved a message for help after the PT-boat he commanded in World War II was sunk by a Japanese destroyer in the Pacific.

Johnson has a few mementos around on tables and bookshelves—a scroll and quill awarded him by national business publications and a plaque from the American Heart Association—for a man who suffered a heart attack in 1955.

FAMILY PICTURES

There are pictures of his mother, wife and daughters on desks and tables and one of himself and Kennedy in color on a bookshelf.

The shelves are only partly filld with books, mostly sets of volumes of writings and papers of presidents.

There are copies of Kennedy's "Profiles in Courage" and "The Strategy of Peace," of former President Harry S. Truman's two volumes on his White House years and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's "Crusade in Europe."

The biggest thing in the room was the new desk to replace the Kennedy desk that is expected to wind up at the Kennedy Memorial Library at Harvard University.

The Johnson dsk is twice as big, a light mahogany, with an open kneehole and minus the "secret panel" that was the delight of Kennedy's son John Jr

York Water Rates Will Rise Dec. 1

HARRISBURG (AP) — The York Water Co. will raise its rates by 12 per cent Sunday affecting 30,530 of its customers.

The increase authorized Tuesday by the Public Utility Commission, is aimed at providing the company with $225,000 a year in added revenue. The utility said the increase was necessary to offset higher operating costs.

The average household bill will go up about 1½ cents a day. Public fire protection service rates is not affected by the increase.

Public hearings are pending on a formal complaint filed against the increase by the Fireside Civic Association in York.

Former Stanford pitcher Darell Sutherland has been added to the Philadelphia Phils roster to protect him from the first-year player draft.

RUBY MAY DIE FOR DEATH OF LEE OSWALD

By JERRY PILLARD

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, who shot the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy as thousands watched on television, may go to trial on a murder charge within two weeks.

County grand jurors indicted Ruby Tuesday in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. Ruby's trial is tentatively set for Dec. 9.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he will ask the death penalty.

Defense lawyer Tom Howard of Dallas said the highly emotional Ruby had settled down somewhat since the shooting in the City Hall basement as police started to move Oswald to the county jail.

TALKS MORE NORMALLY

"He was much more calm than he was yesterday," Howard said. "He talked in more normal tones but he is still an excitable person when he talks normally."

The lawyer said Ruby mentioned seeing a picture of Mrs. Kennedy with blood on her dress.

"Tears came to his eyes," Howard said. "He showed tremendous concern for the Kennedys."

Ruby, 52, who owns a down-down strip tease establishment and a dance hall in Dallas, told Howard he stopped Sunday at the spot where Kennedy was shot two days earlier. This was shortly before Ruby went on to the city jail where Oswald was killed.

SEES NO TIES

Ruby, known to many Dallas policemen, waited outside the jail with newsmen Sunday. As Oswald was being escorted to an armored car, Ruby lunged from the crowd and fired.

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and a congressional committee have ordered probes of both the Kennedy and Oswald slayings.

Howard said he knew of no connection between Ruby and Oswald. He said that as his client told it, Ruby first saw Oswald Friday night. This was a few hours after the assassination when Oswald was charged first with killing a Dallas police officer and taken before newsmen.

There has been some speculation that Oswald was killed to prevent him from talking more to police. He died without admitting either slaying.

Three large packages of evidence assembled in the Oswald case were turned over to the FBI Tuesday by Dallas police.

Recall Movie To Change Scenes

NEW YORK (AP) — All 350 film copies of the movie, "Take Her, She's Mine," which opened here Nov. 13, have been recalled by 20th Century-Fox to delete references to President Kennedy.

A Fox spokesman said Tuesday a scene in which a character supposedly speaks to Mrs. John F. Kennedy is being removed and two scenes in which an actor speaks in a voice resembling the late President's are being dubbed with another voice.

PA. FIREARMS ACT REVIEWED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The attorney general's office says it is reviewing the state firearms act to see if it needs strengthening.

The action was announced Tuesday in the wake of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In disclosing the review, Deputy Atty. Gen. Edward Friedman said possible ways of controlling the importation of arms into Pennsylvania by mail order firms will receive special attention.

Authorities in Dallas, Tex., where the President was killed last Friday, said the weapon used by the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was an Italian-made rifle obtained from a Chicago mail order house.

Friedman noted that a bill was offered in the 1961 General Assembly to require a person purchasing a weapon through the mails to show a permit to the postman upon delivery. The measure died in committee.

STUDENTS TO AID FAMILY OF LEE H. OSWALD

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A group of high school students are promoting a campaign to aid the family of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Oswald himself was shot fatally less than 48 hours after he allegedly took the life of the president. Ironically, both Oswald and the man he was accused of slaying each left a wife and two small children.

In a statement released Tuesday, the West York Area High School Student Council said it would ask local citizens to contribute to a fund for Oswald's family.

"WIPE OUT HATRED"

The council said its motive was to show "that the majority of Americans have love in their hearts, not hatred."

William F. Goodling, school principal, said:

"This might be a controversial beginning, but nevertheless it is a start in an attempt to wipe out the hatred and prejudice which are now flourishing in the U.S.A."

Goodling is the son of U.S. Rep. George A. Goodling, R-Pa.

Many Will Observe Day Of Thanks With Heavy Hearts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With heavy hearts and prayerful resolve, Americans prepare to observe Thanksgiving Day, while still mourning the death of President John F. Kennedy.

"Our president's death has created an empty place at every dinner table," said a New Yorker busily shopping for Thursday's dinner.

The "empty place" is surely to be more keenly felt at Hyannis Port, Mass., where the Kennedy family will gather.

Mrs. Kennedy, the President's widow, has announced plans to fly to Hyannis Port Thanksgiving Day with her two children.

"TURN TO GOD"

Perhaps the nation's mood was best summed up by the Rev. John W. Regan, a curate at St. Francis Xavier church in Hyannis Port, when he said last Sunday:

"Here in America, this Thanksgiving will be different. This year, as the Pilgrims did, we will turn again to God. We have a great deal to be thankful for—the men who fought and died for us in the hot wars and in the cold war. We should be grateful for the great men God has given us."

President Johnson has urged that the Thanksgiving proclamation issued by President Kennedy Nov. 5 be read in churches Thursday.

President and Mrs. Johnson plan to have a family dinner at their home in Washington. Their daughters, Lynda Bird and Lucy will be there and so will Lynda's fiance, Bernard Rosenbach.

In Massachusetts, the traditional Pilgrim progress observance at Plymouth will pay tribute to two assassinated presidents—Kennedy in a special memorial service, and Lincoln, on the 100th anniversary of his proclamation making Thanksgiving a national holiday for the first time.

Stops Imitations Of Ex-President

NEW YORK (AP) — Vaughn Meader, who rose to fame with his recordings spoofing Kennedy and his family, says he never expects to do the imitation again.

Meader said through his manager Tuesday that, in respect for the late President, he has requested postponement of two night club appearances scheduled for later this month and next.

In his night club routine, Meader devoted about five minutes of his hour-long stint on stage doing imitations of Kennedy.

POWDER PUFF GRIDIRON BOWL AT LEWISTOWN

(Editors note: The girls play football and the boys lead the cheers each Thanksgiving Day in Lewistown in what has become known as the Powder Puff Bowl. The following is an account of how the unique rivalry started and what it's all about.)

By DAVE LEHERR
Associated Press Staff Writer

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The lasses throw the passes and the boys dress like the girls on Thanksgiving Day in Lewistown.

It's all part of the annual Powder Puff football bowl, a unique rivalry matching the girls of the Lewistown and Burnham Tri-Hi-Y Clubs.

For one hour on Thanksgiving morning the girls, garbed in Jerseys, blue jeans and sneakers, play football and the boys of the Chief Logan and Lewistown High School football teams do the cheering.

RULES ARE SIMPLE

They too are dressed for the role, wearing skirts, sweaters and wigs borrowed from the girls.

The rules are simple. Each team is made up of two ends, two guards, a center, a quarterback and two halfbacks.

The two ends, two halfbacks and the quarterback are eligible for passes. The game is played on a regulation high school field under regulation high school rules.

Two - handed touch replaces tackling. The length of the game is 32 minutes, 8 minutes to a quarter. Body blocks and flying blocks are banned.

The powder puff rivalry was started four years ago by Hi-Y leaders Jackie Bowersox of Burnham and Susan Pennabaker of Lewistown.

"It was aimed at bringing the two Hi-Y groups closer together," explains Larry Van Horne, physical director at the Lewistown YMCA and coach of the Lewistown Hi-Y team.

HI-Y BENEFITS

Lewistown has dominated the series, winning 27-0, 18-0, and 13-0. The three games netted close to $1,000 for the two Hi-Y groups, all of which has been turned over to charity, Van Horne adds.

Both teams start training for the "bowl" game in September, putting in about one hour each night.

FUN AND LAUGHS

Officials for the game are usually local men who know something about football.

As for the cheerleaders, Van Horne says the boys don't seem to mind wearing lipstick, gaily colored sweaters and skirts and bobby sox for the occasion. "They make the game even more fun," he laughs.

But no matter who wins, Van Horne guarantees fun and laughs for all. With pretty halfbacks, vivacious passers and petite linebackers, what else could he say?

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

KENNEDY WAS SHOT TWICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today the reason the late President Kennedy's coffin remained closed at all times "should be obvious."

Kennedy was shot in the head and neck by an assassin at Dallas on Friday. The head wound was described as a gaping one.

In addition, doctors at the Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital made a post mortem examination of Kennedy's wounds — a procedure that presumably required incisions.

This, it was learned, revealed that Kennedy definitely was struck by two bullets.

Malcolm Kilduff, assistant White House press secretary, was asked why the coffin had been closed.

"I think the reasons for that should be obvious," he replied.

SENATE HEEDS KENNEDY PLEA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate heard an appeal written by John F. Kennedy not long before his assassination, and moments later did what he asked.

After hours of debate, the Senate was about to act Tuesday night on a bill which would jeopardize sale of U.S. wheat to Russia.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield then rose and read the appeal from the late President.

"If this amendment is adopted," Kennedy had written, "it is not primarily Communists who will be damaged, but the porter."

By a 57-35 vote the Senate then voted to table and thus kill the bill of Sen Karl E. Mundt, R-Sd., previously offered as an amendment—which would have banned use of the Export Import Bank to insure payments by Soviet and other Communist wheat buyers.

Voting to table the bill were 48 Democrats and 9 Republicans; 24 Republicans and 11 Democrats voted against tabling it.

The Kennedy letter was unsigned but his name was typed at the bottom on White House stationery.

Angry Tenor Delays Opera 25 Minutes

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The curtain for the Lyric Opera Co. performance of "The Masked Ball" was delayed 25 minutes Tuesday night and programs withdrawn in a backstage disagreement with Guiseppe DiStefano, the leading tenor.

Philadelphia Inquirer music critic Samuel L. Singer said DiStefano at first refused to go on because the program carried a large picture of Franco Corelli, and said he was "acclaimed as the world's greatest tenor" in announcing Corelli's scheduled appearance early next year.

DiStefano's voice had "lyric warmth" when he performed after most of the programs were withdrawn, wrote critic Singer. DiStefano stepped out of character to take bows after nearly every solo.

DROP CHARGES AGAINST 14

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—County Court Judge J. Sydney Hoffman has discharged disorderly conduct against 14 boys accused of damaging autos and breaking windows in a North Philadelphia neighborhood in the aftermath of the slaying of a Negro youth by a white policeman.

The arrests occurred during demonstrations protesting the slaying of Willie Philyaw Jr., by patrolman John Tourigian on Oct. 26. The policeman said he fired when Philyaw lunged at him with a knife.

Tourigian has been relieved of duty pending the results of an investigation.

As he discharged the boys Tuesday, the judge told them and their parents, "Our children must have respect for law and order. If this officer made a mistake the authorities will handle the situation.

"I'll give all you boys a chance. Go home and be good boys."

BOY KILLED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bruce Adams, 10, was struck and killed by an auto Tuesday as he was going home from school. Police said the driver was William Mahone, 65.

If you can't mound all of the chiffon filling for a pie in a crust, add as much filling as you can and refrigerate. Set the remainder of the filling over a bowl of ice cubes until it thickens enough to pile on the pie.

PACKER-LION TURKEY DAY SERIES TO END

DETROIT (AP)—The Green Bay Pacers are quitting the traditional series of Thanksgiving Day games at Detroit—but the Detroit Lions have one more chance Thursday to spoil a holiday for Packers fans.

The Lions banished Green Bay's holiday cheer last Thanksgiving by dumping the National Football League's Western Division leaders, 26-14. The Packers still finished first, but the Lions won in embarrassing style, continually throwing quarterback Bart Starr for losses.

Detroit is in a better position to ruin the Packers this season, since aloss would all but knock Green Bay out of the title running.

BIG DRAWING CARD

The Packers, with a 9-2 record, are on the heels of the division-leading Chicago Bears, who have a 9-1-1 mark. They need three victories and a Chicago loss to win the division title.

Claiming that the Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit doesn't give him enough time to get his men ready, Green Bay Coach Cince Lombardi has been trying for years to get out of the game.

He convinced NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle that after Thursday, the Western Division teams should take turns playing at Detroit on Thanksgiving Day.

The Thanksgiving Day game is the only regular season NFL game which always has played to capacity crowds and a nationwide television audience.

AFL TO DRAFT ON SATURDAY

NEW YORK (AP)—A total of 200 collegians, including such eligibles as Navy quarterback Roger Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, and Scott Appleton, outstanding Texas tackle, are expected to be chosen in the American Football League draft Saturday.

There will be 25 rounds with all eight teams drawing in the first round.

Either Denver or Kansas City will have first pick, depending upon the outcome of the Oakland-Denver game, the league's lone Thanksgiving Day encounter.

The selections will be made in inverse order of the standings as of Friday. If Oakland defeats Denver, the Broncos will have first pick. If the Broncos win, Kansas City will make the first choice. New York's Jets will have third pick.

FAIRFIELD—Junior Girl Scout Troop 766 met at the home of their leader, Mrs. William Newman, Monday evening to make Thanksgiving favors for the county home.

A court of honor will be held Wednesday evening, December 4, at 6:30 at the leader's home. Mrs. Newman was assisted by Fran Eyler, Mrs. Robert Rosenwald and Mrs. Earl Schmidt.

The NCCW of St. Mary's Catholic Church packed 11 cartons of used clothing to be sent to New York for overseas relief.

Cub Pack Troop 76 of Fairfield and Cashtown will hold a paper drive Saturday beginning at 9 o'clock. Paper should be in boxes or tied and magazines should be kept separate. The collection truck will be located at the rear of Newman's store.

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 757 met Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Charles Taylor. Patrol meetings and court of honor were held to decide future activities of the troop. Mary Ann Kittinger was chairman for the court of honor.

The troop decided to make door ornaments for Christmas, to go Christmas caroling and to hold a Christmas party.

The girls selected the Peace Light designed badge as the one to be used for their battlefield badge.

Betsy Neely was awarded the child care badge. Carla Mummert and Jane Weikert led the girls in Civil War songs, a review of those learned last week.

Donna Nagle led the group in singing "Peace of the River" as the closing for the meeting.

Thomas Kittinger, son of Mrs. Merle Kittinger, and Craig Wortz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wortz, celebrated their 16th birthdays Friday evening at a party given in their honor by their parents at the Hickory Bridge Farm.

BOEHM RULES NO MAKEUP ON VACATION DAY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's highest school official believes the state's school children received "a lesson in human inhumanity" last weekend.

The lesson, impressed upon them by the assassination of President Kennedy, could not have been gotten across to them by formal schooling, said Dr. Charles H. Boehm.

For this reason, Dr. Boehm said Tuesday, the state Department of Public Instruction has decided against requiring the children to make up the day they missed Monday because of the President's funeral.

Dr. Boehm said in a statement:

"After consultation with the Department of Justice, I have decided to advise school administrators that this day should be counted a day of instruction.

"I can think of no greater lesson in human inhumanity our children could ever have an opportunity to learn than that which was open to them on this black weekend.

"No formal schooling can ever replace this instruction."

PA. SHORTWAY LINK OPENED

BROOKVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The first western section of the Keystone Shortway is open.

The $15 million Brookville Bypass was opened to traffic Tuesday as State Commerce Secretary John K. Tabor snipped a ribbon across the road at Emerickville, near this Jefferson County town.

One stretch of the $300 million, four-lane Shortway is open in the Stroudsburg area. Each opened section is 17 miles. When completed, the Shortway will run from the Ohio to New Jersey lines.

In an address to some 800 persons at Brookville Area High School, Tabor said 60 miles of the Shortway from the Ohio line to Emerickville will be open by this time in 1965.

The next section scheduled for completion is a 13-mile stretch from New Columbia, Union County, to Danville, Montour County. It should be open early next year.

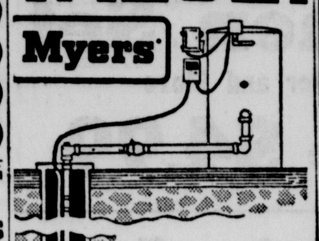

State Police To Be On Holiday Patrols

HARRISBURG (AP) — In an effort to cut down on the number of accidents on Pennsylvania highways, state police will be at full force over the Thanksgiving holidays.

"We are deeply concerned with the weekend fatalities occurring during the past year and urge all drivers to be exceptionally careful," State Police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy said Tuesday.

"It would help if each driver would protect himself against his own carelessness."

Court Weighs Taxpayer Suit

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — The fate of a suit challenging present reapportionment plans before the General Assembly will be weighed by a three-judge federal court in Philadelphia Dec. 4.

At that time the judges will consider whether or not to issue a preliminary injunction to stop the General Assembly from enacting legislation to realign senators' and representatives' districts.

Five taxpayers filed the action in U.S. District Court here last week. It seeks to stop Gov. Scranton and others, including members of the General Assembly, from passing reapportionment under grounds such action denies equal protection under the law.

Today's AP News Digest

Washington

President Johnson goes before Congress to tell it and the nation he intends to carry on John F. Kennedy's foreign and domestic policies — with emphasis on civil rights and tax cut legislation.

A Senate investigation is launched into the assassination of President Kennedy while Texas authorities prepare to convene a court of inquiry.

The presidential office does not look at all as it did last Thursday when John F. Kennedy left it for a tragic trip to Texas.

It isn't likely that President Johnson will ever forget that Saturday early in July 1955—the day he suffered his heart attack.

The long-threatened railroad dispute rolls toward the courts and a new legal tangle over an arbitration ruling permitting the elimination of thousands of firemen's jobs.

International

Red China has thrown down the gauntlet to President Johnson; he faces the prospect of a stepped-up war in South Viet Nam and Laos and possibly new crises in Korea and Cambodia.

National

Americans prepare to observe Thanksgiving with heavy heart and prayerful resolve while still mourning the death of President Kennedy.

A newly launched interplanetary monitoring platform soars through space on a radiation sensing mission vital to the lives of astronauts who will rocket to the moon.

Pennsylvania Sports

The lasses throw the passes and the boys dress like the girls on Thanksgiving day in Lewistown. It's all part of the annual Powder Puff Football bowl, a unique rivalry matching the girls of the Lewistown and Burnham Tri-Hi-Y clubs.

Oswald Applied For ACLU Card

EAST PATERSON, N.J. AP) —The American Civil Liberties Union says that 18 days before President Kennedy was slain, Lee Harvey Oswald, his accused assassin, applied for ACLU membership.

The organization said a clerk came across Oswald's application Tuesday among 351 others. None had been entered on membership lists, the ACLU said.

SIGNS FIRST BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed into law his first bill—one extending the national debt limit of $315 billion to June 29.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said today Johnson signed the measure Tuesday night.

Johnson Has Sought Active Life Since Youth, Now Faces Biggest Race Of His Career

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sunshine tinged the tops of the pecan and sycamore trees, swept across the town of Stonewall, Tex., and glowed in the room where Sam Ealey Johnson Jr. was shaking his son's foot.

"Get up, Lyndon," he said. "Everybody in town's got a two-hour head start on you."

Lyndon Baines Johnson began running. He has never stopped.

Today, he is president of the United States.

RACE LIES AHEAD

But the greatest race of Johnson's life lies ahead of him. In less than a year, another presidential election campaign will be under way. To be serving by reason of tragedy is one thing. To be elected president is the supreme goal of any American politician.

And Johnson is the ultimate polician.

Johnson was born on a ranch near Stonewall Aug. 27, 1908. On that day, so the story goes, his grandfather said, "He'll be a U.S. senator some day."

True or not, only a few years were to elapse before Johnson was on his way.

POLITICAL BACKGROUND

He had a political background. His grandfather and his father both served in the Texas House of Representatives. Another forebear was a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence.

On his mother's side, his relatives were Baptist clergymen and educators. His great-grandfather headed Baylor University for two years.

After Johnson finished high school, at 15, a curious hiatus came in his life.

He neither went to college nor showed any interest in a career. Instead, with some other boys, he walked and hitchhiked to California. Seven months later, he was home, working as a highway laborer, driving a truck, pushing a wheelbarrow, wielding pick and shovel.

ENROLLED IN COLLEGE

Finally, after a heart-to-heart talk, his parents persuaded him to go to college. Johnson borrowed $75 and enrolled in Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos.

"I took 40 courses and got 35 A's," he says.

To help pay his expenses, he worked as a janitor. Having enrolled in a public-speaking course, he practiced speechmaking while sweeping out the classrooms. He graduated in 1930.

The following year is an important one in the Johnson story.

He went to Washington as secretary of Congressman Richard Kleberg and fell head over heels in love with politics. In short order, he won his first election—speaker of the "Little Congress," a mock legislature composed of congressmen's secretaries.

Next, he was appointed state administrator for Texas of the National Youth Administration. He returned to Texas in that capacity in 1935.

Johnson married in 1934. Claudia Alta Taylor has been known all her life as "Lady Bird." When a Negro nurse first saw her, she said, "She's as pretty as a lady bird." Even the congressional directory today lists her under the nickname.

They have two daughters, Lynda Bird, 19, and Lucy Baines, 16.

ENTERED POLITICS

Johnson's first big political move came in 1937. After the death of Rep. James Buchanan, Johnson ran for the seat.

He waged a shrewd, boldly conceived campaign which was fortuitous for two reasons —it won, and it brought him to the attention of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Nine others were in the race. Johnson concluded that, to get in the spotlight, he must do something dramatic. He came out for the main planks of the New Deal and won.

Roosevelt, fishing off Corpus Christi at the time, was delighted. He invited Johnson to ride to Washington on the presidential train.

ROOSEVELT ATTENTION

He also arranged to have Johnson seated on the important Naval Affairs Committee—a rare thing for a freshman congressman—and brought him to the White House for Sunday breakfasts.

Johnson was close to the throne from the start of the political life. "He (Roosevelt) was like a daddy to me," Johnson often said.

Johnson's [illegible]try for the Senate, in [illegible]ed. Gov W. Lee O'Dani[illegible]im by 1,311 votes. Johnso[illegible]nt back to the House.

Then came Pearl Harbor.

ENTERED NAVY

Two days later, Johnson, a naval reserve offifcfer, obtained leave from the House and went to war. He served on a three-man commission inspecting conditions in the Southwest Pacific and rode on some bombing missions. Gen. Douglas MacArthur decorated him with the Silver Star. In mid-1942, Roosevelt ordered him back to the House.

His victorious 1948 campaign for the Senate is notable in several respects. He campaigned by helicopter. And he defeated Gov. Coke Stevenson by 87 votes out of nearly a million cast.

His natural talent for getting along in the Senate and getting things done soon asserted themselves. He was elected Democratic whip in 1951 and Democratic leader in 1953. At 44, he was the youngest floor leader in history.

Johnson once said he had no presidential ambitions. "I'm conscious of my limitations," he said. "I think it's fair to say nobody but my mama ever thought I'd get as far as I have."

TOMORROW: Johnson and the great issues.

Rockefellers Stay In Social Register

NEW YORK AP)—The latest edition of the New York Social Register Tuesday listed Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller together in its 1964 edition.

The listing ended speculation that their names might be dropped because of their divorces and remarriages.

Johnsons Plan Holiday Dinner

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson plan to have a family dinner at their home on Thanksgiving Day.

The White House said their two daughters, Lynda Bird and Lucy, will be there and so will Lynda's fiance, Bernard Rosenbach.

MONDAY SET NEW HIGH FOR TV WATCHING

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It will be days before the national figures are compiled, but the most authoritative rating service estimates that in the metropolitan New York area, a massive 93 per cent of television-equipped homes were using their sets to watch the funeral services for President John F Kennedy.

A spokesman for the A. C. Nielsen Co said that if the New York figure proves to be typical of the whole nation, "more people were watching television on Monday than at any other time in the history of the medium."

During the period between Friday and Monday, Nielsen estimates, the average New York television set was in use for a total of 34 hours, more than twice the normal number.

SUNDAY HIGH, TOO

On Sunday morning, normally a light viewing period, an extraordinary number of sets were in use—about 42 per cent. But after the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, the figure zoomed to a fantastic 77 per cent by 1 p.m

Tuesday morning, things got back to normal Commercials came back Programs began and ended precisely on the hour and the half hour. Game show hosts on taped shows made jokes and laughed heartily at them. The soap opera characters resumed their tangled lives.

Mr. Novak's problems Tuesday night with a difficult student were really quite relaxing because you knew he'd come out of it all right.

Red Skelton's and Martha Raye's antics in a ridiculous Wild West sketch were mildly amusing, but it was good to laugh a little.

3 PRESIDENTS' VIEWS

"CBS Reports" postponed a program about motion pictures "Flight from Hollywood" which was scheduled for tonight and put together a timely hour in which three presidents discuss the presidency

Harry S. Trumans remarks were made five years ago in a television interview with Edward R. Murrow. Dwight D. Eisenhower's were taken from his on-camera conversations with Walter Cronkite two seasons ago.

John F. Kennedy's constribution was made during a three-network interview in the White House almost a year ago.

ABC's Sunday afternoon "Issues and Answers" guest will be Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt. Sen. Barry Goldwater, scheduled to occupy the guest chair, canceled after his decision over the weekend to avoid political talk until after December.

Lawrence Welk will be missing from his Saturday night show this week. The ABC star underwent minor surgery and the boys in the band will take over his chores for the evening.

Recommended tonight: "CBS Reports," 7:30-8:30 EST—"Three Presidents on the Presidency."

No Resignations Of Kennedy Staff

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said Tuesday that nobody in the late President John F. Kennedy's staff has handed in a resignation to President Johnson.

The new President, the White House said, is standing on his word that he is leaving to each of Kennedy's former top assistants to determine whether he wishes to continue to serve the incoming administration.

Vandals Steal Half-Ton Sign

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —There's not a sign of a 1,000-pound billboard stolen from the side of a Chattanooga building.

City detectives said the sign, owned by Service Auto Parts Co., was 15 feet high, 25 feet long and was lighted by four shaded, flashing flood lamps.

STABS SWEETHEART

Laundry Combination Will Give Wives More Free Time

Leisure time is a most-prized possession and it's the lucky mother who receives this very precious Christmas gift in the shape of a 1964 washer and dryer, which are most efficient time - and - labor savers.

It has been estimated that an automatic dryer can save the homemaker 40 miles of walking — to and from the clothes line — each year. She can also save the energy required to lift the clothes basket and stretch to the line to put the clothes up and take them down.

Automatic dryers not only dry clothes, leaving them soft, fluffed, and sweet-smelling but can be used in other ways that save mother time and effort.

"Freshening up" is a very useful function for this dryer with a "no-heat" setting. According to the Hotpoint Home Laundry Institute, draperies, curtains, spreads, blankets, pillows, light rugs and stored clothes being brought from storage can all be treated to the lively air currents that circulate so effectively in a dryer.

This is an age in whpch the whole family wears clothes containing synthetic fibers. In addition to doing a thoroughly efficient job on cottons, linens, and such staples, the new washers and dryers are geared to do a fine job for all those wash-and-wear clothes that play such an important role in our modern wardrobes.

The new Hotpoint washer has six settings, including one for "sturdy wash - and - wear" and one for "delicate wash-and-wear." The machine also features a "tempering" action which adds cool water towards the end of the wash cycle to help prevent wrinkles in clothes.

The dryer also haas a special setting for "wash - and - wear" — one of four drying selectiins, and provides a cooling-off period which tumbles the clothes without heat at the end of the cycle. This also does its part in reducing wrinkling which is a very important feature for our modern wash - and - wear clothes.

To provide even more leisure time for mother — as she will have to do fewer waashes each week — the new Hotpoint machines wash 12 pounds of regular loads, and 14 pounds of certain selected loads.

Automatic washers are very versatile. They can be used to wash feather pillows, electric blankets, plastic boots, sneakers, with complete directions provided by the manufacturer. A nylon mesh bag is useful to have as you can place small items such as gloves and belts in it, and make recovery from the machine easier.

The new machines allow the homemaker to vary the water level to suit her special load, and she can also vary the temperature of the wash water and of the rinse water. There's even a dispenser in this machine to introduce the bleach, and the water at precisely the right time to achieve the very cleanest sparkling wash.

Dazzling gold beads glitter on the sleeveless overblouse of this wool persey two-piece dress. The slim skirt is slit high on one side. A perfect choice for the gala season!

DAD DESERVES SPECIAL GIFT

The favorite man in your life deserves special attention at Christmas time. Too many women leave Dad's gift until the last minute and then rush out and buy the first thing they and the tired clerk think is cute.

The gift you select for the man you love should tell him so, and the best place to find the perfect, personal gift is your jewelry store.

Consider the man's taste, take a look at what he usually wears and then select something different, but not too different. If he's wearing a silver tie clasp, collar pin and cuff links, get him a similar set in gold, but respect the general style he likes best.

Most important is to make your gift personal — and this means shopping in time to have it engraved with his initials, monogram or a private personal message. Two weeks usually is required for such engraving, but during the Christmas rush you'll be safer if you order the gift a month ahead of time.

You may choose from a varied array of watches, lighters, cigarette cases, pocket knives, good luck tokens, key chains, watch chains and, of course, the always welcome cuff links and tie tacks or clasps.

If he's the convivial type, he will appreciate handsome bar accessories — a monogrammed silver drink mixer, bottle opener or coasters. Cocktail shakers and glasses are always in demand, and these, too, may be initialed if you shop early.

CHRISTMAS IS THIEF SEASON

Unfortunately, as soon as Christmas shopping begins in earnest, shoplifters and petty thieves turn out in full force.

There are several things you can do to prevent being the victim of theft.

First step: When you arrive at a store, be sure you lock your car.

Once inside the store, keep a firm hold on your purse at all times. Never set it down on the counter out of your direct sight. (It's smart to carry a shoulder strap bag when shopping — stylish or not).

Men would be wise to put their billfold in the inside pocket of their coat. If it is carried in the hip pocket of slacks, be sure the pocket is buttoned.

Women should carry a handbag that closes tightly at the top. Open-top bags are a real invitation to thieves.

When paying for a purchase, be careful in showing how much cash you are carrying, especially if it is a considerable amount.

It's wise, too, to check your purse or pocket every few minutes to make sure you have your wallet. The sooner you report a theft, or loss, the better your chances are for having the item recovered.

If you will put all of your packages into one or two large sacks or shopping bags it will be easier to keep up with them. Small packages, especially, have a way of disappearing.

These suggestions are good ones to follow at any time of the year, but do be extra cautious now when stores are so crowded.

Lucky family if they receive an organ for Christmas! Every member of the family can soon learn to play this self-contained console electric organ. And, it's a beautiful brown mahogany furniture piece that fits wonderfully well into any decorating scheme.

SILVER PIECES ADD TO CHARM OF HOLIDAYS

Nothing adds more to the charm and festivity of holiday tables than the luster of fine silver.

For Christmas and for use throughout the years, beautiful silver bowls, platters, candlesticks, ash trays, compotes and vases are gifts of timeless value. A fine silver service grows more beautiful with use and can make every meal a festive occasion.

Most popular in the silver holloware gift lineup are silver bowls of all sizes and designs, with the classic Revere bowl a perennial favorite, available in sizes from tiny individual ashtrays to huge centerpiece bowls for flowers or fruit.

The thoughtful giver will order such gifts well in advance to allow time for the personal touch of initialing or monogramming — an added sentiment quotient sure to be appreciated.

Silver trays are always in demand, and no household ever had too many of them — big, handsome trays to hold a complete coffee service or small trays to hold an individual cup or glass.

Anything from a set of silver coasters to a handsome tea or coffee service will win undying gratitude from any homemaker. And the silver may be sterling or plated, precious or budget-priced.

The art of the finest designers is available in silver pieces in all price ranges, with some of the most beautiful of modern designs seen in inexpensive silver plate.

Silver occupies a place of honor on top of Santa's pack this year — a gift tor holiday entertaining and use every day of the year.

Christmas morning the girls will be ready to try out their new roller skates, dressed fashionably and warmly in these "patched" outfits.

YULE MESSAGE MODERN EVENT

Today we take the sending and receiving of Christmas cards as a matter of course. Actually, they didn't come into existence until the 19th century Prior to that, no one thought of greeting friends and family at Yuletide through cards.

It remained for a sixteen-year-old English engraving apprentice, William Maw Egley, to design a card in 1842 illustrating scenes of a formal banquet, a party dance and skaters. Below the illustrations was the legend "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to You."

Later another Englishman, Henry Cole commissioned the artist John Calcott Horsely, a member of the Royal Academy, to paint an illustration which ultimately depicted a Victorian family gathered around the holiday table, in addition to depicting customs of giving to the poor. Cole had lithographed copies of Horsely's work struck off and mailed the cards out in December of 1846.

In 1874, Louis Prang printed the first American greeting cards in his lithograph shop in Boston These cards were noted for their artistic quality and were sold all over the United States. Thus was begun a holiday tradition which is now an accepted part of the season . . . receiving warm greetings of love and good will through the mail at Christmas time.

For a romantic-looking gift, paste a paper doily in center of package that has already been wrapped; cut second doily to fit corners of box.

Twenty - four players were named in the National League's most valuable player poll but not one catcher drew recognition from the 20 writers who voted.

Christmas Gift Edition

'HUMMEL' IS RANKING NAME IN CERAMICS

Authentic "Hummel" ceramic figurines have been top-ranking collector's items among fans of all ages for nearly a quarter-century and a favorite gift item.

Made exclusively by the W. Goebel Company of Bavaria, West Germany, they are instantly recognizable by the meticulous craftsmanship, subtle coloring, and the indented "M. I. Hummel" seen on the base of every piece.

The secret of fthese figurines' appeal lies in their unaffected, childlike, caught-in-action feeling. Be it a little girl clutching a few wilted posies, a young boy merrily on the way to market, or a child frolicking with pets, their moods and manners are typical of tiny people the world over, and reflect the timeless dreams of eternal childhood.

This wide-eyed, ingenious charm emanates from the artist's deep love and understanding of children Berta Hummel, whose original sketches have been the basis for these ceramic figurines made by the W. Goebel Co., was one of six children who grew up in a home in Massing, Bavaria, where music and art were as natural as air and water.

Born in 1909, she demonstrated her talent and imagination at an early age, beginning by sketching and painting portraits of her young school friends.

Throughout her formal art training including the Academy of Fine Arts in Munich, Berta Hummel continued her warm interest in children, artistically as well as personally.

An outstanding example of the fact that art and religion often go hand in hand, Berta Hummel entered the Convent of Siessen near Salgau and took her final vows as a Franciscan nun in 1934

In the convent, as Sister M Innocentia, she continued to make the sketches of children that have since made her and the convent famous throughout the world.

Exclusive rights for reproduction of three-dimensional figurines from the original art were given to W. Goebel in Bavaria, where a skilled staff of artists began to translate the sketches into the life-like, beautifully colored, hand finished figures.

When first manufactured every design was approved by Sister Hummel. Now, a duly appointed nun at the convent approves new figurines.

Each design is made with painstaking care, from the moulding of individual arms, legs and other pieces; putting them together by hand to make the one perfect unit; slow, careful glazing processes in various kilns, and meticulous hand coloring. All this is done by craftsmen who are specialists in the particular phase they carry out.

From time to time, new "Hummel" figurines sketched by the artist before her death in 1946 are turned over to the W. Goebel Company for their interpretation in ceramics.

A pipe set for dad is sure to be appreciated. But, the Pipe and Tobbaco Council suggests you consult your local tobacconist as to the right shape and style of pipe as well as the proper tobacco to make sure that dad is as pleased with his new briar as he can be.

DIET WATCHER HAS PROBLEM IN RICH FOODS

The juicy turkey . . . the flaming plum pudding . . . the Christmas cookies of many kinds . . . the hors d'oeuvres that are served wherever you go — all these tempting taste treats are a threat to your waistline throughout the holiday season. And how can you enjoy the fun and food without putting on too many pounds of fat that nobody wants to have when starting the New Year?

This question is sure to come up in the chit-chat at the gay gatherings you go to, for more and more people are becoming concerned about being overweight. Not wanting to be haunted by post-Christmas bulges, they know that using a little will power to resist an extra helping of dessert may be a good New Year's resolution.

Planning holiday menus for your family and guests so they can eat what they want at parties and still keep a check on calories is now possible, thanks to today's formula diets. One approach, for example, is a liquid dietary for breakfast and perhaps a can of Metrecal soup for lunch, while enjoying a delicious dinner of favorite foods.

Your between - party menus can allow a full measure of taste delights while still watching the caloric count. On a cold winter day, a bowl of piping hot, dietary cream - of - tomato soup provides a tasty, satisfying lunch. Or, to add the traditional holiday colors of red and green to your luncheon menu, try serving split pea soup with tomato aspic salad.

When eating - on - the - run, during the holiday whirl, a liquid dietary containing only 225 calories provides all the essential nutrients while helping you avoid "empty," weight-producing calories.

Extra calories add up to unwanted inches. By cutting your intake at one or two meals during the day, you can enjoy your favorite Christmas treats without fear of adding that hard - to-lose Santa Claus contour.

ACTIVE MOTHER PLANS DAY FOR GOLD STAR UNIT

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP) — No one will ever give Mary Nieman a rocking chair. Keeping busy is her prescription for a cure-all.

"People my age complain of aches and pains," says the 66-year-old grandmother. "But you don't have time for those things, if you keep busy. That's the cure for a lot of things."

It's easy for Mrs. Nieman to keep busy these days, for much of her time is taken up with her duties as national president of the 18,000-member American Gold Star Mothers. She was elected to that office this summer.

MUCH TRAVEL

Fortunately Mrs. Nieman likes to travel. During the coming year, she'll be on the go frequently, spending at least half the time away from home, mostly at Gold Star Mothers headquarters in Washington. Her job as president, Mrs. Nieman says, sometimes is an "8-to-10-hour-a-day one."

Right now she's shaping up plans for Gold Star Mothers' Day, which will be celebrated in late September.

Attractive, white-haired Mrs. Nieman, a widow, has two daughters and seven grandchildren.Her son, Albert Jr., served with the First Division of the 18th Infantry during World War II. He was killed in Sicily in 1943.

MAKES CLOTHES

Besides the Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Nieman is active in the American Legion Auxiliary, Red Cross and Catholic Charities.

Sewing is one of Mrs. Nieman's favorite hobbies. She makes all her cotton clothes and some wool ones. Occasionally she knits, but she pooh-poohs this hobby, saying: "I just make sweaters. I only knit and purl. I don't go wild. I do it mainly to have something tt do. I just can't sit and do nothing."

Most of all, though, Mrs. Nieman enjoys her pet, a 2-year-old dachshund called Analiese or, for short, Liese.

The dog attended obedience classes with her mistress and now goes just about everywhere, even to local meetings of the Gold Star Mothers.

Soon, Mrs. Nieman says, she may take Liese on out-of-town trips.

Prowler Refuses To Be Deterred

CHATTANOOGA (AP — A neighborhood prowler is hard to discourage in the city's East Brainerd area.

He pried tne window from one house, withdrew when an occupant fired a shotgun, returned to a neighboring house and pried off a window screen, only to withdraw before another shotgun blast tired by the same man.

Two nights later, police said, the same prowler was scared off again.

Holiday hairdos are more festive when decorated with a sprig of mistletoe or a spray of holly. And hairdos need an uncurly permanent for body and curve, too.

PIPE PURCHASE REQUIRES CARE TO PLEASE DAD

A most pleasurable solution this Christmas will be found in the wide selection of pipes and smoking tobacco which will fill tobacconists' shelves this year.

Buying a pipe for the man, or men, on your list will not only prove a pleasant surprise for him come Christmas morn, but will give you an interesting and enjoyable shopping experience because of the great variety of shapes, sizes and colors that meet your eye and the attractively packaged smoking tobaccos to accompany them.

According to the Pipe and Tobacco Council, more than half of the pipes sold for gifts are purchased by women. The Council suggests that you give careful thought to your pipe purchase and consult with your local tobacconist to help you choose the most appropriate style for the man you are trying to please.

Here are some tips from the Council: If he's a tall man choose a long stemmed, large-bowled pipe. Shorter men look well with a small bowl. Curved stems are popular with students who are heavy readers and sandblast bowls suit the outdoors man.

In smoking tobaccos, there is a wide selection of aromatic and nonaromatic blends, all attractively packaged in materials which assure freshness. A new smoker or a younger man will usually prefer the aromatic sweet-smelling tobacco, while the older, inveterate pipe smoker will welcome the heavier nonaromatic flavors. There are also blending kits available for those who like to experiment with their own mixtures.

If the man on your list is a pipe collector there are many unusual shapes and specially carved bowls to please him.

His and hers: Color matched bowling equipment and accessories includes ball, bag and shoes. Each may be purchased separately, or there is a female ensemble and a male ensemble. Whatever the choice, color-coordinated bowling equipment is sure to score at Christmas!

There is also a large selection of enjoyable corn cobs and aluminum shanked briars.

In addition, buying him a pipe will lead to a variety of accessories to solve your gift problems for a long time to come. While pipe and tobacco hunting in your local shops you will see many beautiful humidors, pipe racks, pouches and other pipe smoking accompaniments which any man will appreciate and value. As you see the man of the house lighting up his new Christmas briar, the feeling of peaceful relaxation seems to epitomize the meaning of the Christmas Season.

Horse Starts Day With Cold Apple

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Miami police department worker stops at the corner liquor store for a "cold one" every morning on the way to his job and doesn't even try to keep it a secret.

The worker is Baron, a police horse, and the "cold one" consists of a cool, juicy apple Baron steps inside the store to get his treat from manager Seldon Cooper

The ritual has been going on for two years but people still are startled. One man asked Cooper to stop selling liquor to his wife because "of all the crazy things, she says she saw a horse coming out of your store this morning."

JAZZ HINDERS SEARCH FOR ANCIENT MUSIC

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Sholem Secunda's far search for ancient music keeps bumping into the tunes of Tin Pan Alley.

"Chinese youngsters in Hong Kong carry portable record players around to do the Twist," he sighs. "In Japan, India, Egypt, the main thing you hear on radio is American jazz."

The veteran composer's impromptu survey of what's popular abroad stems from his project of writing an historically appropriate score for Old Testament Psalms. Thus far 16 have been provided with choral melody.

Secunda's situation is not without a touch of irony. Most of his output since he began composing in 1916 has consisted of operettas, chamber and symphonic works. But the man who says, "I don't have much fondness for popular music" has briefly lapsed on occasion, and is best known for a ditty that engulfed the nation in 1939, "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen."

It caught up with him in a Tokyo steam bath during a recent expedition to collect (Secunda hoped) old Oriental rhythms.

"The girl attendant was singing, and I asked her if she knew any American music," the stocky little man of 69 reports. "Right away she started that song — to Japanese lyrics."

ORIENTAL MODE

For those who might wonder why research for apt Psalm music would take a man to the Far East, Secunda explains that ancient Hebraic music was strongly Oriental in mode.

"In some Japanese books I found some music that was fairly authentic," the musicologist continues. "When you hear it sung, it is very like a cantor's chanting."

Travelling on, Secunda found similarities in Spain to Jewish music, less in Greece and Turkey although they are much nearer to the Holy Land. In Israel itself he found some effort being made to preserve ethnic melodies.

"Among young students there is a tendency to be imitative of Germanic influences," Secunda says "I think this is because many of the teachers once lived in Germany."

A similar phase, adds the composer, was gone through by 19th Century American composers nurtured under the influence of Wagner and Brahms

TRADITIONAL MUSIC

"It is very important that the traditional music of different groups be preserved. It would be a tragedy to let such things die."

In Thailand he found the most intense effort to keep ancestral art forms intact but nothing relevant to his Biblical project

In addition to that undertaking, Secunda is at work on an oratorio derived from a story by the Yiddish folk writer Isaac Loeb Peretz. He expects to be engaged upon it for another year. After that he will continue to dig further for the folk music of far places.

"When I go to Japan again," he declares "I want to go into the back country where western influences perhaps haven't taken much hold yet and find the music before it gets lost."

Photographs Are "Special" Gifts

One Christmas gift you can be sure won't be duplicated is a portrait photograph. If you're planning to have one taken, now is the time to make an appointment.

Eastman Kodak suggests these ways to be more photogenic:

FOR MEN: Dark gray or medium blue suits photograph better than black and navy blue ones. A man should wear a conservative tie, shave no more than two hours before he faces the camera, and he should forget the face powder, as it makes the face look chalky in a photograph.

He should be about midway between haircuts and wear his glasses if that is how people recognize him. If he has a hobby, he might consult the photographer about including some aspect of it to give personality to the photograph.

FOR WOMEN: Cocktail-type dresses usually have flattering necklines and are perfect for photographs. Steer clear of stripes, plaids and bold prints that will detract from the focal point: your face.

NOTE FEELING OF DREAD IN MOSCOW LINE

Moscow propaganda in the wake of President Kennedy's assassination seems to reflect a feeling of dread.

In the Kremlin's reaction there is detectable a fear that the American public will turn its wrath upon communism, as such, because a man labeled a pro-Castro Marxist was accused of killing the President.

Premier Khrushchev and his supporters, beset by enormous economic problems, and a deep split in the world Communist camp may be apprehensive that Soviet foreign policy could collapse before a hardened U.S. attitude.

VEILED WARNINGS

The propaganda is full of veiled warnings. The government newspaper, Ivestia, which can be considered a voice of Khrushchev himself, said "President Kennedy's death has undoubtedly aggravated the situation in the United States."

"The struggle between sober-minded Americans and the forces of rabid reactionaries who will not miss the chance of using the situation for their own ends, will be very tense," Izvestia's editorial said Monday.

Khrushchev's policy is pegged to peaceful coexistence, as he calls it. This implies that since war is unthinkable, the two greatest powers must agree on dangerous issues. As practiced, coexistence has involved probing, testing, edging close to danger — as in Cuba and Berlin — and retreating when there is risk of a collision which could trigger war.

WAS RESPECTED

Kennedy confronted Khrushchev with shows of strength in Berlin and in Cuba. But the Kremlin knew Kennedy and respected him as an antagonist. President Johnson still is an unknown quantity to the Russians, and Moscow deeply suspects what it does not know or understand.

Moscow has been cautious lately. Its caution is reflected in a mild response to the humiliation and expulsion of Soviet diplomats from the Congo.

Izvestia expressed fear that the assassination may have deadly parallels with the 1933 Reichstag fire which brought Hitler to power in Germany. There, it pointed out, Communists were blamed.

NEW SURPRISE AWAITS FRIEND OF PARAKEET

Want to give relatives and friends an extra surprise this Christmas? Then plan on giving a parakeet, the third most popular pet, right behind puppies and kittens.

This suggestion comes from French's Pet Bird Laboratories in Rochester, N. Y., which reports that for the last several years these clever little birds have become increasingly popular as gift items.

They suggest, too, that the bird be taught a Christmas greeting for an added touch. "Parakeets learn from constant repetition of words and phrases" a spokesman points out. "It's merely a matter of time and patience." You may not get your parakeet to learn "Silent Night,' between now and Christmas, but chances are he'll reward you with a cheery yuletide greeting if you spend just a few minutes a day on his education.

Mom can probably do the best job, say the experts at French's because its easier for birds to mimic the high tones of a woman's voice. In any case, only one person should be elocution coach to the bird.

For new parakeet owners, here, from the packers of French's Parakeet Seed, are some tips:

1. Don't expect too much of your pet right away. It takes a few days for him to adjust to new surroundings and he may act dull and drowsy. At first it's wise to keep his cage covered for several hours during the day. Befofre long, your pet will get settled and will be his usual playful, friendly self.

2. Try not to frighten or excite him. Move quietly when near the cage and talk to him in a soft calm voice.

3. Keep the cage out of direct sunlight and drafts and in a spot where the bird will not be subject to sudden, extreme changes in temperature.

4. Feed your bird daily. And don't mistake a dish of empty seed hulls for a full cup of seed. His diet should consist of seed, treat, conditioning food, cuttle bone, and gravel, plus fresh water. Add spray millet or a treat bell from time to time for extra enjoyment.

5. Keep the bird cage clean. The food and water cups should be emptied and cleaned daily. Change the paper liner on the cage bottom and sprinkle with fresh gravel every few days. Scrape, do not wash, the perches when necessary.

The care and feeding of a parakeet are really so simple that a child can be given the complete responsibility. As a matter of fact parakeets are more and more frequently found in nursery schools, kindergartens, and lower grades, where they become classroom projects.

Parakeets, noted for their companionship and humorous antics, will brighten any household not only at Christmas but for years afterward.

Child Questions Species Of Bird

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A student in James O. Martin's Eighth Grade science class caught a baby rabbit and brought it to school.

After the class had examined it, Martin took it home for his children. For want of a better place, they kept it in a bird cage.

A neighbor's child, age 6, wandered in one day and was intrigued by the furry creature. The child walked around the cage several times, peering intently at the rabbit.

Finally he said, "Mrs. Martin, are you absolutely sure that's a bird?"

Fishing for ideas about what to give dad this Christmas? If he likes fishing, he'll love a gift of an outboard motor. Especially one that's as light in weight as this.

WOMAN DRIVES SEMITRAILER

MELBOURNE (AP) — Helen Gray is a shapely 20-year-old, cute with hair in pigtails. Five feet 5 inches tall and weighs 128 pounds.

She's very like thousands of other Australian girls except for one thing—she drives an eight-ton semi-trailer for a living.

Her job as a truckie is to drive trailer loads of sheep, cattle and pigs to market, then head back for another load. She averages seven tons of livestock a load, and 00 miles a week.

"My first job was a messenger girl with an insurance company in Sydney," says Helen. "Then I worked as a teleprinter operator at the Stock Exchange and later for an airline, but I felt something was missing.

"I like outdoor work, I like driving, I love trucks, so there was only one thing to do, and six months ago I did it. I took this job as a livestock transport driver.

WILL BUY HOME

"The pay is better, too. I'm saving up to buy my parents a home."

Helen says she earns $50.50 a week.

On the road she can change a tire, make minor mechanical repairs—and she has not had an accident.

"I think that's why the men drivers accept me now," she says. "When I started they laughed and said I wouldn't last a week."

Helen says truck-driving and judo (she holds the orange belt) have not made her less feminine and adds: "I play squash and love swimming, ballroom dancing, and pretty clothes. . . . I DO wear them, you know."

Then, dressed in overalls, boots, and canvas leggings, she whistles up her sheepdog, hops back into the truck, and heads for the South Melbourne stockyards.

CASTLE CLAIMS MANY GHOSTS

By MILTON ARMOR

LONDON (AP) — During the tourist season you can always count on ghosts to appear — more or less invisibly.

They hang around mostly in royal residences.

Windsor Castle claims 23 ghosts, the most notable being George III of American Revolutionary War fame.

Theaters also provide a favorite haunt for the apparitions.

London's Dury Lane Theater, scene of many a musical success from America, has some stage ghosts who attract attention — although not as much as its plays.

Among the "house" ghosts, there is lovesick Jarman who haunts a Tudor manor in Hertfordshire. He can be seen at night, watering his white horses (also ghosts).

Then, there's the ghost of a pipe-smoking sea captain who drove three people out of their home in Middlesex. The family called police who pulled up the floor boards, but couldn't find the terrible captain.

In Berkshire, there's a ghost in a village store who has been identified as the great - great - grandmother of a 15-year-old girl who lives there. This ghost has been chased away by the village vicar but she still comes back. No one knows why.

There's also an unexplained female ghost in Wales. She is a Victorian miss in a frilly nightgown who haunts No. 6 Laughharne Avenue un Cardiff.

In a house in Oxfordshire, there a ghastly, ghostly chap called Archibald. He wears a black hat.

A cheeky, nosy ghost — unnamed — reportedly enjoys watching television in the town of North Hields. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Leek, he sits and watches TV with them.

"Now the ghost has started to touch us," says Mrs. Leek. "This awful spook is driving us all to distraction."

Still another distracting-type ghost is one who resides in Salford, Lancashire. He pounds "bump, bump bump" on the ceiling as if with an iron ball.

On the other hand, some ghosts prove useful occasionally. Lt. Col. Algernon Bonham-Carter reported seeing one in a bedroom of his 500-year-old house. On this basis, he appealed for a reduction in his tax assessment — and got it.

Comfort for her begins with beautiful slippers such as those shown here. All are smartly styled in elegant leather with exquisite details.

TUCSON WOMAN REPAIRS AUTOS

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Many women can crumple a fender or smash a car door, but few know how long it will take to repair the damage and what the cost will be.

Mrs. Anna Shouse of Tucson is an exception.

She can look at a wrecked car and tell you whether to fix it or junk it. She not only can itemize the visible damage, but she knows what hidden parts probably will be damaged in any given wreck.

Thirteen years ago when newlywer, Mrs. Shouse left Louisville, Ky., for Tucson, she couldn't drive a car and didn't know one model from another.

REPAIR SHOP

Eventually, her husband, Ollie, opened his own auto repair shop. She decided to learn the business.

She began going with wreckers to the scenes of accidents, talking to auto parts dealers and examining the damaged cars brought into the Shouse shop.

Mrs. Shouse has refused to limit her knowledge to the auto parts business. She has become the only woman in southern Arizona to be a body shop estimator.

Independent appraisers from insurance companies rate Mrs. Shouse among the best in the area—regardless of sex. Men at other auto repair shops call her in when they need expert advice.

Only once has Mrs. Shouse wrecked a car herself.

"A $400 job," she comments.

DADDY STARTS FLYING TREND

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) When Richard Callaway became an airplane pilot he had no idea his whole family would follow suit.

But they did.

His wife, slender attractive Margaret Callaway, took up flying while her husband was an Air Force pilot during World War II.

She took her two daughters along to some pilot classes and they too became interested in flying.

Mrs. Callaway taught both girls to fly and what started as a hobby has become a vocation for most of the family.

DAUGHTER SOLOED EARLY

Mrs. Callaway has logged about 7,000 hours flying time in the past 20 years. She won an international air race in 1957 and has finished high in other air races. A licensed pilot instructor, she is employed by a Texas firm which makes aircraft parts.

Daughter Sandra Callaway, 23, soloed as soon as she reached the legal age of 16 and now holds a commercial pilot's license. She has placed among the top three finishers in both the Powder Puff Derby and the all - women's International Air Race. She is a graduate of the University of Rochester and is a sales representative for a Wichita aircraft firm.

HUSBAND STILL FLYING

Marge Callaway, 21, the other daughter, has taken part in several air races. She is a graduate of Rochester and is now taking advanced studies at University of Wichita.

What about the old man? He retired last year as an Air Force colonel and is now with an engineering firm and works out of Los Angeles, Calif.

He's still flying but Mrs. Callaway notes that, with their varied interests, "it's a little difficult to get us all together in one place at the same time."

Project Fire Measures Heat

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The amount of heat that moon exploring astronauts will encounter on returning through the earth's atmosphere will be studied by Project Fire.

The program involves launching Atlas-Antares rockets to an altitude of more than 400 miles. When the Antares second stage is at a height of 200 miles on the way back to earth, it will fire downward, pushing its nose cone to a speed of 25,000 miles an hour — the velocity at which the Apollo moonship will reenter the atmosphere.

Project Fire will help engineers design protective materials for the Appolo craft.

To welcome guests during the holidays, serve them a warm California cheam sherry drink. Combine 2 qts. of sherry, 1 qt. strong tea, ½ cup grenadine, grated rind of 2 oranges, 1 tsp. grnd. nutmeg, 1 6-ozi cn. frozen undiluted orange juice and heat to boiling point. Serves 25.

Your favorite cookies, cut in holiday shapes, are sure to bring appreciative murmurs from friends and family as they toast each other's health and happiness with Christmas eggnog.

MOTHER NEEDS REFRIGERATOR, FREEZER ROOM

Any wife lucky enough to be getting a new electric refrigerator-freezer for Christmas will be extra lucky if it arrives a few weeks early. It'll save her time, trouble, and the frustration of trying to find extra space for the holiday food.

One of the blessings of a new unit is the large zero-zone freezer section which can be stocked well before Christmas with home-made or commercially prepared foods such as pie, soups, sauces and vegetables, and even the Christmas turkey.

Fresh food sections of the new electric refrigerator-freezers not only hold more food, but keep it at top quality longer. This means that for fruit, vegetables, meat and other fresh foods, shopping can be done a week or more ahead of time, instead of during the last-minute rush.

There'll be no problem about fitting the new unit into the kitchen, since today's models provide far more storage space inside without taking up extra floor space. They also fit flush against walls, in corners, or between cabinets, giving a neat, built-in look.

Best of all, many of the new electric refrigerator - freezers never need to be defrosted, since frost never forms in either the refrigerator or the freezer section.

DEEP ROOTS PERSIST

NEW YORK (AP) — The religious roots of the United States are "so deeply ingrained" that it is "doubtful if congressional or Supreme Court endorsements of a neutral or secular state" can change fundamental church-state attitudes in America, the Rev. Robert F. Drinan, dean of Boston College law school, writes in a new book, "Religion, the Courts and Public Policy" (McGraw-Hill).

Christmas Gift Edition

Comfortable Shoes, Slippers Make Excellent Male Gifts

He'll jump for joy if you give him a pair of leather shoes this Christmas. That's because this winter, leather casuals are constructed of new leathers which combine durability with softness. The cold weather leather casual shoe gives him the ease and walking comfort of summer months — as well as the ruggedness, he needs and wants during the winter.

For a holiday romp with the children, he'll appreciate the suppleness and support of a brushed leather chukka boot. Set on a substantial leather sole that absorbs punishment like a sponge, the leather chukka flexes, bends and stretches as he runs with the youngsters. At the same time, the ankle-high boots keeps wind and weather outside the shoe and his feet warm and dry inside.

Another leather casual that gives him a toothold on comfort during the cold months is the smooth or grained leather slip-on. Usually rising high on the topline, this casual is light without sacrificing protection.

Leather moccasins make a welcome gift at any season — and for good reason. Glove-soft but rugged leathers, roomy toes and foot-hugging toplines, make moccasins as easy afoot as slippers. Slim leather soles add little weight, but offer protection and support on hardwood floors and concrete pavements.

For dress wear during the holiday season, he'll be in step with fashion in leather brogues with medium weight leather soles that are built for support yet cropped for smart styling.

Smooth or grained leather brogues come in rounded crescent or blunted — square toe styles, moccasin fronts or wing-tip-and-foxing.

On a winter vacation or just at home with the family, a pair of dressy slip-ons set a tone of ease and fashion. Hand-stitched seams and deeply notched vamps contribute to the snap and style of the dress slip-on.

This year's darkened men's shoe colors contribute to the slimmer look of the foot. Most popular are the new burnished olive — a black with green — woody browns and glossy black leathers. Subtle grained leather and smooth leather pick up the lighter textures of mens suits, while brushed leather complements heavier textured sports slacks.

If you're uncertain about his shoe size check his closet and jot down the numbers printed on the linings of his favorite shoes. The clerk at your local shoe or department store will be able to select the proper size from this information.

If you'd rather have him choose his own style and color, a handsome, personalized shoe gift certificate is sure to delight him.

BUY INSURANCE WITH NEW AUTO

Is there a new automobile in your Christmas-gift picture this year?

If so, you will probably visit several automobile showrooms, searching for the best deal on a new car. But just as you compare car prices, you should also compare financing and insurance costs.

It is possible to save on a purchase simply by careful attention to insurance and finance rates, according to a spokesman for State Farm, the country's biggest auto insurer.

First, financing should be checked. Because seven out of ten people borrow money for car purchases, it is likely that you will be making some financing arrangements. Since it costs money to borrow, an interest rate or finance charge is added to the borrowed sum.

The interest on borrowed funds is determined by such factors as the type of institution lending the money, borrower's credit rating, amount being borrowed and length of time for repayment. Interest rates are regulated by law.

A finance charge, on the other hand, is sometimes not regulated by law and is the amount of money added to the price of an item when the item is bought on time payments. Therefore, the amount of a finance charge can often be determined solely by the lending agent.

In a recent nine-city survey by the University of Chicago on comparative finance costs, it was shown that in New York City many buyers achieved savings of between $36 and $86 on the $2,009.00 financing of a new car merely by shopping for the best place to get financing.

Insurance coverage is the next item on the car-buyer's list. Since insurance costs vary, comparing them is a good idea.

A Louisiana man discovered that collision insurance and credit life insurance (which pays the balance of a loan in case the buyer dies) would cost him $520 from one source. He then visited an insurance agent who was able to arrange a loan through a local bank at low bank rates. The bank furnished credit life insurance without charge. Still further savings were achieved on the car insurance. The borrower saved a total of f$176 on insurance compared with costs from the first source.

By investigating finance and insurance costs on a new car, you can make your Christmas gift surprise to your family an adventure in economy and not a burden for the New Year.

On Christmas morn this little girl will enjoy the festivities comfortably in corduroy suspender pants with a knit shirt. She'll enjoy the owl applique, too.

Right wingman Gordi Howe of the Detroit Red Wings is in his 18th National Hockey League season. He is 35 and has been the league's most valuable player six times.

JEWELRY STORE IS GIFT CENTER

For centuries the jewelry store has been traditional gift headquarters at Christmas, carrying the most exciting selection of memorable gifts to be cherished through the years.

Gift-buyers, the Jewelry Industry Council reports, welcome the taste, trained fashion sense, good judgment and integrity that are synonymous with jewelers. This year, you wil find an even greater assortment from which to make your selections.

When shopping for a watch, for instance, handsome styling and individuality are likely to be as important as accuracy to the wearer. And so great is the variety in watches this Christmas that only the trained jeweler can point out the merits and suitability of each one.

Utility watches, for out-of-door wear and sports; pocket watches and chains for formal wear and wrist watches design especially for professional business people are found to be in striking attractive styles.

Silver holloware — tea sets, bowls, dishes, trays — reflects the good taste of the giver as few gifts can. Because today's silverware is the focal point of fashion in the home, the factor of style judgment in selection can make for the most happiness all around, regardless of intrinsic value or price alone.

A glance at the showcases in your jewelry store will show you that each age group has been studied by designers with an eye to fashion and appropriateness. The Jeweler offers gifts for infants such as: Bent-handle spoons, silver rattles or teething rings with silver bells, brush and comb sets, pearls for starting a necklace, cups, bib holders, porringers and tiny gift rings.

For older boys, and men for that matter, the right tie tack, tie clip, cuff links, key chain or pen-knife is to be found at the jewelers.

A wide variety of gift suggestions for young girls includes a piece of sterling in her chosen pattern, her first piece of precious jewelry in the form of a pin, bracelet, locket or sterling picture frame.

Young women's gift choices are sure to include compacts, jeweled earrings and pins, clips and rings. Gifts of jewelry make any woman seem prettier — and younger.

Santa is linked in the minds of many with the fashions of today. That means jewelry and more of it. Again the jeweler can be helpful, for he makes it his business to know the fashion trends, whether it emphasizes longer waistlines, shorter sleeves, distinctive necklines, or whether the jewel accent is to be near the face, lapel, waist or elsewhere.

Sterling identification bracelets are worn early today by young men in their teens; their pen and pencil sets, leather wallets and desk accessories will tend to reflect personal tastes as well as future professions or occupations. Smoking accessories take on importance, including lighters, cigarette cases and holders.

Rings may assume the importance of fraternal insignia, the dignity of initial or signet designs. Perhaps the birthstone ring has become significant in the young man's life as a gift ring worth having and wearing for its symbolic meaning and proof of someone's lasting affection and regard.

Fashion is at hand when your Christmas gift is a lovely leather handbag. Left, travel pouch in a brown grained leather, self-leather handles and strap. Lower right, grained briarwood leather shoulder bag with gold-colored frame and outside pocket. Upper right, smooth leather satchel.

HUBBY LIKES TO HELP WIFE TO DECORATE

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Brides and brides-to-be should let their husbands help them in furnishing their homes, suggests Dede Draper, president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

"Homemakers have found that men are taking a more active interest in their homes. Men have a new appreciation for workmanship, now that they've been active in workshops, building and repairing. A few years ago a man would glance at a chair his wife proposed buying. Now he will turn it upside down to see how it is put together, study the dowling, and everything else about it," she says.

Once they are put to the test, you will find men have definite likes and dislikes, and it's good to find it out right away, she advises.

MEN LIKE BLUE

"Most men like blue, earthy tones and reds that aren't too red. They like saddle leather brown, wood and old beams. They like an old feeling in the background, even though they may like the extreme of modern furnishings. Anything that is a conversational item and has a story behind it intrigues them, such as a wood from a far-off place or even from an ancient barn," she says.

Men enjoy shopping for furnishings too, once they get interested. And that's a big change from the past, Miss Draper points out.

"They used to think decorating a home was the woman's business. They didn't want to get involved. But sometimes now we must hold up a job until the husband gets back from a business trip. Once they get interested, they don't want anything bought when they aren't around," she says.

ANTIQUE PREJUDICE

Many men are prejudiced about antiques until they realize an antique is not a thing that is falling apart—a general misconception—Miss Draper says. Once you explain that a piece of furniture that has stood up 200 years must be pretty good, they begin to have respect for it.

One man who wanted modern furnishings became so impressed with a mahogany Pembroke table that it changed his entire outlook on his home.

"It had that look of faded mahogany, an aged look that can't be duplicated, and he was so fascinated with the look of the wood that he wanted to learn more about old furniture," she says.

MISSPEND FUNDS

One mistake made by women who furnish their homes without the assistance of an interior designer is that they misspend funds, Miss Draper explains. A woman is likely to fall in love with a lush sofa, something she has always wanted, spending $1,200, or half her entire home furnishings budget for it.

"Some women run out and buy wall-to-wall carpet in a brilliant color such as a violent violet, then find too late that it won't go with anything else. It is too late to do anything about it. When you take up wall-to-wall carpet, strip it and redye it, the size will change."

It is mistakes like these that have contributed to the rise of interior designers, Miss Draper says. Though many men in the past thought it was a waste of money to hire someone to help do a home, they now see it has advantages.

WIFELY HINTS MAY RESULT IN DISHWASHER

With Christmas almost here, the "hinting season" is in full swing, and husbands are fair game — especially if it's a family gift you're aiming at.

Here are a few "hinting" tips for a homemaker who has her heart set on a major item — an electric dishwasher, for example:

1. Collect dishwasher ads from local papers and national magazines. Show them to your personal Santa Claus and tell him what style and features you especially like. You might choose a built-in model, a portable, or a convertible that can be built in later.

Tell him about the choice of cycles for light or heavy loads, the easy-to-load rack designs, and the new powerful washing action that gets dishes really clean, and the hot-air drying that leaves them sparkling.

2. Tell him that an automatic dishwasher will save your hands from that rough redness constant hand - dishwashing gives them. Explain that your hands won't have to do anything except brush food off the plates and place tableware and kitchen utensils in the machine.

Don't forget to say that an electric dishwasher uses water much hotter and detergent much stronger than your hands could stand.

3. Explain how much time an automatic dishwasher will save — time you can spend helping the children with their homework or doing something else that's important to the family. If your children help with the dishes, get them to help persuade Daddy that an automatic dishwasher would be a wonderful Christmas gift.

4. Since men like to see how appliances work, get him to take a look at a friend's dishwasher. Let her or her husband show him how easy it is to use, how clean and bright it gets the dishes, and how neat the kitchen stays when dirty dishes go right into the dishwasher after every meal.

Colored Sheets Aid Decorators

Now a woman can decorate the bedroom with sheets — and a stack of matching ones makes a great gift to the seamstress.

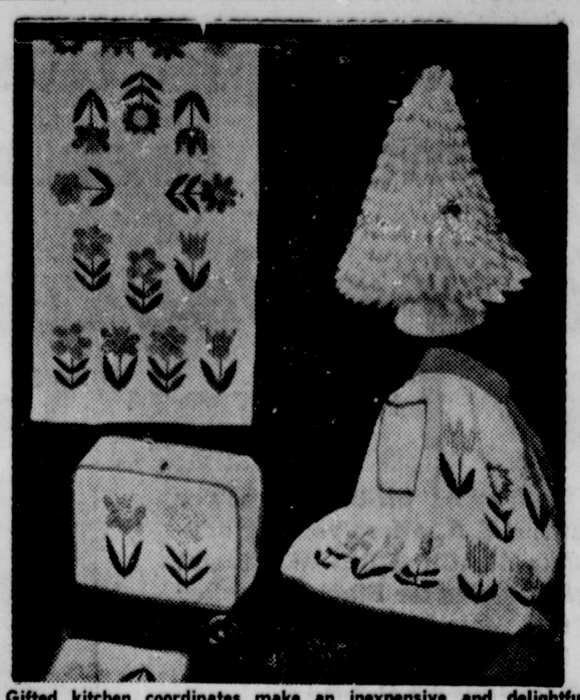

Sheets in seven different colors to carry out any decorative scheme, now come in matching solids, candy stripes and smart polka dots. With these, enchanting effects for headboards, canopies, dust ruffles, draperies, cafe curtains, vanity skirts are easily created.

It's the arresting combination of matching colors in solids, dramatic stripes and smart polka dots in one unified scheme that does the decorating magic. Use the solid color hem borders to give the creations a professional finish.

Inexperienced sewers need not hesitate to start redoing the bedroom. Most of the decorating elements involve merely straight sewing.

Now about economy, hear this: A double bed sheet contains about seven square yards of handsome washable fabric, points out Ruth Leigh, director of Cannon Homemaking Service. Divide this into the price of a double bed sheet. You quickly see why it's less expensive to use sheets for decorating than to buy comparable washable fabric by the yard.

This new family of sheets in matching solid colors, stripes and polka dots has an almost magical power to unify and to integrate unrelated decorative elements in your bedroom. Surprisingly enough, the authoritative combination of patterns in matching colors makes a small bedroom appear large and a cluttered, cut-up room serene and tranquil.

Gifted kitchen coordinates make an inexpensive and delightful present to the homemaker. Shown here is a medley of stylized flowers with the home-spun look in terry towel, potholder, toaster cover and apron.

Give sturdy toys, say child psychologists, because children become emotionally attached to them and will find much more satisfaction in the toy that lasts. One material that can be depended upon to withstand the rough treatment all toys receive is steel. Look for toys such as the steel truck shown here when shopping for Christmas gifts.

Sunday Golfers Await Caddies

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Every Sunday morning, the golfers at Louisville Country Club have to wait 20 minutes for a caddy, but they don't object.

The caddies are attending their own Sunday School, held on a cool green near the pro shop and conducted by John Bernie Alwes, an advertising executive.

Alwes, who pioneered the project 10 years, ago uses chalk drawings to illustrate his points. Bibles or Testaments are handed the caddies and they read and pray.

When winter closes in, and the sessions end, the caddies keep the Bibles.

SYRUP QUEEN SHUNS BEAUTY FOR FASHION

NEW YORK (AP) — Maids of Maple Syrup may come and Rural Electrification Queens may go, but there may never be another beauty winner like this year's Miss Sun Fun U.S.A.

As befits the wearer of such a regal title, Geri Schmidt, 20, of Farmington, Mich., is tall (5 feet 7½), shapely (35-22-35 and 123 pounds) and lovely (dark brown hair, blue eyes, wide warm smile).

Brought up to be conscientious, she did her best by the 50-mile stretch of seaside resorts along South Carolina's Atlantic coastline she reigned over.

It's her thinking that smacks of heresy.

"I don't want to be a model or an actress," she said the other day. "If you're a beauty queen you're expected to want screen tests. It's too much of a rat race for me.

HONOR STUDENT

"I do want to be a buyer or fashion coordinator. But it's not a dedicated life. I want to get married, have kids and all that. No boy in mind, though."

Mainly Geri, who was an honor student in high school and on the dean's list at Ferris Institute, got involved in beauty contests for the scholarships involved. And she resents all the time a winner has to give up, especially when she's not told about it in the first place.

Her queenly career went this way:

As a freshman at Ohio State she was chosen Navy ROTC queen.

For her second year at college, she stayed home and attended Ferris. That's when the local Junior Chamber of Commerce asked her to run for National Cherry Queen.

She said definitely not. Then she learned the contest offered a partial scholarship that she needed to go back to college.

WON CONTEST

She entered and won. Loot consisted of a $300 wardrobe, $300 scholarship, some jewelry, an official white queen's gown "that took me for a year and now's falling apart at the seams."

Being queen, however, took up so much of her time she was able to go to school only two quarters.

"That's the trouble with beauty contests," she said. "You have to sign a contract for a year that you'll make appearances when they want you to and that you won't get married. I do think sponsors should find out before girls are entered just what's expected of them."

Myrtle Beach, S. C., where the Sun Fun Festival is held, asked the Cherry Festival officials to send her. She went.

"Most of the other girls — there were about 28 — were really good, most had been in 10 or a dozen other contests. One had been to the Miss America contest. There were five days of lunch and dinner with the judges, and contests in swimming suit, evening dress and talent. I did a skit in which I did the Charleston, Twist and minuet. No, I don't want to be a professional dancer."

WAS MISS SUN FUN

So she became Miss Sun Fun and was given a car, $1,250 scholarship, a color TV set and $5,000 worth of other prizes.

"I'm not belting the beauty queen things altogether," she said, after thoughtfully ticking off the awards. "There are some good things. You have a chance to meet people you probably would never know unless you went into show business. And you're doing things you normally wouldn't do — well you know, chaperoned things."

Geri's chaperone was her blonde mother, Mrs. Dwight A. Schmidt, who accompanied her to New York to help her get lined up for her merchandising degree at the Laboratory Institute of Merchandsiing. She started classes this fall.

"And I'll never enter another beauty contest as long as I live," she said emphatically.

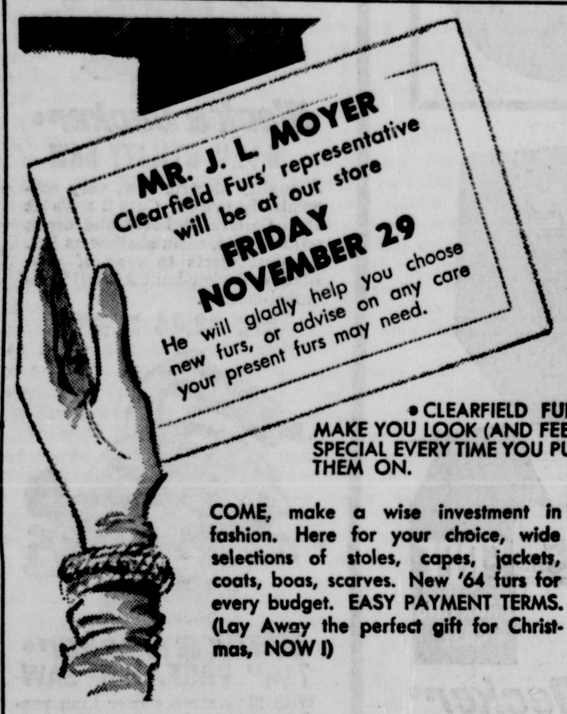

You can't blame Geri, though, for taking strong stands now. She started life mixed up.

Her birth certificate was made out for Richard Gerald. Three days later the hospital got things straightened out and informed her parents — her father works for an automobile manufacturing company — they really had a daughter. Then she became Geri Sue.

Slope specs make a great gift for the gal who skis. They're glamorous, lightweight, distortion-free and will not fog or mist. They come in several colors, in a chic case.

Christmas Gift Edition

Entire Family Will Enjoy Traditional Sugar Plum Tree

Be a sugar plum fairy this holiday season. For a Christmas gift any family will enjoy, make a sugar plum tree. It will add a warm, festive note to the Yuletide celebration.

Use a real or artificial tree about two feet tall and hang it with brightly frosted Christmas cookies, garlands of cranberries and tinted popcorn, fruit candies tied with ribbon, and candy-dotted popcorn balls. Top it with a star-shaped cookie a-gleam with silver candies.

Miss Alice Hutchinson, head of the home economics department of The R. T. French Company, packers of spices, herbs, and extracts, suggests that a cookie tree be used as a decoration for the front hall during the holidays. Guests can be invited to nibble on the decorations! (Keep extra cookies on hand to replace disappearing ones, she suggests.)

The "goodie tree" is so easy to make that even the children can help. In fact, they'll probably want to. Put them to work stringing the cranberries and popcorn, which go on first. (For extra color, tint the popcorn by sprinkling with diluted food color).

Next come the popcorn balls. Roll them in cake decorettes while still sticky, insert colored pipe cleaners and hook the ends over the tips of the branches.

Next, fix your fruit candy balls. Here's how: Grind together ½ pound each of pitted prunes, seedless raisins soaked five minutes in warm water, seeded dates, and figs or apricots. Add 1 cup of chopped nuts, ½ teaspoon of salt and 1 teaspoon of cinnamon.

Shape into small balls. Roll in a mixture of ½ cup sugar, and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Wrap balls in squares of colored cellophane and tie the ends with red or green ribbons and loop to tips of branches.

Now for the cookies and here you can let your fancy roam. Use cookie cutters or make your own cardboard patterns by tracing whimsical animals from children's books or magazines. Place cardboard patterns on the dough and cut around them with a sharp knife.

Before the cookies are popped into the oven, make a hole in each one large enough for the string which will be used to hang it on the tree. When cookies are done, let your artistic talents take over. Decorate them with confectioners' sugar frosting and cake decorettes and make them as gay and colorful as your Christmas mood.

Chances are you have your own favorite Christmas cookie recipe, but if you'd like to try something different, here's a favorite developed in French's test kitchen in Rochester, N. Y.

OLD FASHIONED PEPPARKAKOR

(pronounced "peppar-cock-er")

Sifted together:
- 3½ cups sifted flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1½ teaspoons French's ginger
- 1½ teaspoons French's cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon French's cloves

Cream:
- ½ cup butter or margarine

Add gradually ¾ cup sugar, creaming until light and fluffy.

Add:
- 1 unbeaten egg
- ¾ cup molasses
- 1 teaspoon French's orange peel

Stir in the dry ingredients, gradually mixing until well blended. Cover. Chill overnight. Roll out on well floured pastry cloth to ⅛ inch thickness or less. Cut into shapes and place on greased baking sheet. Bake in 375-degree oven 8 to 10 minutes. Decorate. 7 to 10 dozen.

So cuddly! This amazing little baby doll stretches, squirms and moves in her sleep like a real baby while a Swiss music box within plays a pretty tune. She has a rayon plush body and a lovely vinyl face.

PUBLIC TRUST IS VITAL KEY TO ECONOMY

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The shock of a death passes in time. The basic U.S. economy is sound. The majority of Americans are not panic prone.

All signs point to a continuation by President Johnson and the Congress of the late President Kennedy's general policies affecting business, industry and finance.

This is the hopeful expectation of almost all business leaders and economists who have assessed the long-run consequences of the assassination.

STRONG CONFIDENCE

They feel that confidence—at both consumer and business levels—will prove strong after the initial period of shock and bewilderment.

Gyrations in stock and commodity markets are expected for a time. They customarily react dramatically to any shock, particularly to any news that involves short-term uncertainties. And in the markets reaction breeds reaction, as they get back in step with the rest of the economy.

But confidence of the public as a whole, rather than just the passing judgments of stock and commodity traders, is the key to the business future.

Confidence is a fragile thing. There is no fixed guide to how consumers and businessmen will feel and act.

EXPECT RECOVERY

The general expectation, however, is that after the first shock the consumer will go on with his plans, and that business will go ahead with its production schedules and planning for modernization and future expansion.

Only an unexpected change in the policies of the new administration and the attitude of the Congress, or in the trade and political policies of other nations could upset the basic strength of the economy, in the view of those economists who have spoken out so far. That strength is unquestioned today.

If other nations believe the new administration will follow the same policies as President Kennedy—and this seems highly probable—the dollar will remain strong in world money markets.

All of these business and financial conditions are, of course affected by President Kennedy's assassination. Uncertainty and reassessment may slow the rise in the economy that got under way in late summer.

But this need be only temporary—if Americans keep their heads.

A blocked field goal sometimes has disastrous effects. Against Illinois, Harold Wells of Purdue recovered such a blocked kick and went 62 yards for a touchdown.

U.S.-FRENCH RELATIONS MAY THAW

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A thaw in the chilly U.S.-French relations appears possible following the announcement that Presidents Johnson and Charles de Gaulle will meet here early next year.

The surprise announcement came from President Johnson after he had spent 18 minutes in private conference with the French president at a reception late Monday for foreign dignitaries who attended President John F. Kennedy's funeral.

Johnson, obviously plunging into the monumental tasks before him with rapidity, came out from the conference room and said, "We have decided he would come back and talk more early next year." To give it further emphasis he told newsmen: 'Sure you can quote me."

De Gaulle originally had planned to meet with Kennedy, probably in February, and arrangements had been completed. It appeared the two men swiftly came to agreement on the need for early talks to clear up standing differences between the two long-time allies.

The tall French president was given the center of attention at the reception, as he has been since he arrived Sunday for the funeral. He was in relaxed, chatty form.

Announcement of the meenit came amid general speculation on how Johnson and De Gaulle will get along

A STUBBORN MAN

The answer would appear to be that they will get along well personally, but any changes in policy would have to come from the American side.

De Gaulle, who regards world affairs in the broad, historic sense, is a stubborn man with fixed ideas, devoted to France He is not malleable, as he frequently illustrated in his differences with Kennedy.

Problems confronting Kennedy's successor and the French chief of state are manifold, but some of the larger ones are De Gaulle's go-it-alone atomic defense policy, his uncooperative attitude toward the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, his chilly attitude toward the limited nuclear test ban treaty and his lofty position on the Common Market.

STILL ALLIES

But De Gaulle never hesitates to make it clear that in any showdown France would come quickly to America's side.

Johnson has the reputation of being a seasoned, astute politician who knows how to work with people and get them to work for him He also has the reputation of being a compromiser, at least in the realm of domestic politics

Third Change In World Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lyndon B. Johnson's succession to the presidency brought the third change in leadership among major Western powers in a little more than a month.

On Oct. 16, aging Konrad Adenauer stepped down as chancellor of West Germany and was succeeded by Ludwig Erhard.

On Oct. 19, ailing British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was succeded by Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

Men's Hats Are Designed For Individual Fashion

Planning to give him a hat? Here are some news items to note:

From Madison Ave. to Main St., the theme for men's fashions this winter is one constant story — an easy, casual look in clothing. Always this accent on the casual is accompanied by a greater interest in lighter tones than ever before.

Casual clothing means casual hats; lighter clothing means lighter colors in headwear. All of which adds up to a prospect of a younger looking, better groomed and more comfortable turned out American male!

Making hat headlines this fall are suedes in conventional hat styles as well as sport hats and caps. Dobbs, famous for its fine quality hats currently is featuring the Stroller, a soft, supple, suede leather hat that can be worn equally well center creased or pinch front.

Knox, which has been putting hats on famous hats for over 125 years, offers the Alpineer, a Tyrolean styled suede with corded band. You'll be able to get a conventional cap in suede this fall, but be sure to look for the Robin Hood, a rakish cap with corduroy trim.

Not far behind the suedes in this season's hat interest are the Cloth Hat casuals, in a new variety of fabrics and patterns including Peebles of Scotland woolens and luxurious Viyella.

Plush Tyrolean velours will be prominent on this winter's scene. The ornaments are more decorative, the brush feathers gayer and the pins more imaginatively designed than in former years.

What the "little black dress and pearls" are to the well dressed women's wardrobe — Cavanagh's Downturn is to the well dressed man. Fashioned by this well known of all hatters, the Downtown is just about the indispensable hat. Cavanaugh offers the Downtown in a limitless range of crown proportions and brim dimensions.

Despite the heavy accent on casuals this year, quality and styling mark this fall's crop of hats. Dobbs features a group of Golden Coach hats, a deluxe line distinguished by the miniature Golden Coach jeweler's pin ornament in each hat. The craftsmanship and meticulous styling of these Golden Coach hats make them a connoisseur's delight.

Leading this fall's Knox hat line is Stadium Club, designed with the young man in mind. A trimly proportioned brim with binding to match the band and a new "tear drop" telescope crown make this style a natural for the rugged young individualist.

The hat fashion story for this fall and winter is perhaps best summed up by Charles H. Salesky, energetic young president of Hat Corporation of America, the world's largest hat manufacturer, who has done much to revitalize and modernize hat styling: "Conformity and organization are more and more a part of man's business world today. Therefore, a man in his leisure hours strives to be an individual and wants to dress as an individual. To keep pace with this trend, hats must be designed with the individual's desires in mind. This we attempt to do with more styles, more colors, more finishes, more innovations . . . enough to please every man's taste."

Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers has won the National League earned run title the last two years.

Give her roses that bloom on this Rose Noire print slip. It has fitted bodice held by adjustable straps of fabric-lined Val. Bodice and hemline are outlined in white imported Val beaded with black satin ribbon which rises into a fake slash.

CANADA PLANS ANTISMOKING DRIVE ON YOUTH

OTTAWA (AP) — A national antismoking campaign, spearheaded by the federal government, is expected to be launched soon.

The main target will be children and teen-agers — to warn them of health dangers of smoking before they take their first puff on a cigarette.

The first step toward a publicity and educational drive was taken Monday at the opening session of a two-day national conference on smoking and health, sponsored by the federal government and attended by representatives of provincial governments, doctors, cancer specialists, tobacco growers cigarette manufacturers and others.

The federal government and eight of the 10 provinces agreed that there is a proven relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

The two provinces that didn't go along with this conclusion were Quebec and Nova Scotia Quebec was not represented by government officials. Nova Scotia said there seemed to be a relationship between smoking and lung cancer but thought that it had not been proved conclusively.

Nova Scotia still is expected to participate in any federal-provincial program aimed at persuading youngsters to steer clear of the nicotine habit.

Health Minister Judy Lamarsh, a nonsmoker, since she took over the federal portfolio, told reporters that the decision to recognize the dangers of cigarette smoking was taken over the protests of the tobacco industry.

As the delegates pondered the cigarette-cancer problem, some smoked, including a few who agreed with the view that the habit was harmful.

"We supplied ashtrays," Miss Lamarsh admitted.

NEW OUTBOARD MOTOR IS AIM OF FISHERMAN

To ardent fisherman the next angling outing is always just around the corner — even in the midst of winter. If Dad likes fishing, an outboard motor represents an ideal Christmas present. Just watch him begin planning his first early spring fishing trip.

When shopping for an outboard motor, several factors should be considered McCulloch Corporation the outboard motor manufacturer, offers tips to Mom and the children on how to make the proper choice.

If you dont already know, a bit of sleuthing will turn up Dad's favorite lake and the type of fifshing he prefers — trolling, exploring the weedy areas, drift and still fishing or surface plugging.

The outdoor motors most frequently used for fishing include those with horsepower ratings of 3½, 7½, 9½, and 14. The particular one for Dad depends on several factors.

If he likes to troll select a motor that will idle for long period of time and perform well at show speeds.

If he fishes in a large lake, a 14-horsepower outboard motor would be a good choice With it, he can cover long distances in a short time and have more fishing hours.

Many fisherman seek out weedy areas for the bigger fish. Weeds used to play havoc with standard outboard motors, but now special weedless versions are available, specially designed to shear smoothly through such patches.

An important point to consider is weight. Dad will appreciate an outboard motor which he can carry easily to and from his car and one which can be stowed compactly in the trunk with the rest of his gear.

Some special features will also be appreciated. For example, almost all McCulloch outboard motors incoporate an automatic bailing system at no extra cost. This keeps the boat comfortable and dry all day long.

Many outboard motors feature a full gear shift, allowing Dad to shift into forward, neutral or reserve for maneuvering in small coves and close areas.

Outdoor motors, much like automobiles, are constantly being improved. A new feature may be just the thing that will appeal to Dad.

For specific advice, McCulloch Coroportion suggests you talk with your nearest marine products dealer about the right outboard motor for Dad.

A lovely holiday hostess knows that an attractive table plays an important part in the festivities. Here, figurines serve as the centerpiece theme with candlesticks in two different sizes offering an interesting effect. For the flower holder, a silver compote; fine china in red and green motif; sterling silver place settings; a silver bowl; fine "mist tone" crystal—all adding up to beautiful entertaining.

Cloisters Museum Secures 14th Century Shrine From Medieval Queen's Chapel

By MILES A. SMITH
AP Arts Editor

An extremely rare little masterpiece of the medieval goldsmith's art, fit for a queen, has been added to the collections of The Cloisters. And it is probable that a queen knelt before it many times.

Its formal descriptions is "Reliquary shrine. French (Paris) about 1340-1350. Silver-gilt and enamel. Dimensions when closed: height 10 inches, length 7⅞ inches, depth 3⅜ inches."

In medieval days, kings and dukes had private chapels in their castles, and said their prayers before altarpieces that were finely wrought by the best artists and artisans of the time.

CURATOR'S COMMENT

Margaret B. Freeman, curator of The Cloisters, a branch of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, describes this one as "probably the most glorious little private altarpiece of silver-gilt and enamel to have survived to our time.

"Only three others are known to exist: one is in the Poldi-Pezzoli Museum in Milan, one in the cathedral treasury of Seville, and the third in the Pierpont Morgan Library in New York."

And pridefully she adds, "Ours is the largest and most elaborate of the group and the most resplendent."

GOTHIC ARCHES

When the little shrine is closed, it has an architectural appearance, with its pointed Gothic arches. When the wings are opened, four figures are disclosed —the Virgin and Child, flanked by two angels holding tiny reliquary boxes. The boxes contain sacred relics.

The folding wings, decorated front and back, consist of 36 little plaques displaying religious scenes.

The whole piece is done in silver-gilt (a golden surface on a silver body) and a type of translucent enamelling invented at the close of the 13th Century, called "basse-taille." The makers would engrave figures in low relief on the metal surface. Then they would grind up glass of different colors, applying these coloring agents to the surface, and fire them in a furnace. The process produced a glowing, gem-like quality.

WAS IN HUNGARY

Tradition and scholarship indicate this shrine was in Hungary for many centuries, and probably belonged to Elizabeth I of Hungary, one of the greatest of the medieval queens.

She lived in a colorful but rugged age. Born about 1300, she reigned over a gay court, but in 1329 a disgruntled nobleman tried to assassinate her husband and children. She lost the four fingers of her right hand in that melee.

Apparently the incident was sobering. A few years later she founded a convent. Through her long life—she died in 1380—she gave it much of her wealth, and for a long time the convent possessed a small altarpiece which is believed to be this one.

Surviving household inventories show that medieval rulers often had thousands of pieces of jewelry and objects made of precious metals. But few of them have survived to this day.

Why? Because they were always melting them down to finance a new war.

1947 Law Lists Line To Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is the top order of succession to the presidency as established by law in 1947:

The vice president, a post now vacant with the elevation of Lyndon B. Johnson to the presidency.

The speaker of the House of Representatives, now Democrat John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

The president pro tempore of the Senate, now Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona.

The secretary of state — Dean Rusk of New York.

The secretary of the treasury —Douglas Dillon of New Jersey.

Give Him Luggage

If the man at the top of your gift list is a problem, pack up your troubles in a new leather bag and he'll smile, smile, smile on Christmas morning.

Practical and elegant leather luggage is a sure-fire man-pleasing gift this Yule season. The odds are he'll take a business trip, a long weekend or a full vacation this winter and need spacious, durable and lightweight leather bags.

With a great variety in size and style available, masculine leather luggage can be found to fit most any purse. In the luxury class, there are matched sets of soil-and scratch resistant smooth leather bags which include an overnighter, a two-suiter and a 26-inch case. You can add other matched pieces like a club bag — which packs at the top — as the need or occasion arises.

If his job calls for short trips to distant points, you'd be wise to select a leather "carryon," a compact bag designed to fit under the seat of a plane or tuck into the trunk of a compact car.

One practical new piece called a "shuttle bag" is a soft-styled combination of an overnight bag in the middle with two side pouches for papers and flat articles.

Modern flyway leather cases add almost nothing to the weight of his clothes — an asset at the airlines weighing-in counter. And with the shortage of porters at train stations and airports, he'll bless your thoughtfulness when he lifts the balanced weight of a modern lightweight leather case.

At his destination a bright, elegant leather bag will underscore a successful appearance. New developments in leather manufacture keep modern leather bags free of stains and scratches, and scar-resistant longer. A damp sponge or even a paper towel will restore his leather case to brand new freshness.

An attache case in suntan, saddle or black leather is a smart traveling companion for any man. There are dozens of different styles to fit his needs. Many have a side compartment for a clean shirt or an accordion file for papers. The busy executive who works as he runs will find an attache case flipped on its side makes a satisfactory portable desk on plane or train.

Dad's favorite gift could well be this trim-lined reclining chair that's cushioned in buoyant foam rubber. A simple "lean back" movement adjusts the varied positions and a hidden foot rest rises into position as the back tilts down. The chair above is upholstered in sturdy vinyl.

Automatic Range Is Wife's Desire

Harried homemakers need all the help they can get during the holiday season. One way a thoughtful husband can lend a hand without lifting a finger is by presenting his wife with a new automatic electric range just before Christmas.

With its automatic timing and accurate heat controls, a new electric range will save her from constant pot-watching and those tiresome treks to the kitchen to make sure everything's all right. It'll also assure her of consistently good results.

Christmas dinner cooked in a new electric range with two ovens will be just as lavish and succulent as Grandma's used to, but Mother will have far more time to spend with the family instead of in a steaming kitchen.

Those double ovens will be especially handy during the weeks before the holidays — for making pies, cookies and cakes to give as Christmas presents. Baking them in big batches in two automatically controlled ovens saves hours of kitchen time.

And it's no trick to make Christmas candy on a new electric range with a thermostatically controlled surface element. It gives exactly the right heat — a must in candy making.

Cleaning up after a big cooking spree will be easy, too, since the new electric ranges stay cleaner during cooking and are designed to be easy to clean.

Very merry at Christmas is the homemaker who receives a new electric dishwasher. When Christmas dinner's over, all her best china and glassware disappear into the dishwasher to come out sparkling.

BOY PREFERENCES

Contrary to popular belief, tene-age boys are not a special breed . . . they have individual preferences, just like grown-ups!! Most teens are sports conscious though, and would be delighted with a pair of tickets to a favorite sports event.

Retired Teachers Learn New Skills, Attend Forums

By MERRILL SWEDLUND

GREENWOOD, Ind (AP) — The pioneers in Indiana's new village for retired teachers are showing no signs of fading away — they're going to school again.

Although the population is still less than half the 200 eventually planned the place is already abuzz with lectures, forums and classes in ceramics, handcraft, weaving and painting.

The big H-shaped layout of 192 apartments, mostly two stories high, is one of the few communities built strictly for former teachers. One of comparable size at Ojai, Calif., is a cottage layout

Teachers themselves started planning the village in 1957 through Indiana Retired Teachers Association and its parent body, the Indiana State Teachers Association. Officers of the two groups are in charge of the establishment.

OUTSIDE INDIANAPOLIS

The 47-acre site borders on farm fields at the edge of the Indianapolis metropolitan area, with 60 buses a day going by on u.s. 31 on the 15-mile trip to the city. The well-filled carports show, though, that many of the teachers still like to drive their own cars.

Most of the teachers started payments on their lifetime leases on an apartment before they retired. The prices run from $7,000 for an efficiency apartment to $18,000 for a suite with living room, two bedrooms and two baths. They must be at least 62 years old to move in, and the lease must be paid in full by then.

The 73 residents in the home this summer range in age from 62 to 92, averaging 73.4

Construction is still incomplete, but 150 apartments are under lease at some stage.

The teachers pay $250 a month for meals in the central dining room, and for laundry and medical care. The amount just about equals the average pension of a retiring Indiana teacher, not counting Social Security benefits.

The $5 million layout was financed with a 40-year FHA loan. The lifetime lease rates represent one-third of the cost, based on an estimated 13-year life expectancy for the residents.

ACTIVITIES STARTED

The teachers began moving in last November and they lost no time getting activities going.

They brough: their own furniture and some found room for a piano or organ in their apartments. They pooled their books to stock the library off the lobby.

Some of the nine men — a bit outnumbered — set up their own woodworking shop.

Shuffleboard courts were laid out, indoors and out. Croquet wickets sprouted on the lawn, and bridge tournaments flourished in the colorfully decorated lobby and lounges, scattered through the building.

Lecturers sometimes come in two or three times a week, and travelers drop by to show their picture slides.

"Nobody complains about having nothing to do," said Dr. Sumner L. Martin, the 75-year-old superintendent.

Miss Ruth Lucas missed the library she had retired from in Washington High School in East Chicago, so she volunteered for the chief librarian's job.

"I didn't come here to just sit," said Mrs Violet Huston, a former Indianapolis elementary school teacher, heading for a stint as helper in the library.

"I love it," said Miss Blanche Wellons, former English teacher in Bloomington and Indiana University. "There are stimulating people for good company, and the privacy of your own apartment when you want it. And we're not regimented here the way we were in school."

She said she has trouble finding time to finish the letters she starts writing to relatives.

GREEN THUMBS

In the spring, Bernie Stewart, a former high school principal in Madison and Seymour, Ind., was kept busy digging up small areas for gardeners. He feels some proprietary interest because he invested some of the money used to buy the land for the village site

With 10 religious denominations represented in the home, somebody's minister and choir are usually on hand for Sunday afternoon vespers in the lobby.

In the colorful dining hall, birthday parties are held every month.

One of the unfinished areas is a layout of 26 rooms which could provide permanent quarters for chronically ill. So far, ailments and injuries have required only one room or two at a time in the infirmary section on the second floor.

Only ambulatory residents are admitted, but if they become incapacitated after making their down payment they will still be accepted.

Leases can be cancelled within the first three months, but Dr. Martin said there have been few departures.

Top gift for him—It's the newest on the hat scene, a genuine sueded leather hat with self band and all-over stitched brim. It's a man's first choice for casual affairs.

Bobby Richardson led the Yankees in stolen bases last season with 15. He was caught twice.

Babe Dye, who played nine seasons in the National Hockey League, scored 202 goals in 253 games. He played with Toronto, Chicago and the defunct New York Americans.

Christmas Gift Edition

Wide Choice In Jewelry Helps Solve Gift Problem

WIDE CHOICE IN JEWELRY .Even if your budget doesn't stretch quite far enough to put diamonds in every stocking you plan to fill this Christmas, you shouldn't overlook your jeweler as one of Santa's best assistants.

Watchbands for people who already own fine watches are expected to be popular gift items at around $10.

Cultured pearls at $20 to $35 will probably lead the popularity parade in gifts for teen-age girls. Prices for grown-up styles will be slightly higher. Rings set with rubies, hematite or onyx are expected to be big items for men at $20 to $30.

The jewelry store shopper will find stores less crowded than others even at Christmas. Merchandise isn't "picked over," employes are less harried, and there are fewer temporary helpers behind the counters. Style-color-size selections are good, too and the early shopper can usually get special orders from manufacturers if he wants them.

Here are a few other ideas that may help you fill Santa's sack with quality jewelry gifts this season: AM-FM transistorized radios; bronzed baby shoes or barometers; candelabra, cameras, cameos or cuckoo clocks; dinnerware or desk sets; electronic watches or engraving on almost any kind of jewelry. Also there are fraternity pins, good luck pieces and hors d'oeuvre trays including new musical types.

Or you can get identification bracelets, irons, ivory items, ice buckets and Indian jewelry; jade or jeweled jam jars; knives, key-rings, knick-knacks and knife sharpeners; lockets, lamps, luggage and other leather items; military rings, mugs, memory books and motion picture equipment.

Perhaps you are looking for novelties or special watches for nuns or nurses; opera glasses; pens, pencils, pins or portable phonograph (including stereophonic models) and radios.

Quartz, rosaries, skin divers' and other types of sports timers and stop watches; as well as trays, telescopes, thermometers, typewriters and tape recorders, including transistorized types so tiny they can be tucked into a brief case are some other suggestions.

Still more possibilities include utrasonic cleaning of precious jewelry; vacuum bottles; or weather forecasters, woodenware and wall clocks of all sorts are among other possibilities. And, there are many more, of course.

ADVICE NEEDED TO BUY GEMS

Are you planning to give any diamonds this Christmas? If so, you'll want the best possible "buy."

Unless you're an expert on precious stones, your best place for the best buy in diamonds is your family jeweler's, or any reputable jeweler's. A jeweler's knowledge of gems and his sound advice will assure that you get the best diamonds for your dollars.

Diamonds are highly individual, and so are their prices. Carat weight (size), color, clarity and cut go together to determine the price of a diamond, and each stone has a different combination of these Four-Cs.

Look at as many diamonds as possible, and ask your jeweler to point out the Four-Cs of each. Tell him how much money you want to spend, and he'll show you the different Four-C combinations — in diamonds — that you can buy for that amount Carat weight is the standard measure of size in diamonds.. A carat is so light that it takes 142 carats to make an ounce. It is divided into 100 points, like cents in a dollar. When you see .47 on a tag that means the diamond is three points under half a carat.

But remember that carats measure weight and not area. Diamonds of different shapes may have the same carat weight but appear to be of different sizes because of their different areas.

Color, the second "C" affects price, too. The finest color in diamonds is no color — crystal clear. Any tinge of yellow or brown lowers the price even though it may not affect the beauty of the stone.

Diamonds of strong color such as red, green, brown, pink and even lavender are higher priced than "white" diamonds because of their rarity.

A diamond is labeled "blue-white" only if it shows no traces of color other than blue. It is incorrect to use the term "blue-white" to describe a diamond which is actually white or tinged with other color.

Clarity refers to freedom from flaws or imperfections; tiny "bubbles" or carbon spots which lower the price of the diamond, but they may not detract from the gem's beauty if they are too small to be seen by the naked eye.

What is a flawless diamond? One which shows no flaws when studied under a glass that magnifies ten times.

Cut has two meanings; it refers to the shape of the stone and also to the skill which with the tiny facets (planes) were ground on to the diamond for the maximum sparkle. If angles between the facets are not accurately cut, the diamond will not handle light properly so that it produces a brilliant blaze of light.

Diamonds for engagement rings come in four basic shapes and two fancy shapes.

A round diamond, often called a brilliant-cut, is popular as a solitaire (single stone) ring.

An emerald-cut has straight sides and comes in oblong or square contours.

The pear-shape is wide at one end and tapers to a point at the other.

A marquise resembles a boat with a point on either end.

Heart-shape and oval diamonds are fancy cuts often set as center stones in engagement rings.

Baguettes are small diamonds in rectangular or tapered shapes and are generally set as side stones in rings holding large center diamonds.

A white Christmas can mean pearls, set in a five-petalled flower pin, gold filled, with a green onyx center. The cultured pearl earrings are dsigned to match. This is a set that's shaped and colored to be worn for many years to come by a woman with real fashion feeling.

For festive days, when the weather is frosty, this handsome all-weather coat can be worn with its 100 per cent zip-in wool lining. The all-wool worsted gabardine shell is dependably water-repellent.

Girl's Best Friend Still Diamonds For Christmas

Women have an affinity for diamond jewelry, especially at Christmas. Of all the jewelry forms, pins are the most practical and "safe" gift choices because they are adaptable to most apparel.

The classic gold pin lavished with a diamond spark keeps company with all ages; on the wool suit of a college girl, on her mother's velvet cocktail hat, or on grandmother's silky holiday dress.

Best-liked designs for pins are nature forms — leaves, flowers, birds and even butterflies. Gold leaf pins with engraved veins emerging from diamond-tipped stems look freshly fallen. Half blown buds and floral sprays come in realistic or stylized versions. Solitary sunburst pins are studies in contrast, with alternating petals of polished and Florentine-finished gold.

Free-form and abstract pin designs, dramatized with diamonds, are reminiscent of famous sculptures and paintings. Earrings come in designs to match pins to complete the jeweled ensemble.

"Occasional" rings for right-hand wear are true high-fashion gifts. Domes of polished gold are punctuated with starry diamonds; strands of 14-karat gold are twisted into flower silhouettes and spirals which seem to soar off the finger.

What looks like a mound of silver branches is a ring design of platinum leaves embracing a bunch of diamond and creamy pearl berries. Criss-crossing leaves at the top of a ring literally "grow" around a diamond-set vine which encircles the finger.

Pendants continue to be popular, especially the single diamond-droplet first made famous by television personalities. There are three dimensional flowers, four-leaf clovers, and shimmering with good-luck diamonds, for wear on delicate necklace chains.

Victorian-type lockets of glistening gold are enjoying a revival. Oval, round and heart-shape lockets have a deep-set center diamond on the cover or are engraved with forget-me-nots.

Necklace clasps are an unusual fashion jewel gift. For the woman who wears a favorite necklace, there are clusters of pearls and diamonds nestled on the topside of a clasp in several designs. Not only is the jeweled clasp practical, it's beautiful and meant to be worn in the center front hollow of the neck.

Jeweled clasps accommodate anywhere from one to five strands of beads in a necklace. Before selecting a gift necklace clasp, it's imperative to know how many strands of beads there are in a woman's favorite necklace. After the holidays, the clasp and necklace can be taken to the jeweler for the changing of the old for the new jeweled clasp.

Watches, a time-honored gift, are tailored and dressy to keep tabs on time very fashionably. Watch bracelets, of flexible gold mesh or rigid wristbands, offer variety in widths.

Oval, square, pear-shape and round "faces" are framed with the tiniest of diamonds; numbers are set with gems. Elaborate watchface covers hide the time of day until they are flipped with the touch of a finger.

Enameled and gold lapel watches haloed with diamonds are suspended from bowknot or solid gold bar pins; this timepiece revival recalls when it was fashionable to wear watches on lapels.

To prepare loin veal chops for stuffing, place the chops on a cutting board. With a sharp knife split in half to the bone to create a "pocket" to hold the stuffing. After the chops are stuffed, toothpicks can be used to hold ends together.

Let Children Help With Preparations

An important part of the fun of Christmas is in preparing for it and since Christmas is for children, you'll want your youngsters to participate as much as possible in all the activities that the Yule season brings. Not only will it be an excellent opportunity for them to gain a sense of responsibility and to express themselves creatively, it will also afford your family many hours of being together and getting to know each other better.

She speaks seven languages—very talented doll! Charmin Chatty, at right, says 216 phrases in six foreign languages, as well as English. An inconspicuous record slot in the left side permits easy changing of the records which allow this talking doll to speak at the pull of a ring.

Give a doll a girl! What else could you give the doll Tammy than a real little girl—because Tammy has everything. She has a mom, dad, little sister Pepper, and brother Ted. She has lots of clothes and a beautiful room of her own with to-scale furniture and accessories.

DOLLS MIMIC REAL CHILDREN

The world of dolls abounds with astonishing new talents, all keyed to making it more difficult than ever to differentiate dolls from real children.

Star performers this Yuletide are the new contingent of baby dolls whose behavior almost exactly reproduces the muscular virtuosity of infants and toddlers and most of the human babies' repertoire of sound effects as well.

The muscular activity of the baby is reproduced with fascinating realism by a new infant doll prototype. When this accomplished cherub sucks on her bottle she squirms and wriggles in a manner modelled exactly after real baby movements. There's a doll that laughs when tickled and another that cries when spanked.

A real surprise for even experienced connoisseurs of the modern playroom phenomenon — the doll conversationalist — is a new pram, wired so that when the doll mother pulls a cord the doll in the pram starts chattering without being touched at all.

Another addition to new doll accomplishments in the vocal area is the inclusion of foreign languages in the doll conversational repertoire. One newcomer doll's accessories include records in six languages besides English and a wardrobe suited to travel in foreign lands, as well as more mundane social occasions at home.

The family concept has gained ground in the world of dolls this Yule season. There are more mama and papa dolls and teenage male dolls are included in several family sets.

The teen dolls have highly realistic accessories including telephones, hi-fi sets, and sports outfits. The sportive look currently favored in adult fashions is echoed in the fashion doll world, too.

Bulky knit sweaters and stretch pants for example, are "in" and so are boots. The dressed doll will have at-home costumes, long formal evening dresses and even a collection of wigs.

A variety of character dolls add a touch of fantasy in intriguing contrast to the detailed realism of the dolls modelled after members of the average family.

Two cups of seasoned mashed potatoes are enough to stuff six to eight frankfurters. Slit the franks in half lengthwise but not all the way through, then spread open and stuff with the potato. Bake in a hot oven or broil until franks are hot through and potatoes browned.

Toys Should Be Selected To Suit Ability Of Child

Who will use the toys? This question needs careful thought, if Santa's assistants are going to rate good marks for efficiency. Most of the errors in toy buying result from inattention to this basic point.

This advice comes from Dr. Mary Moffit of the Toy Guidance Council Educator Advisory Committee who notes that most inappropriate toy selections are made by harried shoppers who leave the procurement of gifts for the children on their lists to the last minute.

Playthings are vital tools of childhood — the tools which help youngsters to learn by doing, Dr. Moffit noted. The value of well chosen toys as basic aids to child development is so tremendous that the selection of playthings should merit priority on the busiest shopper's list of activities

The color and movement of many toys is enchanting to adults,. Dr. Moffit notes. This is natural and grownups would be happier if they relaxed more by playing with toys. But this yearning for amusement should not be allowed to conflict with the very real need of children to have toys which are suited to their state of development.

No assistant Santa should be reticent about asking for information about the children on the gift list, Dr. Moffit states. Parents and even teachers can provide very helpful clues to the kind of toys which will fit special interests of individual children.

Safety is a most important rule of toy selection, Dr. Moffit notes, and here, the key is the choice of toy gifts that especially fit the age. The hobby kit that will be fine for a school age youngster will be dangerous in the hands of a kindergartner.

Most care, of course, should be exercised in the choice of toys for the baby. Since everything is likely to go mouthward, it is important to pick playthings which are safe to suck and which have no loose parts which might be swallowed. It is important, too, to remember that toys for baby should be light weight to avoid strain on developing muscles.

Babies are endeavoring to develop their sense of touch, so toys of different textures will be helpful. Musical toys help the cherub to develop his sense of hearing. Doting relatives will be wise to give careful attention to labels and instructions on boxes when picking toys for babies and toddlers as a double check on safety factors.

It is considerate to give thought to where a child lives too. If he has the run of a back yard play space, a garage or a basement playroom, then large scale toys and games will be appropriate gifts. If he lives in a small apartment, space problems will have to be weighed to determine a toy's utility.

When a large family must be remembered, it may be helpful to give playthings which can be used by different age groups together.

Holiday guests coming? A quick and economical way to redo the guest bedroom is with sheets. Here sheets in solids, stripes and polka dots combine for a smart and serene look. The use of the hem borders of sheets and the cotton fringe add the professional finish.

Pleasing to every woman is a gift of sheer, skin-smooth fitting hosiery. The support hose shown above are made of American Enka nylon and Spandex, for extra beauty.

NEW GAME PACK VARIED TO MEET CHILD'S NEEDS

Santa's bountiful new game pack is setting an all time record for variety, with ingenious competitions designed to intrigue everyone from toddlers to teens and to parents.

In the area of games modelled from real life situations, is Whirligig which scales down that classic favorite — musical chairs — to table size.

Another novelty with small fry appeal is Lolli Plop, which involved marble mazes shaped like all day suckers. Object of play is to shake down the marbles into the stick of the lollies; here kindergartners and grownups can compete on equal terms.

A Four Alarm game adds a new touch of realism to the role of fireman; unfavorable moves result in the whole neighborhood burning down.

Among the significant trends this season is the burgeoning of a whole crop of games keyed to play with words. Typical of these modern day versions of the gay nineties mode for verbal charades is The Match Games where the winner is the one who anticpates best what other players will say.

Play might focus, for example, on naming the parts of a horse — withers, tail and so on. Players whose word choices match are the ones who score.

A novel angle on word play is provided by Chit Chat, Hugh Downs' Game of Conversation, which has the avowed purpose of getting players into fast moving repartee. A moderator's bell is provided to curb too heated argument.

You Don't Say is another newcomer in the word game ranks, with play focused on filling in a missing word at the ends of sentences. There's a new educational version of Password for school children.

The vogue for games keyed to military maneuvers continues to gain strength. Newest form of table combat is a replay of World War I air conflicts called Dogfight. Playing pieces are scale models of famous Fokkers and other early fighting plane models. Pieces are elevated to achieve maximum realism and each game is accompanied by an American Heritage history of the war in outline form.

Other battle games that base results on decision making include Stratego, keyed to the Napoleonic era, and Battlecry based on the Civil War.

Another novelty this Christmas is the first game to reproduce the action of a Broadway play. It is "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" and object of play is to rise from the role of window washer to chairman of the board.

Some quiz game classics appear with new questions year after year. Oldest is Go To The Head Of The Class, 25th year, now bowing in an 11th edition of new queries; Concentration is out in a fifth edition with 30 feet of new rebus puzzles that are produced automatically by a rollamatic changer. Old favorites like Candyland and Uncle Wiggily recruit new generations of juvenile enthusiasts year after year.

LURE OF SPORTS

The yearning of the armchair sports fan to replay big league events as exactly as possible is catered to with an ingenious new crop of electric powered games. New is an NFL Electric Football Game which has a magnetized ball which can be picked up as in real play and a kicker-passer device

Comfort for him begins with flexible leather casual slip-ons and house shoes. The shoe on hand has a band of elasticized leather around the top for a snug fit, and neat slim leather soles for a dressy appearance. The suntan deerskin house shoes have cushioned leather insoles.

Christmas Charity Has Long History

The tradition of alms-giving at Christmas began with a legend, as did so many other holiday customs. It was believed at one time that the Christ Child went from door to door during the holiday season, disguised as a beggar, and asking alms, in search of kind and deserving souls.

Since no one knew when or where he might appear, Christians feared to turn beggars from their door lest they unknowingly turn away the Christ Child.

Thus began the custom of charity to the poor at Christmastime; today this charity is still practiced, but not out of fear . . . rather it is done out of love, generosity and thankfulness by those who have been materially blessed.

Lay in a stock of holiday spirits and be set for a festive season of gracious hospitality. Wines and liquors make happy gifts.

Christmas Gift Edition

Comfortable Easy Chair Sure To Please Father

A really comfortable lounge chair is one of the most prized possessions of the senior citizen. And when chosen with forethought and care it makes a Christmas gift a Grandmother or Grandfather will appreciate every day of the year.

Here are a few pointers experts give on selecting a lounge chair for a person past the prime of life:

1. Tell the salesperson the height and weight of the person for whom the chair is intended. Older persons lose the ability to adapt to furniture that is not scaled for their dimensions. The proportions of the chair should permit the user to have adequate support for feet, back and neck without strain.

2. The chair should be styled to be gotten in and out of easily. Low sling loungers or molded plywood shells should be avoided as being too difficult to negotiate. It should be high enough off the ground to be slipped into without a sudden drop. And the seat should be no deeper than 21 or 22 inches. Arms should be high enough and forward enough for good leverage in rising.

3. Cushioning should give the user buoyant support without impeding circulation. Latex foam rubber cushions are recommended by many medical authorities as best suited for this purpose and they are used in many hospitals because they provide the utmost in restful comfort without impeding blood flow. Down and other "sink-in" cushioning material should be avoided.

4. The back should be high enough for comfortable dozing and forward enough at the top for relaxed TV viewing. A small toss cushion to fill in with extra spine support is often a welcome addition to women's lounge chairs.

5. The chair must be stable in weight yet mobile enough to be easily moved for cleaning. A chair with casters that make it roll away at a touch is not too be recommended for the elderly who often lean on furniture when standing or walking.

6. A matching hassock or built-in foot rest is needed for maximum relaxation. A retractable foot rest does not become a stumbling block in a main traffic area and is therefore preferable to an oversize ottoman that sticks out into a room.

Bright idea: Give the family and yourself a color television set for Christmas. It's a gift that keeps on giving for years and now they're priced within most budgets.

A unique gift and the most convenient way to have lovely Christmas stereo music playing for up to 15 hours without human intervention: This revolutionary music-playing system automatically changes up to 20 sound tape cartridges.

TRAFFIC TOLL TAKES CHEER FROM HOLIDAY

Longer hours of darkness, more pedestrian activity, signs sometimes covered by snow, slippery streets and the excitement of shopping can lead to traffic accidents that may take the cheer out of your holiday.

December is filled with pre-Christmas activities that include shopping trips, drives to friends' homes, visiting relatives in other cities and many last-minute errands.

It is the most dangerouf month for motor-vehicle deaths and every year avoidable accidents spoil many holiday celebrations.

With longer hours of darkness and heavier traffic the danger to both drivers and pedestrians is greatly increased. Whenever possible night driving should be avoided and shopping excursions and trips to other cities should take place during the safer daylight hours.

In many parts of the country, bad weather makes streets and highways extremely hazardout during the holiday season. Motorists should try to stay on main highways and turnpikes and avoid back roads that are not equipped with modern warning devices, such as reflective road signs, adequate lighting and highway markings.

Many people driving to other parts of the country, to be with families and friends, encounter weather conditions to which they are unaccustomed. It is always a good idea to check the weather and make sure your automobile is equipped for bad weather driving.

Whether you're driving in town or on the highway, check to see that your vision is not obstructed by a large pile of gifts or luggage that should be in the trunk. These items on the back seat or on the package shelf by the rear window can easily fly forward during a sudden stop, causing serious injury to passengers.

Most important: Always allow yourself enough time to get where you're going. Hurrying from one place to another only adds to the hazards of holiday driving.

Sleigh bells festooned across the front door not only look Christmas-y but even sound it every time the door is opened.

RCA RECORDER TAPES CAROLS FOR GROUP USE

The old custom of Christmas carol sings, so popular in European countries in the Middle Ages, is being revived by music-loving Americans.

And what nicer way to makr the holiday than by gathering a few friends for group singing of the beloved old carols, with eggnog and fruit cake to follow? In olden times people sang to the accompaniment of flutes and fiddles, but today the LP record has become a favored accompaniment.

Recognizing this trend, RCA Victor has introduced a "Victrola" with a "Sing Along" microphone for just such occasions. This is a deluxe portable model for stereo as well as mono, and could be used for other large groups as well as for home use.

Did you know the Christmas carol grew out of old dance tunes? Centuries ago a round dance known as the "chorea," the latin word for "round," or "charalues," the French word for "flutist," was the most popular form of entertainment with the light-hearted people of France, especially on holidays and feast days. Later the "chorea" became popular in England as well and the music was always an important part of the dance.

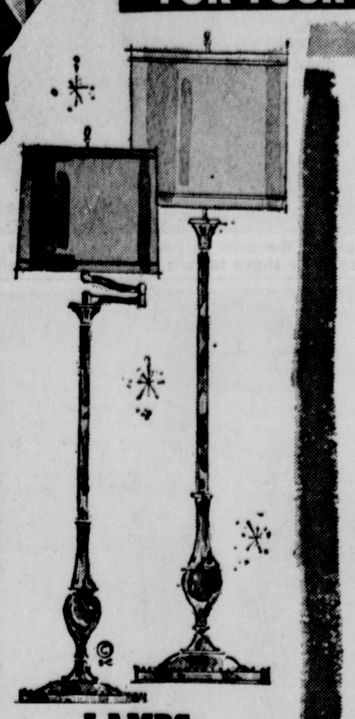

Other forms of dancing and entertainment replaced the round dance but the music gained rather than lost in popularity. Even today French music is still rich in refrains of these old songs, which gradually became a special part of the Christmas observance.

Meanwhile, the French word "charalues" had become the good English word, "carol" and the English had adopted the round dance and the music with it. In England as in France, the round dance was replaced by other forms of dancing but the old tunes remained popular and were adapted to new verses and sung at Christmas time.

Christmas hymns had been sung in the churches of England since the Fourth Century and later the religious play became a featured part of the Yuletide observance. Religious folk songs were interpolated in the plays and songs of wassailing and feasting vied with those about shepherds, angels and the Magi at Christmas.

Translations of Latin songs that had come down from pagan times were put into the vernacular and little by little the Christmas carol as we know it today evolved from these songs.

Contemporary Toys Are Educational, Practical

This year's toyland is fully in step with the fast pace of the contemporary world. Under the Christmas tree, junior will be building a sky scraper with a helicopter landing and monorail facilities. Space play has matured from science fiction to science fact.

Besides a variety of play items keyed to the latest developments in rocketry, a whole new array of science-oriented kits are keyed to study of the earth and atmosphere in up-to-the-minute research terms, reports Mel Freud, president of Toy Guidance Council.

Even the computer age has impact on 1963 toylands. A digital computer that solves problems is being featured for under five dollars to provide basic training for tomorrow's expert in critical path scheduling.

The affluent American home is reproduced in faithful miniature down to a well designed dog house and a power mower. Among the ingenious playroom off-shoots of dad's do-it-yourself hobbies is a kit of miniature power tools geared for purposeful activity by junior and safe against cutting hazards, according to Toy Guidance Council.

A new thrill for homemaking play is a magnetized doll house in which an entire family and pets can be moved around realistically by manipulation of a magnetized wand placed under the floor of the doll house. This will give Junior and his sister a chance to order the family routine at will. There's an automatic can opener and a spin dry washing machine for the well equipped play room kitchen.

A resurgence of interest in military material is evident, too, in the new toy showings, Toy Guidance Council reports. An army engineer's set of heavy gauge steel provides purposeful equipment for building airfields or army encampments and military highways.

And, there's an operating sand hopper. This set includes working models of the latest style in road construction equipment.

New in the military lineup is a cannon that fires only when a command is spoken. New ideas in planes and missiles closely follow the newest equipment of the U.S. armed services.

Toyland abounds in new playroom equipment beamed to interest junior and his sister in basic training for professions or business, Toy Guidance Council notes.

Incentive for the young automotive engineer is provided by an ingenious Cub Set of heavy gauge steel which gives junior the opportunity to custom design a number of smart looking cars by interchanging parts.

There's a station wagon produced by inserting a special roof. Without the roof and doors a racing car emerges. Another switch and junior has a pick up truck ready for service.

The amazing world of plastics has been translated into purposeful playroom operation, too. Extrusion molding, for example, can be carried out purposefully by the junior businessman.

Side by side with highly practical replicas of the latest developments in science and industry is a wide variety of toys keyed to history and fantasy.

Although the hurdy-gurdy has almost disappeared from city streets, there are intriguing new hurdy-gurdy toys. The newest version of this classic music maker encourages the youngsters to compose their own tunes on a music roll by inserting pegs. The roller activates small hammers that tap out notes on colorful metal bars.

A novel addition to toyland's musical toy array is a razz-ma-tazz piano which enables any youngster to play a dozen familiar tunes immediately. Interchangeable music rolls, each with six different songs, are placed in the back of the instrument. A lever in front of the keyboard permits selection of the tunes. Then each time the keyboard is struck, a different note sounds. Continuous action produces a complete tune. Keys are exposed for viewing.

Among the surprises keyed to science is a novel car which demonstrates solar energy. This comes in kit form, planned for easy assembly without glue or soldering. When assembled, the battery powered car can be started, stopped and speed controlled by tracking the beam of an ordinary flashlight on the vehicles built in solar cell.

New in the home equipment sector is a hair dryer that can be used by little girls themselves or their dolls. The dryer, which blows cool air safely, operates on flashlight batteries.

For the juvenile hobbyists there are kits that provide the makings of the Statue of Liberty or the Taj Mahal. A series of ingenious kits makes it easy for the juvenile contingent to produce a whole series of primitive masks, all decorative additions to home decor.

To help every young lady experiment with good grooming techniques there is a new cover girl bar with a plastic face for use as a base for experiments. The face can be wiped clean and made up repeatedly. Cosmetics are nontoxic.

A handsome gift set for the men on your list! It features cologne, after shave lotion and after shave talcum in the attractive gift box.

If she wants mink (and what woman doesn't), give her a coat in the newer easy-going elegant manner. This "walking coat," for example. It's a longer-than-jacket-shorter-than-coat length, with squared off collar, long side vents and calf tie-belt which gently gathers the waistline. Fashioned of Autumn Haze, Emba natural brown mink.

Lifetime gift! This new fountain pan is guaranteed for the life of the registered owner. It has a 14-karat gold inlaid point, lustrous metallic humidor cap, loss-proof clip and comes in five colors.

For travel or to use at home—The toothbrush is operated by transistor-type, long life cadmium batteries that are recharged when not in use. The unit comes in a folding case complete with four brushes.

ALL GIRLS LOVE NEW HANDBAGS

This year Santa digs down deep and comes up with the bag — a handsome leather handbag to warm the heart of any woman on Christmas morning.

Whether it's a tote, satchel, clutch or box, a fashionable leather handbag is always a welcome gift. And in this year of leather, the selection is greater than ever.

Best of all, the new handbags have a rich look, thanks to fresh new colors and a variety of leather tannages — grained, smooth, waxy suede and antiqued among others.

With larger sizes making handbag headlines, a thoughtful gift would be a spacious leather satchel, pouch or box bag with room for all the paraphernalia essential to the modern woman.

Grained, brushed, antiqued and the new waxy leathers are seen most often in this style with fashion touches leaning toward brass hardware, single or double leather straps, and multi-color combinations.

If you would rather your Christmas gift had a dressy touch, in keeping with the festive season, there are trim smooth and suede leather handbags with a slimmer, smaller silhouette.

Highlighted with brushed gold closings, flat little bows or chain handles, these dressy daytime bags are a cinch to be put to immediate use for some special holiday event.

You'll find a full palette of colors from which to choose, with many brown tones and deep greens and reds most prominent. Neutral shades such as taupe and fog grey, and the natural look of waxy and antiqued leather tannages are also popular and sure to please.

For cocktail and evening wear, she'll cherish a pretty clutch or small envelope with a soft wrinkle-free leather lining. These after-dark handbags of smooth, lustre and suede leather are sometimes starkly simple, and may be sparked with a touch of jeweling.

If she thinks you've been extravagant, you can magnanimously point out the lasting qualities of leather, and how easily she can clean smooth, grained, antiqued and waxy leathers with a damp cloth — making your gift a "practical luxury."

Include Safety Rules With Christmas Bike

Nothing brightens a boy's eyes like seeing a bicycle under the Christmas tree. The gleam of bright new paint, the shine of metal spokes and the flash of handle bars are reflected in his eyes.

As a parent you should make sure that the bike that you buy him has all the equipment that he needs — not the flashy accessories that impress the kid next door, but the basic safety equipment required for safe bicycling. He also needs to be told or reminded — about bike riding rules.

One way to do this is to see that the child participates in a national safety program being conducted by the VFW. Their posts throughout the country are conducting this program in conjunction with the National Safety Council. The local VFW posts distributed free reflective tape to some four million youngsters in 1963 for use on their bicycles.

In addition, the VFW is continuing a program to check the brakes, lights, handle bars, and tires of individual bicycles to make sure they are safe. They also check the ability of each youngster to handle his own bike.

Your child can have many hours of safe fun on his bike if he will just remember these basic rules.

Obey traffic laws, signs and signals.

A good bike rider always stays on the right and rides with traffic.

Always ride single file and in a straight line, never zigzag.

Night riding is always dangerous and should be avoided. If the child has to ride at night, for some reason, be sure that the bike is equipped with light, reflector, reflective tape and see that the child wears light-colored clothing.

Conduct periodic safety checks on the bike. Seats should be tight; feet must reach the pedals easily; reflectors should be visible from at least 300 feet away; brakes should stop fast; the chain shouldn't be too tight; worn-out pedals and handle grips should be replaced; handle bars should be in comfortable position; front light should be visible from at least 500 feet away; broken spokes should be replaced and tires should contain the proper amount of air.

Permanent beauty! Here are candles with the age-old charm of wax candles, but without the unpleasant odor, smoke, messy drippings, and safety hazards. These butane fueled candles offer a world of modern advantages and come in five lovely colors.

Tiny, whimsical Christmas trees that you make yourself can do a great deal to dress up your home, during the holidays.

The greatest fun in making these miniature trees is in dreaming up the ideas for them yourself. But, here are a few ideas for trees to get you started thinking in the right direction.

Christmas tree balls in graduated sizes can be stacked one on the other by attaching the balls, with picture hanging wire.

Funnel or cone shapes (tin or paper) ranging from large at the bottom to smallest at the top can be stacked for a smart effect, too

ENGAGEMENTS HAVE ORIGIN AT CHRISTMAS

The brightest star on the Christmas tree is a diamond engagement ring.

Most June brides get engaged at Christmas time. It's such a festive, sentimental season, and also the ideal time for giving diamonds.

In addition, Christmas brides grow more numerous every year, with the holiday season second only to June as the favorite wedding date, so the Christmas diamond is in high demand.

Whether it's a wedding or engagement ring, it's a once-in-a-lifetime gift that must be selected with care and with the aid of a fine jeweler, who can give expert advice on the choice of the perfect diamond.

The diamond solitaire is still the one top choice for an engagement ring, and it need not be a large stone to have brilliance and beauty. New "diamond point" white gold settings are almost as brilliant as the stone itself and can enhance the smallest diamond.

New and beautiful also are engagement and wedding ring combinations, designed to fit together so that the two can give the effect of one striking ring.

The combination of white gold and diamonds is always effective and popular, even more so this year in engagement and wedding rings

Whatever the style, whatever the size, the gift that outshines them all is the Christmas diamond.

Christmas dreams will be lovelier when she sleeps in this gifted shift gown of nylon tricot. It's permanently pleated and caught up with satin binding at neckline and arms. Ombre border at hemline is pastel.

EASY-CARE IS SKI-WEAR MUST

Something in ski wear — that's the guaranteed - to - please Christmas gift for any skiing enthusiast After all, half the fun of skiing is wearing the dramatic fashions designed especially for the snowy slopes.

But up till now stretch pants that looked so sleek when new, lost their shape after a few tumbles in the snow. Worse yet, light colors, though high in fashion, were extremely hard to keep clean.

Thats all over. The latest thing in stretch pants available just in time for Christmas giving, are made of acrylic and nylon fibers that dry in no time — no matter how many spills

And best of all, they can be machine washed and dried automatically, according to the Maytag Home Laundry center. So those light - colored pants are now as practical as they are pretty.

For best results wash for five minutes with regular agitation and cold water However, if they're heavily soiled, better use warm water and gentle washing action.

The wash - and - wear setting on your dryer provides just the right temperature to relax the fibers and minimize wrinkles. Maytag experts recommend steam pressings every four or five launderings to rejuvenate "permanent" creases and pleats.

Stretch pants are so comfortable and smart-looking, they've been adopted by many who have never been near a skilift. And now that they can be washed, they're practical for growing youngsters, too.

You'll rate raves from the ski buff on your Christmas list of you give the latest thing in ski fashions: the Tow coat is 100% nylon; the stretch pants are in Acrilan and nylon. According to Maytag, both can be washed and dried automatically.

Two popular names in the musical world are Steve Allen and the Melodica. Both are shown here. The Melodica has been increasing in popularity with professionals such as Mr. Allen, Jan Garber and Carmen Lombardo, as well as with very young music students. This mouth instrument with its piano-like keyboard belongs in the Christmas stocking along with the harmonica.

Silly shower soap faces are so novel that the youngster who receives them as a Christmas gift may even be led to washing behind the ears! The faces are attached to rope so that they can be hung around neck or faucet.

FEMALES LOVE SOFT SLIPPERS

Give Christmas the soft touch this year with comfortable leather slippers. A thoughtful gift of soft, elegant suede or glove leather slippers will pamper and please every man, woman, and child on your holiday list.

Your choice this winter ranges from soft ankle-hugging leather boots that are suitable for both indoor and outdoor wear to slippers designed chiefly for the path between the refrigerator and the easy chair.

Gift footwear for people who prefer to view the wintry scene from behind a windowpane boast high fashion and a high degree of comfort.

For the girls there are leather slippers or mules in colorful, lavish fashions. Some are beautifully embossed in gold or silver. Others are embroidered in floral designs.

A harlequin slipper is made up of bright leathers in diamond shapes. Its corners turn back and are fastened down with tiny silver bells or gay, gold pins.

The court jester's slipperboot of solf-leather reaches to the ankle where it is gathered in with a band of jewels, fur or a leather thong.

A new idea in womens' slippers is a leather lining in an even brighter shade than the slipper itself, such as geranium lined with turquoise, yellow with citron, and scarlet with bright pink.

Men's easy slippers also come in a variety of styles. These are leather-lined, low-cut opera slippers in glossy smooth leather for wear with an elegant dressing gown.

For the man who prefers casual dress at home, glove leather moccasin slippers are available in a variety of colors and styles. One popular moccasin features a folded back, stitched down tongue.

Another happy Christmas thought is a pair of soft leather travel scuffs that tuck into each other. Wherever he wears them, they'll remind him of hearth and home.

And don't forget the children. Their slippers should be bright in color, high cut (to make it hard to pull them off), and with resilient leather soles and uppers to help support growing muscles.

Brightly colored leathers and leather linings attract youngsters and make them want to wear their slippers — not trot about barefoot on drafty floors.

SLICK BOWS ADD PACKAGE ZEST

Two things always happen in the weeks before Christmas. 1) You promise faithfully to do your holiday shopping earlier than last year, to avoid last-minute buying and giftwrapping 2) One of the children gets bedded down with the virus or flu

While the two don't seem related, they are, according to Margaret Drummond, giftwrap stylist for the Kaycrest Division of The Papercraft Corporation.

"Instead of just reading comic books, coloring or watching television while ill, a child can be given an enjoyable and creative crafts experience. Showing him or her how to make beautiful fluffy bows will be fun . . . and will help you when Christmas comes.

"Like many other simple crafts projects, this one can be learned quickly and easily — even by seven-year-olds," the Papercraft expert asserts from experience.

The child-tested instructions are simple to follow. Demonstrate them once and then supervise the making of one big bow. You'll be surprised how readily the unwillingly confined patient gets the knack of it . . . and enjoys the pretty results.

With only half an hour's concentration a day, a dozen bows can be made easily in a week's time and stockpiled against the holiday giftwrapping rush.

Papercraft's giftwrap creator says, "I guarantee that no loving aunt or doting grandparent will ever notice an imperfection in the gaily decorative bow when told who created it."

The only supplies necessary are a selection of ribbon; LePage's white paste (safe to use in bed because its container is unbreakable); and a pair of scissors with safely blunted edges.

The reason for providing several kinds of colors of ribbon is so your "artiste" can use imagination in creating many attractive combinations

To make a wide, fluffy bow

1) Cut six-inch lengths of ribbon in the colors and styles you and your youngster prefer. As a base for the bow, cut off the round end piece from the ribbon reel.

2) Fold one length of ribbon in half. Paste the tips together to form a loop (To get just the right amount of white paste, make a cardboard spreader about the width of a pencil.)

3) Start first level of bow by pasting loops around rim of cardboard circle. Continue procedure until there is a full circle of ribbon loops radiating out from cardboard.

4) To make the second level, paste a ribbon loop over each space between ribbon loops on the first level A full bow is achieved by adding several levels, in smaller and smaller circles, toward the cardboard's center.

Add a suspicion of curry powder to sour cream and use as a topping for bowls of hot cream of tomato soup.

Christmas Gift Edition

Adult Is Never Too Old To Begin Studying Music

Christmas is an ideal time to start an adult on a musical pastime. Since it is never too late to learn, the gift of a musical instrument can be the beginning of an interesting spare-time activity or the stimulus for a more time-consuming hobby for retirement years.

Music-making provides an outlet for creative abilities, and a musical instrument offers adults direct opportunity for self-expression, whether they are beginners or once studied music.

Judging from the 23,500,000 adults now playing musical instruments in this country, musical interest is reaching an all-time high among the over-30 set.

One reason for the increasing popularity of music-making is the current appeal of easy-to-learn, easy-to-play instruments.

Consider gift possibilities of fretted instruments . . . guitar, banjo, mandolin and ukulele . . . all easily adaptable to beginners' efforts.

Organs, accordions and recorders are becoming favorites among adult musicians. The organ, in particular, is enjoying great popularity as families across the nation make this instrument the center of their musical gatherings, singing along while Mom or Dad accompanies.

Along with ease of learning, these so-called "recreational" instruments have other virtues. Most of them are portable, relatively inexpensive and ideal for vocal accompaniment. Interestingly enough, the strumming of three different chords on a fretted instrument such as the guitar provides all the accompaniment necessary for hundred of songs.

Prices of these instruments range from $4 for a ukulele to $4,000 for an organ. In between these extremes of course, there is a wide range of prices for good-quality instruments . . . and for all family budgets: A ukulele costs from $4 to $50; portable chord organ from $75 to $300; 12-bass accordions from $100 to $150; recorders from $5 to $80; that folk-music favorite, the guitar, $20 to $800.

New, lower-priced console organs now on the market make it possible for more people to own these major instruments. The price range is now $495 to $4,000.

Time for him to receive a new watch and here's one that's up to the minute in styling. The gold design of the shield-shaped case contrasts smartly with the simple dial treatment. 17 jewel movement.

HOUSE PLANTS NEED SPECIAL WINTER CARE

The millions of house plants that will be sent and received this Christmas will live longer, healthier lives if a few simple tips on house plant care are observed.

Make sure gift plants are professionally grown and kept in porous red clay flower pots. Most top growers provide your local florists with holiday plants in clay containers to insure quality plants. Clay pots dissipate excess water and leach out harmful salts in the soil.

Don't over-water. Horticultural experts say that over-watering is a leading reason for premature fading of holiday gift plants. One simple rule of green thumb gardening is to give your Christmas plant the "thumb" test." Simply touch the top soil of the plant and if it's dry water it.

Use warm water. The more delicate Christmas plants react poorly to the shock of cold water.

Over-heating is a hazard. Keep plants away from radiators and other heat sources. Porous clay containers will help your gift plants tolerate the heat by keeping root structures 10 to 15 degrees cooler than nonporous containers.

Professional care instructions are important. Ask your florist for detailed watering and lighting instructions. When you give a holiday plant sent along a personalized note suggesting the proper care for each type of Christmas plant.

The popular poinsettia, for instance, will probably have to be watered from the surface, since they're usually dedecked with foil paper and ribbons. If your plant is clay-potted excess moisture will be absorbed through the porous walls of the clay container.

This is especially important in caring for poinsettias as they like to be kept on the dry side and drainage must be adequate. These brilliant Christmas plants thrive on warmth and humidity and should be kept away from extremes of temperature — cold drafts, hot radiators, etc.

Azaleas too, are always appropriate for Christmas giving. They will blossom longer if kept out of direct sunlight in a cool room and away from radiators and other direct heat.

A bright and festive Christmas plant, whether a kalanchoe or a Jerusalem cherry, a compact chrysanthemum or begonia, an azalea or traditional poinsettia, will make a lasting gift or a welcomed addition to your own home, if you have a little thought for its care.

If money's no object, this all-new entertainment center makes an ideal Christmas gift. Among its many features is a Video-tape recorder plus camera that permits taking and showing "instant home movies." It's a unit that's sheer luxury.

TOYS REFLECT SPACE WORLD

For years, toys used to be miniatures of things used in the adult world. This Christmas, many are scaled-down versions of the world of tomorrow.

On a stroll through toyland for example, you'll see the "Wing Thing." This bat-like flying device has a 52 inch wingspread and is 36 inches long. Children can fly it like a kite, or under power from its small gasoline engine. It climbs to about 300 feet, and when the engine runs out of fuel, it continues to swoop and soar before returning gently to earth.

The "Wing Thing" is actually the smaller version of something called a flexwing, which will help return our astronauts from outer space in Project Gemini. Significantly, the toy version is available for children before the astronauts have the real thing.

If your imagination has been captured by predictions of automated highway systems, take a look at Autorama. Little cars travel on complex highway systems with turn-offs and cloverleafs — all by remote control.

And there's even a remote "Fly Over Chicane." The little cars race up a ramp, hurtle off into space, change lanes in mid-air, land safely on the other side, and keep on going.

Even that old standby the Erector set has turned toward the future in 1963. Redesigned for the first time in 50 years, the perennial favorite now boasts a motor that can be pre-programmed to perform several different functions in sequence.

The addition of streamlined girders, solid-color panels and plastic domes make it possible for boys to build working models of planetary probes, lunar vehicles and other space exploration devices still on the drawing boards of space engineering firms.

And if science fascinates you, there's a new chemistry set called "Chemistry of the Space Age." It provides for growing plants space-ship style, without soil, using artificial plant nutrients.

It also contains atomic - irradiated bean seeds for would be Jacks - in the - Beanstalks. While the bean plants may never get quite that tall, they will give you a sample of what may develop into whole new varieties of plants.

With these and many more playthings, it's the Spirit of Christmas Future that's making fantasy come true in toyland this year.

Holiday glitter for that very special after-five party. This two-piece dress artfully embroidered with jet beads features A-line skirt topped with V-neck overblouse.

NEW HAIRSTYLE ADDS GLAMOR TO HOLIDAYS

A new hairdo for the festive holidays ahead will add excitement and fun to your party-going. It's always an adventure to try a different hairstyle, and the new ones with their smooth, sleek lines are as smart as they are becoming.

But don't let the simplicity of the new coifs fool you — they do need a permanent for body and control. They need a different kind of permanent, one that gives only body and curves, no curls.

Now, at last, there is an uncurly permanent in a home wave. It's the new Smooth 'n Sleek Toni, given with jumbo size curlers and a waving lotion formulated to go with them. The big curlers add body and bend and curve to the hair but no curl; and the compatible creme waving lotion keeps the permanent from relaxing . . . which means that this uncurly permanent will last. It's not here today and gone tomorrow.

Well, before the shopping rush starts, set aside abouo two hours to give yourself this new wave, in the privacy and comfort of home, at your own convenience.

Just dampen each tress with waving lotion and wind on jumbo curlers. Saturate all curls again when all your hair is up on curlers.

After a short waving period, apply the creamy, ready-mixed neutralizer. Rinse with clear water and remove the curlers. Your hair is ready to be set in a new smooth and sleek hairstyle. A setting tips booklet is also included in the kit.

When your hair is dry, brush in your new coif. For holiday parties, pin a spray of holly or mistletow on the side for a touch of gayety.

For travellers, whether they're going abroad or just to the office: spray cologne in a spillproof, leak-proof, quickly refillable case.

Gala Door Trim Adds Atmosphere

You can make your door into a huge Christmas package by pinning wide strips of red satiny material to all four sides, and drawing them together in a great bow, adding ornaments and holly for color contrast.

Whatever the materials you decide upon for your decorations, make sure they are sturdy and can be fastened securely. If your entrance is unprotected, weatherproof your designs with a coating of clear shellac or use water-resistant materials such as oilcloth.

Records and books are good choices for almost all teens, boy or girl. The important thing is to keep in mind the type of teen you're gifting.

Little Snowflake Story Will Delight Children

The little snowflakes were murmuring excitedly; the icicles were chattering loudly, and the winds were whirling about in agitation In short, Dept. 52 (also known as the White Christmas Weather Supplies) of Santa Claus' Workshop was in a complete uproar. And incredible to tell, it had all been started by an obstinate little snowflake

Clarence was his name. Clarence was a very vain and very stubborn snowflake. Clarence had taken one look at the design a fellow snowflake was wearing to the big snowfall on Christmas Eve and he had insisted that he had to have one just like it. In vain did the snowflakes plead that all their gowns were equally lovely and that he would sparkle and glisten just as prettily as the rest of them. But Clarence simply would not listen.

Now the members of Dept. 52 were arguing among themselves on what course of action to follow. 'After all," said one snowflake, "we can't force him to come with us. Neither can we call off the snowfall. We should just leave him behind." "Yes," blew a wind, "let's leave him behind."

"No, we can't do that," an icicle said sharply. 'Everyone must go. It wouldn't be right to have one missing What would Santa say?" So the argument went.

In the midst of the discussion, an elf named Jingles poked his head into the room "What's going on here?" he asked, eyes daring about gaily and the bells on his cap jingling merrily. They told him about Clarence who was sitting in the middle of the room and not saying a word "Oooh," said the elf. He thought a moment, then beckoned to Clarence to follow him

The snowflakes and icicles and winds were amazed and wondered where Clarence and the elf were going. Actually although Clarence didn't know it, the elf was taking him to Santa's mail room

In this room were thousands of letters from boys and girls all over the world piled in neat stacks marked "HAVE READ" and "HAVEN'T READ." An old, old elf with huge spectacles was reading one of the letters when Clarence and Jingles entered.

"Hello, there, the old elf said. "What can I do for you!" Jingles told him about Clarence's problem and asked if he could show Clarence some of the pictures of the children who write to Santa "Of course," the old elf agreed. He took them over to an old toybox, told them to help themselves, and went back to his work.

In that toybox were thousands of pictures of boys and girls! Clarence was delighted when Jingles took a handful of them and showed him the smiling faces. So this was what little children looked like! "Oh, they're beautiful," he exclaimed. The elf smiled and said, "They don't all look alike, do they? Yet they're all lovely children." Clarence had to agree.

"When you snowflakes fall before these little children," the elf continued, "you'll hear them exclaim over your beauty too." Clarence was silent. Finally he said, "I guess it doesn't really matter if I don't look exactly like another snowflake does it?" No it doesn't, Clarence. The children will enjoy you just as much as they enjoy the other snowflakes. And that is all that matters."

Clarence didn't say anything to the others when he returned, but on Christmas Eve, when all the snowflakes fall, you can be sure that Clarence will be there, joining in with all the other snow flakes to make a beautiful White Christmas for little boys and girls.

Hospitality during the holidays begins with a festive, gracious table setting. As the focal point, nothing can surpass the elegance of heavy silverplate pieces such as the punch bowl set shown here.

Many great works have been composed by the masters as well as contemporary composers in honor of the Nativity; now is the time to acquaint yourself with them or to enjoy them anew.

It's easier to entertain when the hostess can prepare party dishes and family foods in advance and have plenty of room to store them in a modern electric refrigerator-freezer such as the unit shown here.

Weather watchers will really enjoy receiving a gift such as the unit shown here. It gives information on indoor temperature, humidity and barometric pressure. It may be had in either anodized gold or aluminum finish.

Original Christmas Cards Can Be Made Of Materials

All you need, to make your cards, is a little artistic talent, lots of spare time, plenty of patience and some scraps of cloth!

If you have these things, then this article is for you.

The first step is to select the envelope. It's much easier to cut your cards to fit the envelopes than to have to make or try to find envelopes to fit your cards.

Start with a nice piece of card-weight paper, folded in half so your message can be written inside.

Next, sketch or trace the design you like (keep it very simple) onto a piece of tracing paper. Then transfer the sketch to your card by means of carbon paper. Try to keep the pencil lines light.

Now you're ready to cut the pieces of fabric that you will paste into position on the card. To do this, use the original design and trace the section you want on the back side of the fabric. Cut out and paste into place.

Small feathers, beads, braids, woven tapes, lace and doilies can be used, too. Just make sure that you use a good glue.

Relief pitcher Bill Henry saved 13 games for Cincinnati last season.

BOOT FASHIONS HIGH ON LIST

This Christmas, give her fashion and warmth in one package — with a gift of smart new leather boots designed to add a glow to her holiday costume

There's a wide choise of flattering boot styles to satisfy any taste, reports Shoe Fashion Service of Leather Industries of America. She may prefer side or front fastenings or perhaps she likes zippers or large decorative buckles. They are all available on the prettiest leather boots she's ever seen

For town or more dressy occasions, she'll adore new smooth or grained leather suit boots with flattering shaped heels and square crescent or tapered toes to match Another feminine favorite is fur-trimmed suede leather boots. She'll step high through snow and slush without getting cold or wet feet in your gift of water-resistant leather boots that cover the ankles.

Many of the new boots are wool shearling lined and have turn-up cuffs to keep ankles warm in deep snow or wintry blasts. Other have smooth leather linings that won't wrinkle, chafe or irritate her feet.

The new, weather-proofed leathers are softer and warmer on the foot. Their bright new colors alone would keep her toes warm.

You'll find bright reds, deep red, browned red, burnished browns a gamut of tans, and woody greens and soft yellows as well as gleaming black to choose from.

Your gift will keep on pleasing her in the months to come, as pliant leather soles give a firmer footing on icy, wet, or snowy streets. In addition to keeping their shape longer, all-leather boots resist wind and water.

Unlike impermeable footwear of rubber plastic or woven materials, leather boot shoes allow the foot to "breathe" when she walks from the nippy outdoors into a warm bus or department store. Her feet stay dry inside and out in these smart-looking leather beauties

Give her a boot—she'll love you for it! Chill-chasing mid-calf leather boots are a favorite this season, as is a suede leather coat such as the one shown with fur-lined hood.

FURS STILL TOP YULETIDE LIST

There are probably fewer gifts in the world more cherished by women than mink — a fact borne out by surveys.

Whether it be a coat, stole, jacket or wrap, furriers this coming Yuletide season have made gifts of a mink even more tempting, and, according to the Emba Mink Breeders Association, the organization of American ranchers who produce the high quality mink in 12 natural colors, one lucky woman in 1,666 will own a mink fashion this year.

There is a wide variety of styles from which to choose gifts, and the 12 Emba shades give every woman the added gift of choice of color — to suit her complexion, hair color or personal taste.

High on the list of fur fashions this year are those with casual styling. For example, a trench coat of Morning Light, Emba natural blue-beige mink, is considered "in," whether over a skirt and sweater or over a long crepe dinner gown.

Jasmine, Emba pure white mink, long considered to be an evening fur, has gone casual. One designer has styled the elegant fur into a notch-collared, double-breasted coat with patch pockets and labeled it a daytime fashion.

Yet another designer has fashioned the luscious white fur into a triangular shape and, as an added fillip, and has edged it with white ostrich feathers.

But whatever the gift of Emba mink may be, from a circling boa to a floor-length evening coat, the woman who receives it will cherish it like few gifts in the world!

Lady like is the look of this full length robe with embroidery and lace trim. It's a wonderful fashion for the woman who loves luxury at and outstanding wash-and-wear. This exquisite robe can be worn every hour of the day. The fabric of Enka nylon is soft to the touch belted or flowing. It's a gift that's sure to please any one of the ladies on your list.

Small fry like chocolate marshmallow sundaes. To make these, melt half a pound of marshmallows with half a cup of milk over hot water and serve warm over chocolate ice cream. Nice for a birthday party, especially when topped with maraschino cherries!

Ohio Considers Growing Grapes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tests with about 38 varieties of grapes are being made by Ohio State University's Agricultural Extension Service to determine feasibility of turning parts of southern Ohio into a major grape-producing area.

Fruit specialist Eldon S. Banta of the university said research has resulted in part from continuing population expansion in northern Ohio, taking farm and vineyard land out of crop production.

Tractor Marker Alerts Motorists

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An orange triangle, outlined in red and reflective, has been developed for slow-moving farm vehicles through facilities of Ohio State University's College of Agriculture and the Ohio Farm and Home Safety Committee.

It's to be mounted behind a tractor seat, or on the rear of farm equipment being towed, to caution motorists that the vehicle is moving slower than normal traffic

A gifted pair — the tapered slacks with coordinated pullover! The slacks feature a contour waistline and hidden side zipper. The topping is a velvet overblouse with a detachable dickey.

GLOVE FASHION FLEXIBILITY

Here's a tip for Santa: Put fashion at her finger tips this Christmas with a gift of lovely leather gloves

Fashions in gloves go to every length this winter, so you can't go wrong no matter which length you select. And you'll find hundreds of styles and colors in smooth or finely grained kid leather soft suede and doeskin leathers and textured pigskins.

Since most coats end between the wrist and the elbow this year, your gift will be welcome whether it's a six-button kid gauntlet, an eight-button doeskin musketaire or a 12-button elbow-length glove.

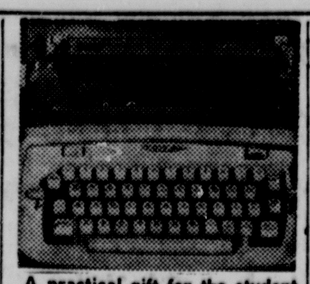

Though most leather gloves will depend on their soft, supple elegance for fashion effect, some styles feature a thin strip of fur at the wrists, contrasting leather lacing around the cuffs, or contrasting color stitching on the fingers.

If, after all these years, you still don't know her glove size, get her a pair of the new leather stretch gloves that fit most women.

The leather glove color range covers all the shades in winter's fashion spotlight such as cranberry, winter blue, bright gold, pine needle, and all tones of brown and beige from bitter chocolate to bone.

In the evening, when the full-length glove lends formal grace to an evening ensemble, leather gloves — smooth or sueded — are smart in either white or black. Frequently a white glove has black beading or other detailing and vice versa.

For the suburbanite and sportswoman, pigskin gloves complete a casual ensemble. For sure, frost-free control of her car wheel select gloves of smooth or textured leather lined in wool.

A practical gift for the student, executive or homemaker is a portable typewriter. The one shown here features plastic cartridges for faster, clearer ribbon changing. It comes in many decorator colors.

Woman, 101, Seeks Security Number

LINCOLN, Ill. (AP) — It's never too late for securing a Social Security number.

At the age of 101 years, Mrs. Julia Lecrone Dean is applying for hers. She finds it necessary in order to comply with the law requiring those receiving dividends and other payments — a requirement in connection with federal tax payments.

She marked her 102nd birthday September 17, 1963.

ULTRA GIFTS AT $25,000

For the Christmas shopper with ample folding money, there's an all-new, luxurious home entertainment center that includes almost everything but a swimming pool.

The tab: $25,000 to $30,000.

Engineered and developed by Ampex Corporation, the Signature V home entertainment center stresses quality throughout. Here's what the buyer gets:

1. AM and FM radio.
2. A color TV set.
3. A new Ampex F-44 four-track audio tape recorder. You can make your own recordings or play pretaped music.
4. A record player, in case you prefer playing records to tapes. Or you can do both — alternately.
5. A Videotape television recorder and television camera This enables you to make "instant home movies" of your family or guests and watch them immediately on the TV screen.

The vidicon camera for home recording weighs only 18 pounds. Both camera and recorder are simple to operate.

6. A special timing mechanism that permits you to preset the Videotape recorder to pick up a TV program during your absence. You watch the show on the TV screen at your convenience. The recorder can pick up 90 minutes of TV shows or "home movies" on its single eight-inch reel of tape and play all or part of it back. You can preserve the tape permanently or erase it and re-use hundreds of times.
7. A device which allows you to record one TV program via the Videotape recorder while watching another show. You view the recorded program when you feel like it.
8. A nine-foot-long cabinet of hand-rubbed walnut with black Vinyl detail. It's three feet, three inches high and two feet, five inches wide.

In addition, the Ampex people provide an operating manual. Naturally, it's elaborately bound in leather!

HANDICAPPED GET NEW LIMBS FOR CHRISTMAS

This year many children, as in past years past, are receiving the best Christmas gift of all: Hope for the future.

Through the efforts of the Shriners and their 17 hospitals, several thousand crippled children are being given straight limbs and the opportunity to live normal, productive lives.

Helping make this possible is the East-West College All-Star game in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium, a highlight of each Christmas season since 1925.

Here some of the nation's top collegiate football stars assemble for what is often one of the grid season's most exciting games. Last year was typical, with East eking out one-touchdown triumph, 25 to 19. This year's game will be held December 28.

Before each game, colorful Shrine parade units fill the field and lend a festive atmosphere to the annual classic. But the East-West clash is more than just a football game or a spectacle. It is an example of how Shriners and grid greats cooperate to support a cause best described by the game's motto "Strong legs run that weak legs may walk."

During their stay in San Francisco, the players visit the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, there to meet the boy or girl who has adopted him while he is in the Golden Gate City.

Each child sings the school song of his player. The football heroes, in turn, distribute gifts — and encouragement and hope for the future for the afflicted youngsters.

Each year outstanding football stars are added to the list of well-known names who have played in the East-West classic. Names like Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame; Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota; Bob Waterfield of UCLA; George McAfee of Duke, and Dick Batten, College of the Pacific, the first alumnus of the San Francisco Shriners Hospital ever to participate in the East-West game.

The 17 Shriners hospitals have treated 125,000 children since 1922 and are operated at an annual budget of $7 million. The hospitals are open to all children under 15 years of age regardless of race, color or creed whose parents are unable to pay for the needed surgical, medical and hospital facilities.

His first camera and a memorable Christmas! The small, light camera shown here is a good choice because a preloaded film cartridge is simply dropped in and clicked into position. A child can load, aim and shoot in just seconds. It takes color prints and slides as well as black-and-white. Tag junior's camera gift "Open Me First"!

When you are preparing a melba sauce (for peach melba) from frozen sweetened raspberries, and you haven't a fine enough strainer to get rid of the raspberry seeds, just strain through cheesecloth.

PUPPY CHOICE IN MANY SORTS

If you're Christmas shopping for a new puppy as a gift, it's as simple to find the breed of dog you need to fit into your scheme of living as it is to say "Santa Claus." There are now 115 recognized breeds to choose from, and some of the most popular breeds even come in a choice of size and color.

Bob Bartos, manager of the Friskies Research Kennels, advises that you shop carefully for your Christmas pup and have in mind what breed and size of dog is best suited to your environment.

For instance, Bob Bartos tells us that the Beagle, a perennial favorite, is available in a small thirteen-inches-or-under size and a larger edition ranging from 13 to 15 inches.

The poodle is available in three different sizes and a vast choice of color. The toy size is under ten inches in height, the miniature variety runs 10 to 15 inches and the larger standard size is over 15 inches.

The Schnauzer, one of the very popular breeds, is also available in miniature, standard and giant size.

The Dachshund, a beguiling little fellow, not only comes in two sizes, but is available in either the smooth-coated version or the long-haired type.

For those who favor the ever popular Collie and his lovable disposition but have a space problem there's the Shetland Sheepdog, a miniature version of the Collie.

While the Shetland Sheepdog is a breed unto himself, he is definitely a miniature version of a Collie. There are many other breeds that have smaller replicas such as the Miniature Pinscher which closely resembles the Doberman in everything but size.

So, when you pup shop, keep the size of the house or apartment in mind and try to choose the dog that will best fit his new surroundings. Bob Bartos advises that it's best to see the parents of the puppy if you want to double-check the size your new puppy will be when full grown.

BLENDER WILL HELP LIGHTEN HOLIDAY MENU

Any cook worth her salt wants pleasure from preparing food. Yet, for many women, the holidays represent slavery over a hot stove

Use an electric blender as the chef's helper, and you can simplify kitchen chores and save hours of hard work.

One blender for example, will mince onions; mix pancakes; grate cheese; blend batters; even fresh-grind the coffee. It will also liquefy, churn, puree, emulsify, homogenize — and chop.

Here are two tested recipes, using a blender, from the home economists of the John Oster Co.:

HOT SPICY APPLE EGGNOG

2 eggs, separated
¼ cup sugar
Dash of salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
Dash of nutmeg
⅔ cup apple juice
4 cups scalded milk
½ cup whipped cream

Mix egg yolks, sugar, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and apple juice in Osterizer and blend until sugar is dissolved. Add 1 cup scalded milk slowly. Pour this mixture into remaining scalded milk and quickly fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into hot eggnog server or carafe and serve topped with mound of whipped cream.

HOLLY SPREAD

8 oz. Swiss Cheese cut into 1-inch cubes
6 pimento-stuffed olives
¼ small green pepper
¼ cup mayonnaise

Put cheese into Osterizer container and cover. Grade by turning on and off, on and off. Stop and add olives and green pepper. Cover and turn on and off once more. Empty into mixing bowl and moisten with enough mayonnaise to make a thick paste. Chill before serving. Yield: 1½ cups.

Sterling Shovels Are $1,000 Each

NEW YORK (AP) — If anyone wants to do some spadework around the house with a real man-size, sterling silver shovel, they're available — at $1,000 apiece.

The 40-inch-long tool, with solid silver blade and handle joined by a rubbed-ebony finish shaft, was on display at the Retail Jewelers of America trade show here. It was designed by Joseph C. Boardman of Wallingford, Conn. for use at ground-breaking ceremonies.

Boardman got the idea for the shovel during a conversation with a jeweler-customer in Richmond, Va., who was looking for something to use at the dedication of a new savings bank.

Thus far, Boardman, has sold 15 shovels.

Custom Eggnog Aids Busy Hostess

For many of us, Christmas just isn't Christmas without the tasty treat of eggnog. A welcome holiday sight in the traditional silver punch bowl at Christmas gatherings, and an equally welcome quick refreshment for friends who've dropped in unexpectedly, egg nog is the perfect holiday drink for young and old alike.

Iff you're planning a party or expecting friends and family over on Christmas Eve, bring out the punch bowl and stock up on bottled egg nog from your favorite dairy. You'll find today's ready-made egg nog better than most home-made versions and it saves so much extra work.

LEATHER GIFTS ADD COMFORT TO BUSY HOMES

After he makes his rounds on Christmas Eve, Santa is happy to take his ease at home. Logically enough, a favorite Christmas gift for Santa's family — and yours — is leather furniture which makes an evening at home an occasion.

Leather beautifies the home, is easy to care for, and lasts for many years — more treasured the longer you live with it.

A natural product whose beauty is enhanced by modern or traditional design, leather in chairs, sofas, tables, lamps and headboards combines old-fashioned elegance with up-to-the-minute practicality.

For example, dining room chairs look handsome to Dad, accentuate a pleasing decor to Mom, and the kids don't have to be reprimanded for food stains that wipe away with a damp cloth.

Interior decorators frequently use occasionaly chairs in leather to counter-balance the main color theme of a room. Rich orange hues, deep reds, or vibrant greens are a few of the available color hues in new leathers. So supple it drapes over any shape, modern upholstery leather has sufficient "body" to give firm support to a tiny housewife or a husky householder.

The big comfortable leather chair Dad likes in his den still doubles as an ideal place for Mom to relax from daily chores. And the kids can lounge in it over a favorite book without fear of a reprimand when restless feet go acrobatic. No matter how many contortions youngsters get into in these big chairs the leather won't soil, sag or scratch.

Leather headboards are favored by everyone in the family. There are gentle pastel quilted leather headboards to give a bedroom a softly feminine look. New bone and off-white or beige tufted headboards have a luxury look with a practical personality, for they resist soil and clean easily.

Consider smart-looking accessories in leather, such as modern lamps with rich tooled leather bases, as family gifts. Leather-top desks give a quiet leather motif with leather-edged blotter holder, a leather-bound daily dairy, calender and file basket.

Handsome end tables and new low modern coffee tables give a mellow warm look to a family room when they are finished off with a rich leather-inlay top.

There's a warmth to leather furnishings and leather furniture that underscores the saying "there's no place like home."

Bill Bell, offensive backfield coach at Syracuse, played high school and college football under his present boss, Coach Ben Schwartzwalder.

A family vehicle! The bicycle has become a favorite with every member of the family. It's more fun than walking and good for the figure and general fitness. Last year, more than 1,000,000 American-made two wheelers contributed to the joy of the holiday.

ART INSPIRES GIRLS' STYLES

The spirit of the Christmas season once flowed throughout the world from the home of a slight, shy English woman who has been all but forgotten by the world to which she gave so much.

Her name was Kate Greenaway, a noted artist of another century whose works inspired the habits, clothing and feeling of her day, not only in England but in America and on the Continent as well.

Miss Greenaway, born in 1846, began copying after her father, a wood engraver, in her early years. By the time she was 17 she won her first art prize — a bronze medal for six ceramic tile designs. Soon to follow were magazine sketches; children's books with both verses and sketches by Miss Greenaway; almanacs and, for six or seven years, a multitude of Christmas cards that vaulted her into great popularity.

Children, and especially their clothing, were Miss Greenaway's favorite art subjects. By 1883, when a "Kate Greenaway Boom" was in full sway, children on both sides of the Atlantic were dressed in styles inspired by her designs, which included ruffles, frills and laces for little girls; and rougher-hewn knickers, jackets and suits for boys.

The designs were so popular that they were reproduced on many items including calendars and carols; in books and on decorative ceramic tiles used to surface the facings and mantels of large English fireplaces, much as decorated American tiles are used on fireplaces today.

Miss Greenaway died in November, 1901, still a quiet and unassuming woman who nevertheless had become England's most famous woman artist. Today there are occasional mentions of her in collectors' and antique journals, but a New York dress shop that sells children's clothing patterned after her designs is the lone "living" reminder of her great talents.

Military games are increasing in popularity and here's one that many boys are sure to want this Christmas. It's the Electric Tank Battle game which features a realistic vibrating action that moves the tanks. Mobile antitank guns shoot magnetic ammunition to knock out enemy tanks. This game provides realistic replay of World War II tank battle strategy.

Pleasant Banker Works In Hospital

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — P. F. Beeler, a small-town banker, didn't like the idleness of retirement. So he got a job as an orderly at a Des Moines hospital.

Now, after 15 years on the job at the hospital, some of his best friends have just learned the meaning of the "P. F." It is Pleasant Fred.

Friends and patients say he is truly named

Seals Add Color To Christmas Tree

Everyone is eager to use Christmas seals on envelopes and packages at Christmastime because they know that by using them they are helping a most worthy cause. However, it is possible to put those seals to other decorative uses as well.

Why not decorate your tree with Christmas Seals . . . the design for this year is colorful, as always, and will provide a wonderful touch.

For instance, you might try taping a row of seals around the center of your solid-color bulbs as an attractive trim.

Or, you can cut bulb shapes out of cardboard, cover them with seals and hang them with strings on branches for unique, colorful ornaments.

If you're really ambitious, try designing a Christmas scene on a poster board with seals, to create an unusual holiday decoration.

Indicate a simple drawing with a holiday theme, such as a reindeer or an angel, in pencil, then follow the outlines with seals. Place seals along border of your design to frame it. Set in one of your windows or over the mantel for an eye-catching display.

When wrapping, instead of tying ribbons around some of your gifts, try outlining a ribbon and bow with seals for an attractive design. For best effect, use a solid-color paper that matches any of the colors in this year's seal.

You may think of other ways of using Christmas seals in holiday decorations . . . do use them!

the ABC's of CHRISTMAS GIFTS

A . . . is for APPLIANCES large and small, the basic gift item for many givers since the appliance is always considered the gift that keeps giving! Why not buy her a new Frigidaire electric range and have it delivered in time to cook your Christmas turkey? Or how about a shiny new automatic toaster, a portable mixer a multi-cup coffee maker . . . or any one of the hundreds of fine new and sensibly priced appliances awaiting you now here at Ditzler's.

B . . . is for Barter and where else but at Ditzler's can you get more in trade for your old appliance, living room, bedroom suite or even your old, tired mattress. Yes, we'll give you more in trade and a finer selection from which to choose!

C . . . is for casual, not stiff, frilly and uncomfortable but a fine casual gift from anyone of our large departments. Select a lovely casual setting for holiday (and year-around) entertaining. How about a new Danish modern living [illegible] grouping for the den or TV roo[illegible]e hi-back recliner for Dad, the [illegible]it of a maple or cherry colonia[illegible]edroom grouping? See our extensive display, fresh and ready for you now at Ditzler's.

D . . . is for (shall we say it?) Dirty Dishes, an unfortunate but inevitable aftermath, not only at Christmas but after every meal during the years to come. But this is no longer a problem, select one of the spanking new Frigidaire automatic Dishwashers. You can choose one that is built-in and permanently installed, one that rolls easily on casters and can be attached to your present sink and stored out of the way when finished . . . and "D" is also known for Discounts. Why don't you stop in and get our best price on anything for your home?

E . . . is for elegance, a quality coveted by most of the ladies and what better season than Christmas is there to fulfill this desire? How about an elegant occasional table to freshen the living room, a lamp or two to add the bright cheer to the Holiday Season and who would disagree that a fresh new color Frigidaire refrigerator, range or laundry appliance is anything but elegant?

F . . . is for Floors and everyone has plenty. Have you seriously checked yours lately. Do it right now and then visualize one of our beautiful, new patterns of carpet laid wall-to-wall over deep cushioning (all installed by our own men). You can choose from nylons, wools (100%, of course) and blends. There is always one to fit your Holiday budget. You might say "The Gift That Will Really Floor Her."

Ditzler's FURNITURE AND APPLIANCE STORE York Springs, Pa.

G . . . if for Generous and this does not mean expensive. Let us show you the hundreds of items from our stock that will be generously received as a gift from you. Zenith clock-radios, Stereo Hi-Fi with AM and FM radio, color TV, Simmons BeautyRest mattress just mention a few.

H . . . is for Home, your Home and that is our business. Remember our slogan "Your Complete Home Shopping Center." You've seen it hundreds of times. Something from Ditzler's can be found in the majority of the homes in our area. And there is a good reason for where else can you find names like Kroehler living room, Simmons bedding, Zenith TV and radios, Jamestown bedroom, ChromeCraft breakfast sets, Bassett bedroom, dining room and tables, Broyhill correlated home groupings, Broyhill bedroom ensembles, etc., all under one roof?

I . . . is for If and if you don't mind let us say that if we didn't brag just a bit about the people who make Ditzler's "tick" we'd be missing the boat. One highly successful fur store made this slogan famous, 'If you don't know furs, know your furrier." We don't sell furs but most everything for your home and our expertly trained sales personnel is anxious to help you with your Holiday and everyday shopping. Come in and see Dick Koenig, John Breighner, Jim McCleaf or Joe Dunne for the most experienced, courteous service. This courteous service is matched only by the excellent crew that comes into your home with your selection and sees to it that it is professionally delivered, installed and serviced.

J . . . is for Job and it is said, "There is no future in any job . . . the future is in the one who holds the job." This applies to a store as well and we here at Ditzler's, not only at Holiday time, but every day, know that our job is to offer you the most complete selection, top quality, professional sales help to you in the purchase of "Things for Your Home" . . . and all for less than you can buy it elsewhere or we will not have done our job. We invite you to come in and see if we are doing our job.

K . . . is for Knick-Knacks and should be directed to husbands who will wait too long to shop for gifts. So if you wait too long this year be sure to check us for that pick-up and run gift. Possibly a fine steam and dry iron (not exactly a knick-knack but a pick-up and run item). The same with the popular electric hair dryer with hood, or any of the dozens of thoughtful gifts from our gift bar.

L . . . is for Look and that is exactly what everyone coming into your home will do at your furnishings. Don't dissappoint them this year. Let us refurnish your living room with a smart new Kroehler living room outfit complete with tables and lamps . . . and at a price you'd expect to pay for only the two-piece suite. We've already mentioned how nice a new carpet would be to go with this furniture. Shouldn't the old dinette or breakfast be retired in favor of a new one right now (remember we trade) and if you don't have enough space to store the extra goodies in your old refrigerator, we have the cure for that with a 1964 Frigidaire refrigerator that never needs defrosting . . . anywhere.

M . . . is for Music and we're really loaded here. Come in and see the finest and largest selection of Zenith sound equipment anywhere in the area. See the "Scherzo" Hi-Fi Stereo complete with world's finest FM-AM radio in contemporary styling and in oiled finished walnut veneers and select hardwood solids. Play your favorite records with the exclusive Zenith Micro-Touch tone arm that will play your records a lifetime with virtually no record wear . . . that's sweet music!

N . . . is for night openings for your convenience. We are always open late Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. But during the pre-Christmas season we add additional evening openings.

O . . . is for Offers, offers you just won't be able to turn down. Imagine a super-size Simmons quilt-top mattress and box spring, a huge 60" x 80" size with that extra space all adults (and a few chubby youngsters) need . . . priced less than many plain regular bedding outfits. Three-piece "honey-bee" finish maple bedroom suite (with laminated plastic tops) priced less than one solid maple double dresser . . . and we could go on for hours.

P . . . is for people, our reason for being in business. We'll again be looking forward to assisting you with the difficult job of "gifting" all your friends and relatives . . . which brings up a serious thought. What are you going to buy for yourself? We're qualified with personnel and merchandise to take care of this important assignment too.

Q . . . is for Queen, the lady of the house. The person responsible for the Holiday preparations and certainly deserving an appropriate gift for labours. As mentioned, a kitchen appliance is perfect but how about a nice traditional ladies' chair with foam cushioning, a wall mirror or picture, a boudoir chair for the bedroom or one of the many extra storage items like metal wardrobes, cedar wardrobes and (regardless of her age) a nice cedar chest . . . you'll be glad you remembered your number one gal with a gift from Ditzler's!

R . . . is for many things, it could be for Returns. If the item you select for your favorite person or your family is not 100% satisfactory in any way or it is not the color or size needed, simply give us a call and we will be happy to correct the situation to your complete satisfaction . . . this way you just can't go wrong on your gift selection.

S . . . is for synthetic fabrics. The wonderfully new colors and textures we have to show you in our Kroehler living room suites, sofas, sectional sofas and companion chairs. Nylons, alone and in combination on our colorful and comfortable TV recliners, at a price you have in mind. And don't forget the wonderfully practical nylon carpeting for years of satisfaction.

T . . . is for taste, truth and we have already mentioned toasters. Our buyers have exercised the utmost in taste in collecting a storeful of home furnishings suitable for giving and truth is the spirit in which this merchandise is offered. Top quality, honestly priced and thoroughly guaranteed.

U . . . is for undecided . . . undecided if we shouldn't do some shopping on our own and come up with a new Advertising Agency after they have suggested this type of ad. In which case the "U" could also stand for this "unemployed" copywriter.

V . . . is for vintage. Christmas conjures up the old, the traditional and the honored. What fits this feeling better than the warm, cozy charm of Early American furniture . . . and Ditzler's have the one piece or complete room for you. Salem maple settee and companion chair covered in colonial prints with reversible foam seats and backs . . . ideal for any room. Even the signers of the Declaration of Independence would have been delightful with our Colonial bedroom suites . . . and amazed at the "before inflation" price tags.

W . . . is for wallet also called purse, roll, wad, bag, pouch or pocketbook, Whatever you call it, it's a mighty important item or at least the contents are. This is where Ditzler's can do something to help you over a sometimes costly gift buying season. Not only do we offer you the lowest prices, we have ready for you several plans by which you can, painlessly, pay any remaining balance. You tell us how pour purchase will best fit in your wallet (or whatever you call it) and we have the plan for you.

Y . . . is for York Springs. It's here, ½ mile south on the old route 15 . . . on top of the hill with top gifts of furniture and appliances for the top man and woman of your home.

Z . . . is for Zany. The condition of the writer who challenges you to write an Alphabet ad covering 26 different categories. Or we could conclude by asking you to be sure to "Zee" all the glorious gift ideas now at Ditzler's in York Springs.
